About "Way-Kuk" Bags

Mrs. L. La Forge, 45 Shaver, who should have been announced as winner of the third prize in "Way-Kuk" Paper Bag Bread Baking Contest, says: "This has been my first experience in baking bread in a paper bag, and I find it makes a nicer crust with half the heat."
"Way-Kuk" Paper Bag Bread tomorrow at 2:30 on: Braided lamb chops, vegetables and bread. Also a demonstration of the economy and supremacy of Acorn Gas Ranges.

600 Men's Summer Suits at $15

Our Mighty Buying Power Reflected in These Wonderful Hand-Tailored, All-Wool Garments, Talk of All Portland at $15

WE have set the standard for $15 suits in Portland. All the big clothing manufacturers know it. They have drawn upon every resource to give us garments which men will recognize at a glance, are of the character sold in majority of stores at $20 and up.

Our all-wool policy has been rigidly adhered to. In many instances the fabrics have been put to a chemical test by our Clothing chief. And from every maker, he has demanded tailoring which will "stand up"—fronts, collars and shoulders, hand-built.

Over 600 smart Summer Suits are here to choose from Saturday at $15. Beautiful grays and browns of every new shade—fancy blues, homespun weaves, distinctive pin and line stripes. Sizes for the men hard to fit—the stout, short stout, long stout, the short and slender. Any man can surely be satisfied from this great assemblage of Suits at $15.

High Grade Clothes at $20, $25 and Up

When we say "high grade," we mean it, thoroughly. We mean each and every feature which gives the custom tailor his high-price privilege—hand-tailoring, individual cutting, fine woollens, exclusive style. The "cream" of America's most famous makes, here under our own label, at $20, $25 and up.
