IN FOLK COUNTY.

For a guick sale we are able to offer one of the best farms in Polk County at a low price. If you are interested in a Williamette Valley reach, either for a beene or as an investment, we ask good book at this are. Three hundred agree are under the plow. Of this a little more than 200 acres is level bottom, the sell being the trained black loam of the rishest sections of the valley. Every foot is well drained and easily worked at any season of the rear. The soli of the alonger true from black to brown and deep redicts loam, very mellow and fertile. The place preduces fine crops of clover, and is well adopted to any kind of farming, or would make an ideal dairy or stock ranch. The upland is perfectly suited in every way to apples and other fruits, in addition to being A-1 hay and grain land. The place is on county road, is only single from the thriving and fauldit growcoury was to apples and other fruits, in addition to being A-1 has and grain land. The place is on county road, it only is miles from the thriving and faptdry growing town of Falls City, on milk route, has rural free delivery and telephone, and schoolhouse at one corner. A flas creek runs through the farm and there are several living springs. There is ample water, power, as ascertained (approximately 10 pounds pressure per square inch.), to light sil buildings and operate all possible farm machinery. The house is just fair. Barn is old but in very serviceable condition. Fails City furnishes an excellent local market, and there are three daily trains for Portiand. This place in something exceptional and we mean just what we say when we describe it as one of the best farme in Polk or any other county. We know the Williamette Valley "like a book" and we regard this as a rare opportunity to buy a spismoid farm at a low figure. A visit to the place will verify all items given show, or we will inhertify refund all money spent in investigation. You will like this farm. Terms is to per acre. One tolird cash, good terms on balance to responsible parties.
