WOMAN TESTIFIES AGAINST HUSBAND. Still weak and bearing visible scars a the result of 20 knife wounds inflicted by her husband, nearly two weeks ago, Mrs. Fred Petra appeared in Municipal Court yesterday to give her testimony in the case. She related how she had been decoyed to South Portland by representations that her babe, left in the custody of her estranged husband, was dangerously ill, and how, after finding the story false, she started to leave, and was attacked by Petra in a dark alley, and literally out to

In a dark alley, and literally cut to ribbons. Petra asserted that his wife had commenced the attack and that he fied. He said some other person was guilty of the stabbing suffered by Mrs. Petra. The court brushed this story aside as utterly false and sentenced Petra to 80 days and to pay a fine of $390, on a city charge of assault and battery. This will not act as a bar to a prosecution before the grand jury on the felony charge.

Hyperexis Boy Leaves Hospital.

—After an operation, common in adults, but unusual and dangerous in children, Dick Humphreys, 2-months-old son of Attorney Lester W. Humphreys, left Good Samaritan Hospital last night. When the child was brought to the hospital ten days ago it was slowly starving to death, and little hope was entertained for its recovery. It was necessary to enlarge the opening benecessary to enlarge the opening between the intestines and the stomach, which had almost disappeared. MRS. COE TEMPORARY HEAD

Equal Suffrage Workers Prepare for Active Campaign.

At a meeting of the executive board of the State Equal Suffrage Association, held Monday at headquarters in the Selling building, a letter was read from Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway in which she asked for the appointment of Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe as temporary president until such time as she should be able to carry on the duties of the office. It was also decided that are rangements should be made for a union meeting of delegates from all allied or-ganizations in the state, to be held here Mrs. Coe, whose appointment made unanimously, said yesterday that Mrs. Duniway's health is improving now, and "she is so anxious to see this work carried on that we all feel tha best way to maintalu the improvement in her health is to work for the cause as hard as we possibly can. If she sees that we are making headway she can have no reason to worry, and will soon be back again at the head of affairs." The council of negro womes held an enthusiastic meeting under the auspices of the association at the African Methodist Church, 68 Tenth street North Monday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Walde Coe introduced Mrs. C. B. Woodruff, of Williamette Heights, as the principal speaker. After an interesting address it was decided to form an allied association for negro women who are mem-bers of any of the five churches, with the object of spreading equal suffrage ideas among those of the race.
