TAFT MAKES FUN OF T. R.'S EGOTISM

Before If Vanity Is Fed President Sees Danger for Country.

ATTACK GROWS PERSONAL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 12.-President Taft's first day of the final campaign for the presidency was marked with a speech here Tuesday, which his opponents regarded as a timely and effective use of his personal influence.

"I am sorry that this campaign season begins so late," said Taft, "and I am sorry that it must end so soon. But I am sure that the people of the United States will choose the best man to lead them in the years to come.

"One here and be fitted. We are the only President of the best moral and ethical standards. Our country is committed. The policies that came of the United States is of the highest order, year by year, by year, by year in years of practical experience.

Another "I

In this year, men come and men go. But there are some things that will remain forever. Such as the pure, the true, the noble, the good. Such are the things that make a country.

Having won the majority in the United States, the President will be inaugurated, and this is an important event in the history of the world.
