temple, Almas temple, of Washington D. C., The Ladies' and others were enthusiastically cheered.

Bonquets Sent to Train.
Not satisfied with having filled the rooms at the hotel with flowers the Portland committee sent large bouquets to the train. Frank Hennessey distributed hundreds of red roses with compliments of the Portland Lodge of Elks and invited everyone to return to Portland for the Elks' National convention in July.

It was a few minutes after 2 o'clock when the Imperial potentate, wearing the O. W. R. & N. Co.'s main line for its next stopping place, Fall Lake City.

While the noisy demonstration was in progress the report other members of Al Kader temple were lavishing entertainment upon the delegation of New England Shriners at the Multnomah Hotel. This party consisted of 24 members of Al Aleppo temple, of Baltimore, most of whom were accompanied by their wives. Sphinx temple of Hartford, Conn., had 12 members on the Aleppo special; Palestine temple, of Providence, R. I., had 12 members; Beulah temple, of Concord, N. H., had 15, and the temple of Springfield, Mass., had 15. The party was in charge of Frank W. Lund, of Boston, traveling passenger agent for the New York Central.

Progress Surprises East.
Henry F. Smith, City Clerk of Hartford, Conn., was on his first visit to Portland and the Coast. He marveled at the wonderful industrial development of the West.

William Dwight Chandler, editor and publisher of the Concord Evening Monitor, of Concord, N. H., and potentate of Beulah temple, also was interested in Portland and its resources.

William Watson Frayer, illustrious potentate of Sphinx temple, conducted all members of that temple to the ball game yesterday afternoon.

"New Englanders are great fans," he said, "and we find that the boys out here on the Coast play classy ball."

A. Dugmont, of Sphinx temple, is the representative of the New York Dramatic Mirror, and called on the temple of Portland theatrical people last night.

The New Englanders were entertained by automobile rides through the scenic parts of the city.

"Portland has every town in California beat for climate and beauty," said George W. Klett, of New Britain, Conn.

The New England special left last night over the Northern Pacific for Puget Sound cities.

Included in the "Imperial Special" party were Shriners from various Eastern temples in addition to those from Baltimore and Washington. Pyramid temple, of Bridgeport, Conn., had a large delegation on board.

Dr. William Thomas Bishop, of Zeno Temple, Harrisburg, Pa., was interested in Portland after an absence of seven years. He was a delegate to the meeting of the American Medical Association held here in the year of the Lewis and Clark Fair. Dr. Bishop is a veteran of the Civil War and has lived in the same house in Harrisburg for more than 45 years.

Khediye Temple, of Norfolk, Va., was represented by Charles F. Taylor, of Suffolk, and a number of other Virginians, most of whom were accompanied by members of their families.

William Hamber, of Brooklyn, was the representative of Kismet Temple. Most of the Kismet nobles traveled with the Mecca Temple special train, which was here on Thursday.

While the principal interest yesterday centered in the Imperial potentate and members of his party, each noble received attention. Sight-seeing trips, refreshments and various kinds of entertainment were available for all visitors throughout the day.

Mr. Cunningham was the personal invitee of Al Kader Temple, on an automobile drive following his arrival and an informal breakfast at the Portland Hotel. They had an early lunch at the Imperial Hotel.

Imperial Visits Imperial.
"It is the Imperial potentate, so it is right that he should go to the Imperial Hotel," declared Bristol when he introduced him to Phil Metzger.

Early in the afternoon Mr. Bristol gave a luncheon at the Portland to a number of visiting Shriners, officers and members of Al Kader Temple and members of the Portland Patrol. Those present were: W. C. Bristol; Mr. Cunningham; Frank Dryden, potentate of Bount Temple; W. Hamilton Smith, potentate of Almas Temple; Potentate Dawkins of Pyramid temple; Potentate of the Superior Court in Brooklyn, N. Y.; Jack Seelridge, of Khediye Temple, Norfolk, Va.; ex-Governor White, of West Virginia; and a member of Ostris Temple of Wheeling, W. Va.; Frederick L. Gaylard, of Ansonia, Conn.; Past Potentate Hamber, of Brooklyn; Harry Lang and W. W. White, of Brooklyn; Robert England, of Damascus Temple, Rochester, N. Y.; William Haskell, of El Kader Temple, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; W. S. Brown, of New Haven, Conn.; D. Guide, past potentate of Almas Temple; D. C. Tomastel, Harvey Beckwith, G. W. Stapleton, William Grace, W. J. Hofmann, officers of Al Kader Temple; H. L. Pitcock, Jr., of Humana; Felix Friedlander, George W. Hazen, Ed Jorgensen, J. E. Werlein, all members of Al Kader Patrol, and several others.

"I have been coming to Portland for many years," said Mr. Cunningham, "and each time I have come here I have noted the wonderful progress the city is making. I have watched with much interest the development in all lines that the city is experiencing."

"Any time that Portland wants the Imperial conclave of the Shriners it but needs to say so.

"I attribute the remarkable popularity of Shrinism to the fact that it is one of the most progressive orders in the world. It has everything to make it popular. It deserves to be popular."

Mr. Cunningham is a bachelor. He blushed violently when a Portland woman, serving on the committee on flowers, asked if Mrs. Cunningham was accompanying him.

As the train started, those aboard and those in the depot united in singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

MAYOR ASKS CLUB OVER POLICE FORCE

Rushlight Would Reward Good Service and Cut Heads for Bad.

TEST REVOCATION SOUGHT

Examination for Promotion of Detectives and Sergeants Not Liked. Executive Says He Ordered Negro Club Raided.

Mayor Rushlight yesterday said he proposed to reward hard-working policemen by promotions, and declared that he will ask the Civil Service Commission to revoke an order passed nearly one year ago, making it necessary for detectives and sergeants to pass special examinations for positions. The Mayor also said that he is responsible for certain activity in the Police Department of late. He said that he received reports of a negro club that was running gambling games and of some questionable establishments.

"I notified the police that these things had to be corrected and those establishments cleaned up or there would be something doing," said the Mayor. "I demand results and I intend to get results from the Police Department or I will give the places of responsibility to others in the Department who will get results. I ordered a negro club put out of business on reports I received. It was put out of business that night. Other places met a similar fate after I had reported on them and ordered action or decapitation of police heads."

"Because it is necessary to have a club to hold over the heads of the police, I shall ask the Civil Service Commission to revoke an order requiring special examinations for detectives and sergeants, as I want to be in a position to act freely with regard to these places. Any line a detective or sergeant is not doing proper work, an official head will be cut off and someone else will be working in his place and he will be walking a beat. If the Civil Service Commission repeals the order as recommended by the Mayor, it will mean that all of the present detectives and sergeants will hold their positions as long as their work is satisfactory to Mr. Rushlight."

UGH! HOW CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL

To Clean the Little One's Stomach Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels Give Gentle "Syrup of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and 30 feet of bowels now; we coax them. We have no readed after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children're really well rounded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are injured by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, bristles feverish and its little system full of cold; has diarrhoea, sore throat, stomach-ache; doesn't eat or rest well—remember—look at the tongue, if coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well, smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics simply cannot be harmful. It sweetens the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little one's waste-clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown-ups, plainly printed on the package. By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.

LOVELL TRIAL CHANGED

LARCENY BY BAILEE CHARGE DISMISSED HERE.

Former Politician Now Accused of Being Fugitive in Recent Seattle Information.

Samuel L. Lovell, the promoter who was at one time a prominent figure in Oregon politics and was recently arrested at St. Helens, Ore., on a charge of appropriating to his own use $2500 furnished him by the Colonial Oil Company, of Seattle, to make a payment on Alaska oil lands being purchased from Portland parties, will stand trial in Seattle instead of in Portland.

The indictment against him charging larceny by bailee returned by the Multnomah County grand jury was yesterday dismissed on motion of Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald by Presiding Judge Kavanaugh, and Lovell was re-arrested on a fugitive complaint. Criminal information has been filed against him in Seattle by B. H. Silver, an official of the Colonial Company, and the plan is to take him to that city to stand trial. Chief of Police Banick, of Seattle, yesterday wired Sheriff Stevens a copy of the information and said that a police officer would come to Portland today with all necessary papers. It is expected that Lovell will fight extradition.

Almost on the heels of the dismissal of the indictment against him Lovell yesterday filed suit for $25,000 damages against A. J. M. Hosom, of Seattle, who is connected with the Colonial Oil Company. Lovell charges that Hosom procured his indictment when it was not justified and subjected him to much pain and humiliation. Lovell's attorney in the case is Lewis C. Garriga.

The money which Lovell is accused of having embezzled was sent to him by the Colonial Oil Company to be used as a payment to the Alaska Coal Oil Company of Portland in the purchase of land near Valdez, Alaska. Lovell is alleged to have been in the employ of the Seattle company. At that time Mr. Hosom stated that no accounting had been had for another $2500 sent Lovell in December, 1911, to apply on the same deal. The authorities were not able to prove that Lovell had used a portion of the money in financing the millinery store of Miss Sadie Haggerty, who until a few days ago, when she made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, had an establishment in the Eilers building, Seventh and Washington streets. This lead was worked on in an effort to recover some of the money but no positive proof that it had been so expended was secured.

During the administration of Governor Sylvester Pennoyer at Salem, Lovell occupied a position in the office of the

WOMAN TO TRY FEAT

ATTEMPT TO SWIM SAN FRANCISCO BAY TO BE MADE.

Mrs. Ihmark, Who Crossed Golden Gate, Will Dive Off Lombard Street Wharf Sunday.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—(Special.)—Facing one of the most difficult aquatic feats ever attempted by a San Francisco woman, Mrs. T. Ihmark, formerly Miss Tiny Nelson, will dive off the Lombard-street wharf Sunday morning in an attempt to swim San Francisco Bay. Mrs. Ihmark will undertake what no other woman has ever accomplished.

Last September Walter Pomeroy, of the Olympic Club, set up a record of two hours, three minutes and 25 seconds for fighting his way from Lombard-street wharf to the long wharf in Oakland. Mrs. Ihmark last September swam the Golden Gate in 49 minutes. She has displayed great fortitude in her training for the feat of breasting the water of the bay on Sunday. Such a routine of training as a half hour's swim in the bay every morning at 6

TOT SPORTS IN OIL POOL

Small Boy Pleas'd With Image in Mire Until Mother Appears.

Seated in a small lake of oil on the pavement in front of his home, 375 Broadway, Charles Grung, Jr., aged 5, seemed well satisfied with the reflection of his own image from the smooth surface of the black grease. Then Mrs. Grung came to the rescue.

When the mother approached the brink of his pool, the little fellow turned over on his hands and knees, dog-fashion, grinning at the irate parent. Mrs. Grung tightened the skirts about her shoe tops and waded in. Charles fled to the opposite bank and then up the steps of a neighboring house. Behind he left a trail of little black footprints that led to the door of the neighbor's home.
