

BABY BORN AFTER DEATH OF MOTHER

Physician Performs Swift and Delicate Operation and Saves New Life.

CHILD SOUND AND HEALTHY

Parent Dies of Apoplexy and in Five Minutes Doctors Resort to Knife—Youngster Cries Lustily From Start.

NEW YORK, May 21.—(Special.)—Five minutes after Mrs. Rebecca Lipskitz died of apoplexy in the Fordham Hospital a motherless son was born to her. Dr. Hermann Schorr almost instantly performed upon her the Caesarian operation, one of the few successful operations of the sort ever performed upon a dead woman.

The child is apparently in perfect health, weighs eight pounds, has well developed lungs and appetite and apparently none the worse for the method through which it came into the world. The heart action, examined by physicians, is said to be normal.

At the dinner table Mrs. Lipskitz complained of illness for the first time in her life. Dr. Tokman was called. He found her in a faint, diagnosed apoplexy, which is a hemorrhage of the brain, and advised that she be taken to a hospital.

His diagnosis was confirmed later. Dr. Alexander Ferman removed her to Fordham Hospital.

Unborn Life in Danger. Her condition was pronounced hopeless, and it was known she would be dead in a few hours. Dr. Schorr, the house surgeon who had attended her when she was brought in, saw that a life, unborn, was in danger, too.

Then it was thought that the paralysis that had set in would destroy the spark of life that appeared faint to the nurse in attendance.

Two hours after she had been admitted the nurse came to the physician and told him Mrs. Lipskitz was dead. "Is the child alive?" he asked.

"I think so," said the nurse, and the surgeon hurried with her to the ward.

Mother Found to Be Dead. Mrs. Lipskitz was dead in all appearance, but the physician refused to take merely the ordinary appearance of death even in a case so vital to the life of another. He used every means known to science to detect life in the mother.

In the child he could detect no sign of life, but determined to act at once. There was but one hope, to save the best of the patient. All the rest of the ward was in darkness.

To remove the body of the mother to the operating room meant the loss of minutes too precious to be wasted. Giving the nurse instructions and with a screen about the bed that any waking patient might have no idea of what was being done, the surgeon hurried to a surgical case and took from it what instruments he needed.

Moments Are Precious. There was no time even to wait for an assistant. With his hands washed and acting as an assistant the surgeon proceeded to perform the Caesarian operation.

Five minutes after his mother's death, Dr. Schorr held in his arms the baby, almost perfectly formed, which would have perished but for him.

"Is it alive, doctor?" he asked the nurse excitedly.

"Very much alive," was the reply, and to prove it was the infant rescued from death let forth a healthy cry.

"Give it to me," said the nurse, her eyes filling with tears as she looked at the face of the mother, who could not hear that sweetest of music—the sound of her baby's first cry.

The little fellow, swathed in a blanket, was hurried to the children's ward, where he was fed and washed and dressed. A half hour later, with nurse peering at him, he was sound asleep. When he was bathed and dressed he was weighed and tipped the scales at eight pounds.

ADMEN PLEAD FOR TRUTH

High Ethical Standard Is Urged in Convention at Dallas.

DALLAS, Tex., May 21.—The necessity for absolute truth in advertising was the keynote of today's discussions in the eighth annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America.

The demand for high moral and ethical character in advertising is one of the rapidly developing features of the meeting. The day closed with a formal reception to President Coleman.

Richard H. Walden, of New York, declared that the only successful advertising was "clean advertising."

Rollin C. Ayres, of San Francisco, pointed out how to eliminate mistakes in commercial advertising literature. He used as an example an automobile manufacturer, who supposed that in the almost-summer weather of Southern California, in winter months, all automobiles were laid up in garages because it was "winter."

They then rode rapidly away, but purveyors wondered why they killed the wounded man to prevent his capture and possible betrayal. The surviving burglar continued the battle against some hundreds of armed police and countrymen until he finally was shot dead.

883 Take Vancouver Examinations. VANCOUVER, Wash., May 21.—(Special.)—Six hundred eighty-five candidates took the examinations for the eighth grade last week, under Jay V. Pike, Superintendent, and Professor F. Hough, his deputy. Each candidate averaged 12 sheets of paper. Mr. Pike and his assistants are wading through more than 9000 sheets of manuscript and some of the writing is as legible as print.

AMATEUR AVIATOR KILLED

Man Forbidden to Use Plane Falls 100 Feet to His Death.

XENIA, Ohio, May 21.—Fred J. Southard, of Minneapolis, Minn., an aviator, fell 100 feet at the Wright aviation field near Osborne early today and was instantly killed.

Southard, who was 40 years old, had just bought the aeroplane from the Wright brothers.

He obtained the keys to the hangar but had been refused permission to take the aeroplane out without further experience. He fell just six minutes after he had begun the first flight alone. His body was badly crushed.

BROTHER CLAIMS BODY

RICHESON'S CORPSE NOT TO BE GIVEN TO SCIENCE.

Burial to Be at Old Home in Virginia—Executed Man Leaves No Will.

BOSTON, May 21.—Douglas Richeson, of Chicago, brother of the former clergyman, Clarence V. T. Richeson, who paid the penalty for the murder of Avie Linnell in the electric chair at the state prison just after midnight, claimed the body today. Before the body could be turned over to relatives, it was necessary for Dr. George H. Magrath, medical examiner of Suffolk County, to perform the autopsy required by law. This he planned to do during the forenoon.

Reports that the brain and other organs of the executed man might be given to medical institutions and medical specialists for examination and study were declared untrue by Dr. Magrath.

Richeson's body will be taken back to his old home in Virginia, if his wishes are carried out, and will be buried at the little cemetery at Armistead Court-house. The last words as the body is committed to the grave will be said by Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, of Boston, who acted as Richeson's spiritual adviser after he was taken to the death house. One of the last requests made by Richeson was that Mr. Johnson accompany the body to Virginia. Johnson also will carry messages from the executed murderer to his relatives.

Richeson left no will, but in conversations with Johnson and William A. Morse, his counsel, during the hours preceding his death, he gave directions as to the disposition of his personal ef-

FARMS WILL BE STUDIED

Wilson Has Plan to Show How Profits Can Be Made.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has announced plans to be instituted for farm management study and work in the North, for which both houses of Congress have made provision in the agricultural appropriation. This plan corresponds with the co-operative demonstration work in the South.

The Federal Government, through its agents, who will act in co-operation with state and local inspectors, purposes to make a comprehensive study of the farms of the country with a view to carrying to the farmer information which will show him why a certain branch of his industry is unprofitable and how he can make it pay or, if not, why he should drop that branch.

PARIS and the Pannier Skirt

You can find out if you want to know—and, of course, you do—what Paris says, what a great dressmaker has done and what Miss Gould thinks, not only about the Pannier skirt, but also the other new ideas in spring and summer clothes.

The Pannier skirt is still scant. There will be the kimono sleeve and the sleeve bouffant. There will be sash drapings, flouncings and pleatings. It will be a silk season in Paris—and here.

OTHER things collected and translated for you out of the original French about clothes and dress accessories, include—

- "The Right Clothes for a Short European Trip"
- "The Lingerie Blouse of Today"
- "Embroideries for Little Girls"
- "An Embroidered Pongee Costume"
- "Dress for a Girl Graduate"
- "Two Stenciled Dresses"

and many other helpful hints for every woman who wears clothes and cares what she wears and how she wears it.

Eating in Summer

Of course, you must eat, but this is the time to abandon the heavy, hordishes. Miss Farmer describes some excellent vegetarian dishes and suggests a whole month of menus for June.

The Bazar of Bargains

How many things you want that

15 cents will buy

MANY things you want to do but don't know how. Many things you never thought of doing you will now want to do.

Things you will appreciate and can use to help you dress better and less expensively, to help you keep house better and more economically, to help you educate, entertain, bring up and dress your children.

Special articles for mothers of daughters, and daughters of mothers, for husbands and wives; short stories and long stories; a delightful visit with "Princess Pat," the loveliest of English princesses; editorials and articles about books and art—just the sort of reading for June—15 cents.

Weddings

In June a mother's fancy turns to thoughts of a daughter's wedding. "The June Home Wedding" will be just as helpful to such a mother as "The June Bride's Linen Chest." "The Vanishing Husband," however, is for wives whose weddings occurred several Junes ago.

Luncheons and Parties

Each month has its own social functions. For June there are suggestions ranging all the way from "Some Appetizing Strawberry Desserts" by Fannie Merritt Farmer, to some special June parties, including "A Going Abroad Luncheon," which works in well with Miss Gould's article on "The Right Clothes for a Short European Trip."

The Summer Vacation

If you cannot go abroad why not spend the vacation outdoors in a portable house, such as is described in "A Portable Vacation House?" Another vacation idea is "A Backyard Experience Camp." A third suggestion is "The Fresh Air Club."

Any one of these suggestions carried out will be worth many times fifteen cents for your summer enjoyment.

The Fall of the Eiffel Tower

It might be called the "Awful" Tower because the Tower represents the great percentage of infant mortality in the past which has been reduced by the methods described—methods you can employ. It will interest all mothers because summer is a hard time for the baby.

And then the Children

There are more Kewpies, more Jack-and-Betty Adventures, Prizes for Young People, and a two-part story for girls, called "Martha," by Eunice Farland. There is also a fine picture ready for framing, by a special new German process—the equivalent of a costly engraving.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE. DON'T LOOK OLD BEFORE YOUR TIME

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow.

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should. Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drugstore for 50 cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you a sample if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance. Special agent, Owl Drug Company.
