THE MORNING OREGONIAN, THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1912.

LOS ANGELIES, Cal., May 15 -- (Spe-cial.) -- McCredie today justified his claim that his Beavers would soon be showing last season's class and trimmed the Tigers of Hap Hogan's squad by the ridiculous score of 14 to

I. Harkness had the locals at his mercy at every stage of the game, allowing seven hits, but only once when they would do any good. On the other hand, the Beavers did what they pleased with Whalen, who however, stayed in the box through the nine woeful in-nings. Bancroft and Doans were the bright particular stars with the willow, the former being credited with two doubles and two singles, and the latter with a single and two triples. Hosp had an off-day and was pulled out of the game after making two costly errors. errors

Errors at Start Costly.

Errors at Start Costly. After Chadbourne and Rancroft were out in the opening session the Beavers piled up five tallies, just for a starter. Bancroft lined out a double, but was caught between third and home after Hoap had fumbled Rodgers' easy one and lat the second-sacker get to first. The next Hoap had a chance he over-threw first and let Krueger reach the initial bar safely.

Lind-say doubled, scoring Rapps and Doane, and scored himself on Howley's single. The game was over right them, but the players didn't know it. In the fourth Chadbourne moored on a single, theft of second and Bancroft's double. Ban-croft romped home after the catch of Harkness' fly after getting third on Harkness' fly after getting third on Brashear's muff of the throw-in.

Harkness Loosens Up Once.

Harkness Loosens Up Once. In the sixth Patterson got Vernon's ione score on a single and Brashear's double, the only time Harkness loosened up during the game. On Pertland's side the last four innings were easy. In the sixth Chadbourne scored again on a single, stealing sec-ond and Rodgers' single. In the sev-enth Doane tripled and Lindsay and Howley doubled right after him, fol-lowed by a single by Harkness, and when the dust had settled, three more tailies had been added to the over-burdened scoreboard. Of the three new men Higginbotham, a Fortland boy, by the way, is most needed of all, in view of Gilligan's en-forced rest under a National Commis-sion ukase. Harkness' return to furm yesterilay adds an encouraging note to the tidings from down south, but with Gilligan out and Henderson still await-ing word from father, McCredie is cer-tainly not obsensed with an idea of se-curty over his pitching staff.

Fans Know Higginbotham.

Higginbotham is well known in the Pacific Northwest, which was his old stamping grounds before being called by the majors. In 1965 he twirled for St. Louis and Chicago in the National St. Louis and Chicago in the National League, winning six games and losing two. In 1910 he was sent to Louis-winning six and losing six with a club that imished in sixth place, with a per-centage of only 228. Last season he began with Louisville, but later landed at Tolede. His record was 19 wins and 22 losses, or about on a par with the record of his club throughout the senson.

The record of his club throughout the senson. He should prove a winning huri-smith with Portland. McCredia secured Fisher because Wolverton, of the New York Yankees, was forced to come to terms with his recalcitrant catcher, Ed Sweeney, who goes on the records as one big leaguer who forced the bosses to meet his sal-ary demands. He sized a contract for Chleage Pitsburg ary demands. He signed a contract for $6000 and donned a sult for the first

Notes of the Game. Center Fielder Speas made all three put-outs in the third imning. In the fourth, his neld generalship in playing back against the boards robbed Whaling of a hit. Catcher Whaling, of the Bugs, went only from second to third on James' double in the second insing. Svidently he waar's sure that the hall would sall to the fence. In the fourth inning the Colics had the bases full, with one out, but James railled, speas and Fries both tapping dinky ground-ers to pitcher. Youth showed in James' failure to com-plete a double in the fourth when a little headwork would have saved him the popo-lating of the bags. Ribble had walked and reached second on Colirin's hit when Stan-field popped unexpectedly to James. The Oroville kid stood and held the bail when be could have walked over to first and got Colirin.

An Oakiand player is credited with the statement that the trouble with the supposedly formidable Los Angeles pitching staff is that the pitchers are all alite, He says they are all slow-ball pitchers, and that if Berry would Coltrin. James has been under contract to Seattle for two seasons, but preferred Grazs Valley and Orovillo, Cal. to league ball. He was recommended to Dugdale by Scoffeid, the former Seattle player.
