

QUIET TEARS FALL AS TROOPS SAIL

First Infantry Boards Big Transport and Steams for Honolulu.

SEARCH BRINGS REWARDS

Eight Filipino Stowaways Found in Coal Bunkers—Band Plays Old Airs as Sherman Swings From Her Dock.

"Good-bye, Little Girl, Good-bye; Don't Cry, Little Girl, Don't Cry" played the band of the "Fighting First" as the big transport Sherman swung into the stream from the North Bank dock at about 9:20 o'clock yesterday morning and farwells were at an end, following an exchange of well wishes between the crews that lined the dock and the uniformed soldiery on the ship. There were many tears shed quietly, for the going of the First Infantry meant a loss to some left behind, yet they were consoled with the thought that the warriors were not bound to the dark jungles and swamps of the Philippines, but only headed for the Hawaiian Islands to do garrison duty in new barracks. Of course, they expect to eventually find their way again to the Southern Isles, but for a long time they will be in the land of pineapples and kanakas.

Big Crowds Visit Dock.

The sailing of the Sherman was like the departure of dozens of other transports in the days when the movement of troops was regular, but in this instance it was close to home, and to all appearances it was as regretful as if the First was actually heading into the enemy's country. In the absence of records it is said the crush at the dock was the greatest in the history of any event on the waterfront. Long before the hour of departure hundreds began to assemble and there was delegations from Vancouver to add their quota.

Among the preliminaries was the disembarking of the First Infantry, the negro casuals who were brought from San Francisco and other soldiers, so that officers of the ship could make a complete inspection. From the upper deck to the lowest depths of the hold the searchers wended their way and at last were rewarded, for in the dark recesses of the bunkers, hemmed in with great piles of coal, were found eight Filipinos. The dusky natives had stowed away at San Francisco, evidently expecting to elude the watchfulness of officers, and with the assistance of their brethren in the crew, managed to sneak out an existence until the ship rode into Manila Bay.

During the search the regiment and unassigned troops were mustered on the dock and in which white signals, at the conclusion of the investigation, while the Philippines were placed in the brig with seven others who had stowed away at Honolulu and were found on their way to San Francisco, so are being returned to the Hawaiian port.

Old Tunes Revived.

The First Infantry Band had revived its old repertoire for the occasion and rendered "The Girl I Left Behind Me," "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean" and "Good-bye, Little Girl, Good-bye," all of which "took" with old-time enthusiasm. There were other selections of a popular and patriotic character.

After the Sherman got under way, her twin screws having swung her nose down stream with little delay, there was a mass of official notes, orders and other documents to come ashore and a signal was given Harbor-master Speler, who was on hand with the harbor patrol launch, in which was Major J. W. Yates, Quartermaster Department station here. With a deft heaving of the emergency line carried on the launch the transport block was reached and the mail sent down.

As far as the lower end of the harbor the launch escorted the big troopship and then, with three whistle signals, she turned about, while the Sherman answered, and in turn replied to factory whistles, salutes from locomotives and the farwell screams of non-combatants on various plants—all joining in the last demonstration to the First, a regiment that has made history for itself and the Nation.

MAYOR SAVES CITY $16,000

"Big Stick" Tactics Cut Down Cost of Gulch Sewers.

By vigorous wielding of the "big stick," Mayor Russell has just saved the taxpayers in Sullivan's gulch sewers, Nos. 1 and 2, about $16,000. Bids for stone blocks which the Mayor, who is a practical plumber, says are better than brick for heavy sewer invert, were quoted yesterday afternoon to the extent of $17,271 for No. 2, as against $70,466 previously bid for brick invert. Combined previous bids for stone blocks exceeded in the first call for the work approximately $16,000, the new bid. The contracts were awarded.

NOT GUILTY CONLEY'S PLEA

Accused Union County Man Freed on His Own Recognizance.

A. E. Conley, the Union County wheat king and banker, who has been a fugitive from justice since November, 1908, and who is under indictment on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Gertrude Williams, a minor, went quietly before Presiding Judge Kavanaugh late Wednesday afternoon and entered a plea of not guilty. He was released on his own recognizance.

Learning from the Oregonian yesterday morning that Conley had returned to La Grande, Deputy Sheriff Leonard, who has been working on the case ever since the wheat king disappeared, telegraphed the authorities at La Grande to arrest Conley. The warrant has been in the hands of Sheriff Stevens for more than three years.

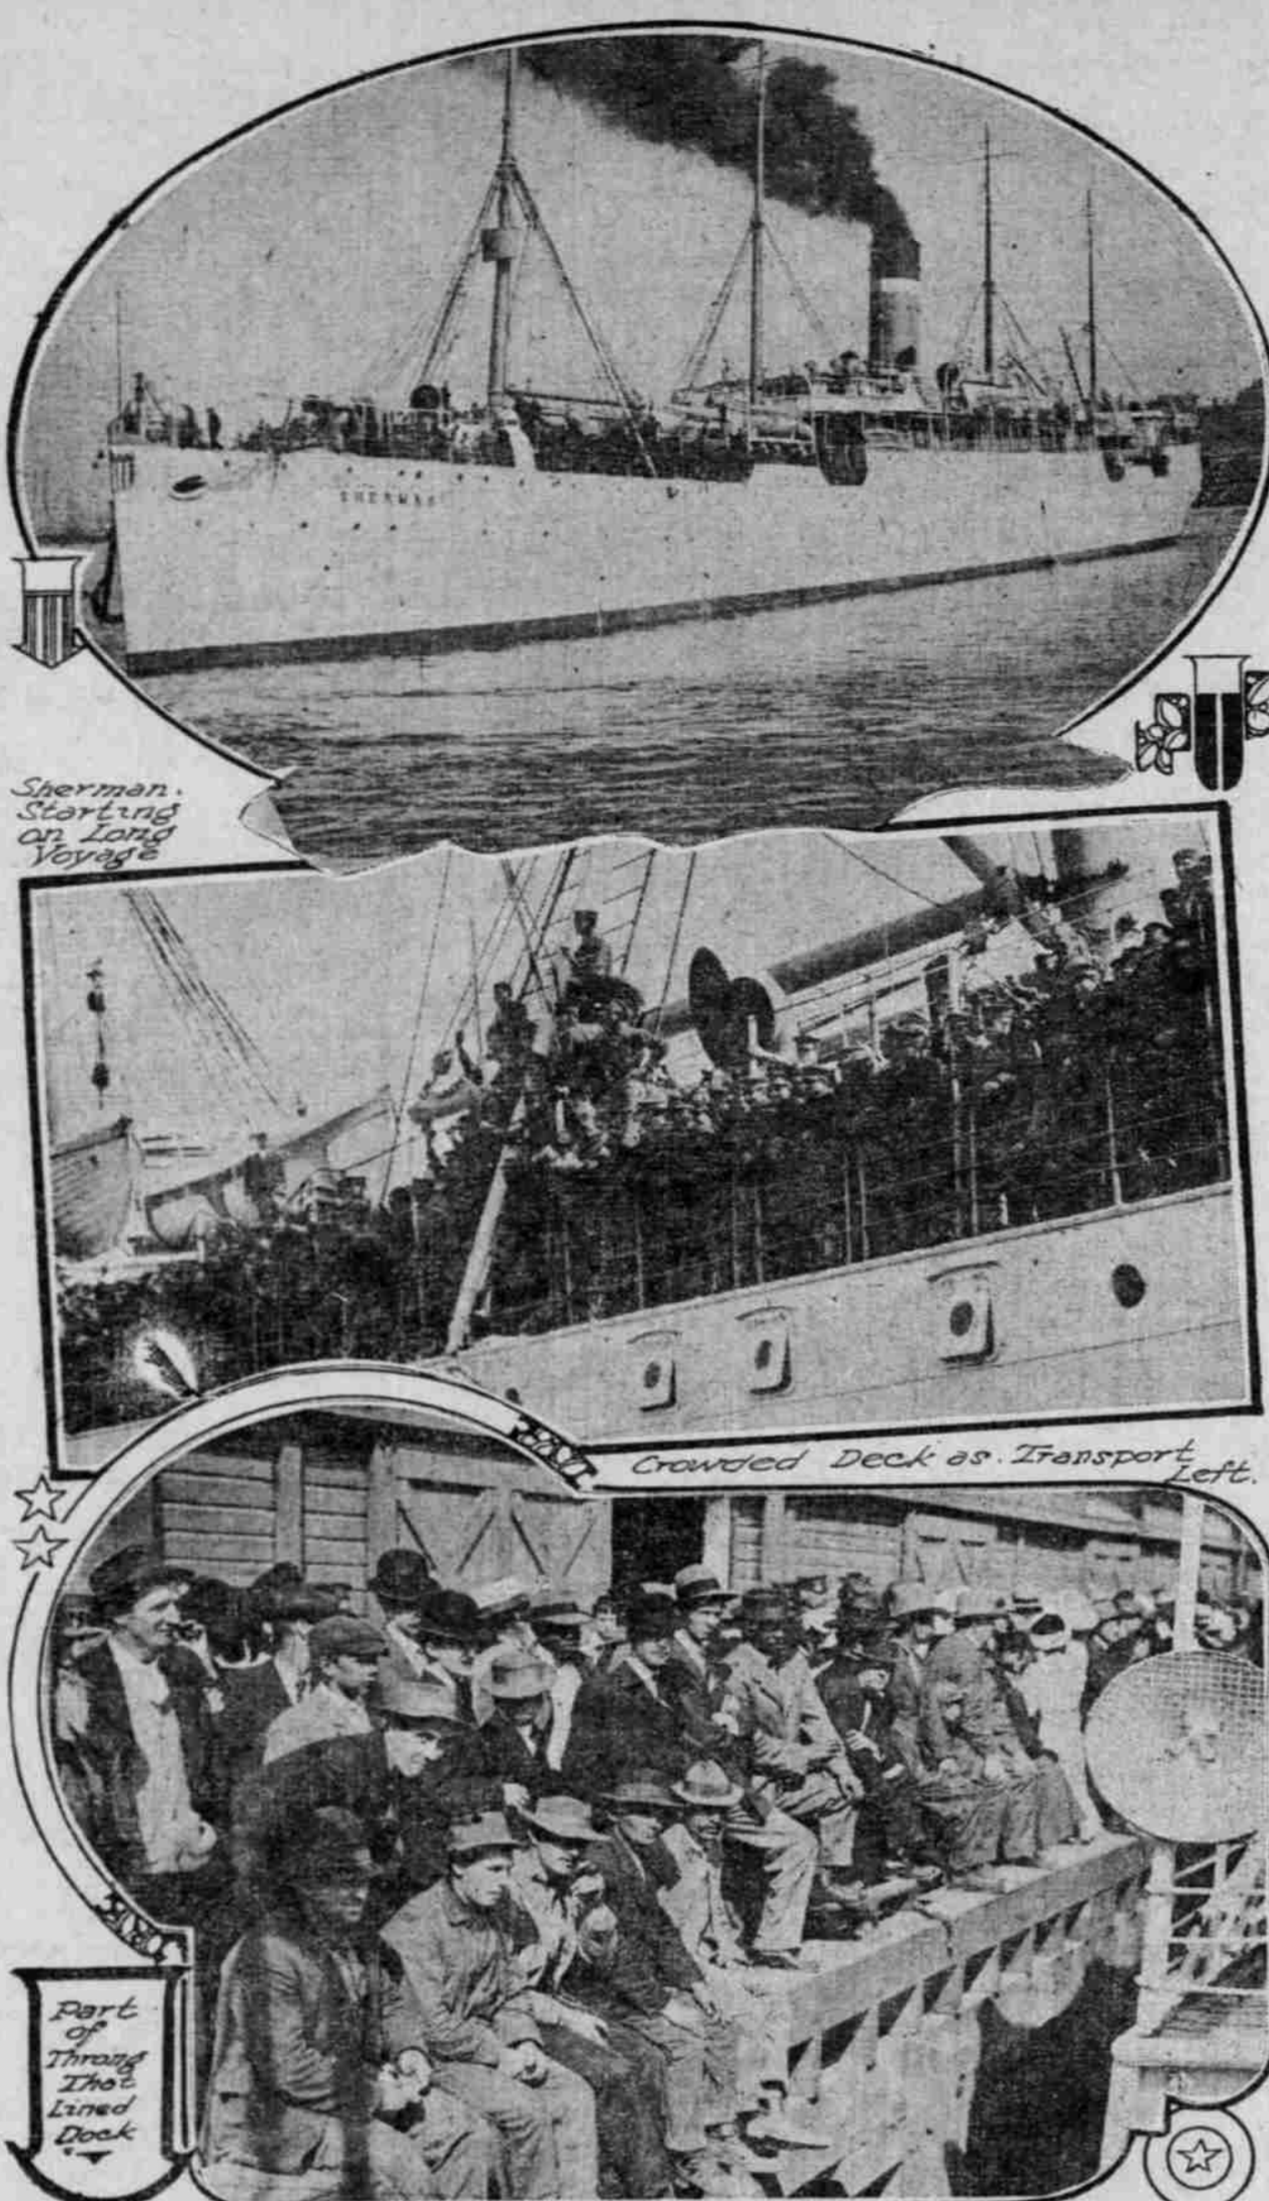

Conley was arrested at La Grande, and a few hours later was released when it was learned that he had already been allowed his freedom without bail.

SOCIAL WORKERS TO MEET AT Y. M. C. A. MONDAY.

Attendance Restricted to Those Invited—Interest in Movement Shows Big Growth.

The Social Hygiene Society has issued a call for a conference of educators and other social workers to be held at the Young Men's Christian Association Monday afternoon and evening. Plans for the conference have been under way for some time.

The attendance will be restricted to those invited. It is expected that 150 will attend. More than 100 have responded to invitations and only 10 have declined.

Since its organization last Fall the society has been pursuing its work quietly, but actively. There are a score of lecturers now engaged in the social hygiene work, and their number includes men prominent in the medical profession and in educational circles. Lectures on the question of social hygiene are given in stores, factories, shops, schools and at neighborhood gatherings, and thousands of pieces of literature have been distributed.

Interest in the work has grown to such an extent that requests are received from various parts of the state for speakers and organizers in the movement. Only a week ago Dr. Calvin S. White, president, and others organized a society at Salem. Several weeks ago a number of prominent Portland doctors went to Seattle and helped in organizing a society. The attendance at the meeting Monday will be state wide.

President White will preside. Among the speakers will be President Campbell of the University of Oregon; Dr. George J. Fisher, of New York, head of the Y. M. C. A. physical department, and Dr. C. J. Smith, president of the State Board of Health. A luncheon will be served at noon.

JURY WILL PROBE CLUB

ACCOUNTS OF POLITICAL ORGANIZATION CAUSE INQUIRY.

Money Paid by Candidates Not Reported—Other Fees Said to Be Incorrect.

Accounts of the Workmen's Political Club, an active factor in the recent primary election, will be investigated by the grand jury, announced District Attorney Cameron yesterday. Failure to account for the expenditures of contributions which candidates swear they paid to the club or its officers forms the basis of the investigation.

"I have not all the facts at hand," said Mr. Cameron, "but I am looking them up, and will present facts to the grand jury."

In a report filed by Councilman James Maguire, secretary of the club, in conformity to the corrupt practices act, the expenditures are placed at $123.61, and receipts at $147.70. The contributions, which are itemized as required by law, do not include statement of contributions from Seneca Foulis, T. J. Kreuder, W. H. Fitzgerald, Fred W. Prapp, A. W. Lawrence and H. J. Murnane, all of whom were supported by the club. The last four of these, in their individual statements, report payments aggregating close to $150 to the club.

R. O. Rector swears that he paid Madison, an officer of the club, $21, said to be credited with $2. Joseph H. Jones reports paying $76, and he is credited with $20.

The most popular form of old sea clock was the sandglass, which greatly resembled the present-day egg timer. Many of these times were timed to run 24 hours, and prior to the ship leaving land the glass was exactly at noon. It was carefully watched and turned as soon as the sand ran down the skipper could reckon the days with fair accuracy.

POST SEEMS DESERTED

VANCOUVER BARRACKS STILL HAS 600 MEN, HOWEVER.

Lieutenant-Colonel Cabell, Who Came in 1884 as Under Officer, Is Now in Command.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., May 10.—(Special.)—With the First Infantry gone the post seems almost deserted, although there are more than 600 officers and enlisted men yet remaining here. Lieutenant-Colonel George E. Young, of the Twenty-first Infantry, which is due to arrive Monday on the transport Thomas from Manila. He is thought to have about 15 officers and about 320 enlisted men under his command.

An interesting coincidence was learned today when Colonel Cabell recalled that he came to Vancouver Barracks in July, 1884, from Cantonment-of-the-Uncompagnre, in Colorado, with the Fourteenth Infantry. This regiment relieved the Twenty-first Infantry, which was under command of Colonel Henry Morrow, father of Judge Morrow, of Portland. Colonel Cabell had been in the service but a year at that time and was a Second Lieutenant. Now he is Lieutenant-Colonel in command of Vancouver Barracks, and will welcome back the Twenty-first Infantry. Colonel George Young was stationed here as Post Quartermaster in 1900 with the Seventh Infantry.

A BALD-HEADED WOMAN

Shorn of Her Crown of Beauty, Loses in Love and Marriage.

Hair is certainly most necessary to woman. Who could love and marry a bald-headed woman? What charms could one array to offset such a disfigurement?

A woman's goal is usually love and marriage. Her shining glory is her hair. The loss of her hair mars her beauty, happiness, and success. Yet, right here in Portland, there are thousands of women who are neglecting or injuring their hair to such an extent that it is only a matter of time when it will be utterly ruined.

Many women attribute the beauty of their hair through thoughtlessness or ignorance of certain facts. They use curling irons over-heated, or to excess, which destroys the natural oil of the hair, causing it to split, break, and come out. They do not shampoo their hair often enough, or too often. They use soap and shampoos which contain ingredients positively harmful to the scalp and hair.

As a result of such treatment, dandruff is created, the hair loosens, color, falls out, and baldness commences, unless proper and prompt precautions are taken in time. Then again, microbes and certain diseases bring about unhealthy scalp and hair conditions.

Almost any woman may rid herself of dandruff and diseased scalp and hair if she will but use the right remedy. We have that remedy, and we will positively guarantee that it will either cure dandruff and baldness or it will not cost the user anything.

That's a pretty broad statement, but we will back it and prove it with our own money. We will return your money if you do not find the natural oil of your hair in 93 out of 100 cases, where it received a thoroughly hard, impartial, and practical test.

We want you to try Revell's "33" Hair Tonic as our risk. You surely cannot lose anything by doing so, while you have everything to gain. You had better think this over, and then come in and see us about this offer. You will be well repaid for your visit to our store.

Sold only by the Owl Drug Co. Stores in Portland, Seattle, Spokane, San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles and Sacramento.

The other officers left are Captain Kinnison, Captain E. J. Dent, of F Company Engineers; Captain Herschel Tapes, of the First Infantry, on special detail; Captain Lanza, in command of the Second Field Artillery; Captain A. R. Warfield and Lieutenants Charles J. Taylor, Wilkes, Merle Proctor, J. C. Beatty, Vincent Meyer, Wiley E. Dawson, W. H. Rucker, Captain Lanza is in command of D Battery, Second Field Artillery; Captain A. R. Warfield, of F Battery, and Lieutenant Rucker, of E Battery.

In the Medical Corps here now are Captain R. H. Pierson, Lieutenant-Colonel J. T. Clark, Captain Matthew A. Reasener and Lieutenant Ford.

Captain F. W. Bugbee, Captain Elmer Clarke, Lieutenant Wiley E. Dawson and Lieutenant Fairfax, who reported for duty today, are awaiting the arrival of their regiment, the Twenty-first.

When Colonel Morrow was here in 1884 he lived in the commanding officer's quarters, now the Officers' Club.

No officers will be permitted to remove to other quarters until after the arrival of the Twenty-first Infantry.

"PORTLAND DAY" PURES

ROSEBURG CARNIVAL WORKERS MAKE BIG PLANS.

Already More Than 200 Reservations for Excursion to Strawberry Festival Are Listed.

With all arrangements completed for a special train from Portland for "Portland day" at the Roseburg strawberry carnival Thursday, May 16, F. E. Young and other members of the committee from Roseburg are making an active campaign to arouse interest and insure a large delegation from this city.

With Mr. Alley on the Roseburg committee are: C. H. Sandbender, A. P. Marshall, Dr. A. C. Seely, R. A. Smith, Clyde Barger and W. E. Campbell, all from Roseburg. Reaching Portland Thursday, they will establish headquarters at the Imperial Hotel and from that place will conduct the campaign for the strawberry carnival.

Already more than 200 reservations have been made for the excursion and Mr. Alley reckons upon a still greater increase before tomorrow.

"We want the Portland people to visit us on the first day of the carnival especially, since that is Portland day," said the chairman of the committee, "but we want them also to remain over for the entertainment of the two days following, as many of them as possible."

Mr. Alley promised yesterday that every Portland visitor should have a chance at more strawberries than he could eat, and the best of hospitality that Roseburg can offer.

On Thursday evening after the opening of the carnival the women of the city will give a reception for the visiting Portland people in the Elks temple. Friday will be devoted to the fraternal orders, which will have representatives in Roseburg from every part of the state, and on Saturday a big parade of livestock from Douglas County Fair will be the main feature of attraction. But at all times throughout the carnival, and everywhere in the city, strawberries are to be as plentiful and as free as air. He rises in Portland during the Rose Festival.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid, an irritating, inflammatory accumulation, which gets into the circulation because of weak kidneys, constipation, indigestion, and other physical irregularities which are usually considered of no importance. Nothing applied externally can ever reach the seat of this trouble; the most such treatment can do is to soothe the patient temporarily, while potash and other mineral medicines really add to the acidity of the blood, and this fluid therefore continually grows more acid and vitiated. Then instead of nourishing the different muscles and joints, keeping them in a normally supple and elastic condition, it gradually hardens and stiffens them by drying up the natural oils and fluids. Rheumatism can never be cured until the blood is purified. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and driving the cause from the system. It strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a sour, weak stream, depositing acid and painful corrosive matter in the muscles, joints and bones, it nourishes the entire body with pure, rich blood and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. contains no potash, alkali or other harmful mineral, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of great purifying and tonic properties. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.
