

A REMARKABLE SALE

The response to our sale has been gratifying, but not surprising. It proves that continuous fair dealing with the public creates confidence. We want you to know that we are giving nothing away—we are not selling garters at 5c and other articles at a profit to even up. Everything is going at original wholesale cost and everybody gets good merchandise far cheaper than ever before in this city. The most remarkable feature of this sale has been that of our entire stock—two-thirds of which, as you well know, is comprised of the highest grades of fine merchandise, the popular-priced goods are moving out rapidly and the higher grades have been practically unattacked. This is principally attributable, no doubt, to the fact that we displayed only medium-priced furnishings, and the boys were kept so busy handing out what was asked for that no attempt was made to sell the better goods. Hence, those desiring fine Furnishings and Hats will now be able to select them from an almost complete stock at cost of the ordinary kind.

GET INTO POLITICS URGES W. J. BRYAN

Methodist-Episcopal Folk Hear Nebraskan Declare He's Not Candidate.

FOURTH BISHOP NAMED

Kansas City Minister Chosen After Minneapolis Preacher Withdraws From Race—Important Matters Ariso in Conference.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 22.—Naphthall Lucecock, pastor of the Hyde Park Church, Kansas City, Mo., is the fourth bishop of the right to be selected at the present session of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church here.

This was the decision of the delegates on the 15th ballot announced today, Dr.
Lucecock receiving 548 votes, 34 more than necessary. Those who have thus far been elected at the conference are:
Dr. Homer C. Stoutz, New York; Dr.
T. S. Henderson, Brooklyn; Dr. W. O.
Shepard, Chicago, and Dr. Lucecock.

Another ballot was taken, the result of which will be given later. Dr. Andrew Gillies, of Minneapolis, withdrew from the race.

Bryan Says He's Not Candidate.

William Jennings Bryan, in a speech before the conference, took occasion to reiterate his statement that he was a candidate for no office and did not expect to be.

"I hope that no unfriendly newspaper," he said, "will say that I am a candidate for bishop. I am not here to mingle in the politics of your church." He then urged all church members to get into politics for public morality and good government.

"I got into politics when young, and I expect to stay until I die," he declared, and when the applause had subsided, continued:

The indefinite time limit that a pastor may remain in charge be left as it is.
A fight has been made to change to the old-time limit of five years.

Absolution of the charge against those managing Sunday School publications of teaching higher criticism was given by the conference.

DR. YOUNG GETS 238 VOTES

Portland Pastor Continues to Gain in Balloting for Bishops.

BY DR. CLARENCE TRUE WILSON.
MINNEAPOLIS, May 22.—Dr. E. H.
Todd left the general conference today for important engagements in Iowa.

An enthusiastic reception was given to William Jennings Bryan, who visited and addressed the conference and lectured to an immense throng at night on "The Price of a Soul."

On the 15th ballot Naphthall Lucecock was elected a bishop with 548 votes.
This ballot gave Dr. Benjamin Young a lead over all Pacific Coast candidates with 211 votes. The 16th ballot announced at 10:30 P. M., gave Dr. Young 238 votes.

A beautiful table that bishops have used, made by one of the colored schools, with inlaid wood from every conference of Methodism, was sold at auction to John E. Andrews, of New York, for $260.

Dr. Edgar Blake, the assistant secretary of the Sunday school board, will probably be elected missionary secretary.

NESMITH FIGHT RENEWED

Cottage Grove People Plan to Make County Division Ballot Issue.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., May 22.— (Special)—"Pat Nesmith County on the ballot," is the decision arrived at by the committee recently appointed to decide upon the advisability of making another try for Nesmith County and to formulate ways and means for carrying on the fight.

A mass meeting has been called for Friday night, at which time the committee will report its plans for approval or rejection. If they are approved a whirlwind campaign will be necessary to get the petitions out in time to get the proposition on the ballot.

The committee, which is composed of O. M. Kem, W. H. Abrams, Mayor, C.
W. Wallace, Elbert Bede, R. K. Lawson and G. F. King, does not think that much work can be done this time beyond getting the bill on the ballot and sending out a circular letter to the voters.

The plan formulated by the committee will include a recommendation to change the former lines of Nesmith County to those suggested as satisfactory to Eugene by a Eugene committee at the time of the last fight. It is expected that in this way Eugene will be pleased and will not be inclined to fight the proposition. In fact, assurance has been received from substantial Eugene citizens that that city is in favor of Nesmith County.

At the meeting of the committee Tuesday evening, O. M. Kem was elected president, W. H. Abrams vice-president, C. W. Wallace secretary and T.
C. Wheeler treasurer.

Machinery Men Name Beall.

John S. Beall was elected vice-president of the Pacific Coast Machinery Dealers' Association at its second annual convention in Monterey, Cal., Saturday. Mr. Beall was a member of the executive committee of the association.
Firms in Portland, San Francisco, Seattle and Los Angeles are represented in the list of membership in the organization.

JUDGE'S ACCUSER RENEWES CHARGES

Boland Says Memory of His Child Led Him to Fight Against Archbald.

RAILROAD DEALS CITED

Witness Says Jurist Willing to Be Tool and Tells of Addition of $60,000 to Price of Coal Company to Provide for Him.

WASHINGTON, MAY 22.—With trembling voice, W. P. Boland, of Scranton, Pa., chief accuser of Judge Archbald, of the Commerce Court, told the House judiciary committee today that the memory of his little girl had led him to fight the railroads and Judge Archbald.

About 1904, he said, his family was blest with a little girl. The Marion Coal Company, of which he is president, received its name, he declared, from the little girl, who now is dead.
All day he had told of what he designated as a conspiracy of railroads to get hold of his coal company property and of their alleged using of Judge Archbald for that purpose.

"I did not like to see the word 'failure' written over that name," testified Boland. "I could have made money in other businesses, but I have lost money to save it."

Perjury Charge Not Feared.

After his cross-examination Boland was asked about the statement on the stand by George E. Brownell, vice-president of the Erie Company, that Boland might be subjected to a perjury charge if he swore to statements he made in his original charges to Interstate Commerce Commissioner Mayor regarding the Erie Railroad Company.

"I didn't hear Mr. Brownell make the remark, but if I had," declared Boland.
"I would have told you that if my evidence resembled perjury as close as his did bribery I would be glad to have the proper authorities prosecute me."

Boland testified that Attorney George F. Watson, of Scranton, had told him that Judge Archbald could influence two other judges in the Commerce Court in favor of the railroads.

Names Are Whispered.

"Did he give you their names?" asked Attorney Worthington.

"Yes," replied the witness, who offered to communicate the names. Instead he was directed to whisper them to Attorney Worthington and Acting Chairman Floyd.

"It was not the exception, but the rule, that Judge Archbald was willing to serve the railroads," he said.

ney Watson to sell the Marion Coal Company to the railroads. He declared that Judge Archbald had President Truesdale and Vice-President Loomis of the Lackawanna come to Scranton to see Watson.

"Watson told me," said Boland, "that Truesdale declared at this conference:
"What is this judge to do in this case? Is this in the nature of a hold-up? I refuse to have anything to do with it."

Judge to Be "Settled With."

Boland said he asked Watson why he was asking the railroads $160,000 for the property, when his company was willing to sell for $100,000.

"Well, we have to settle with Judge Archbald," Watson was credited with saying.

"I said, 'I thought the judge was helping you through friendship,'" continued Boland.

"Oh, the judge would not take your watch, but he might take your chain," Watson replied."

PIMPLES SO DISFIGURING HE SHUNNED FRIENDS

Face Completely Covered. Blackheads, Too. Lasted Four Years.
Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and Face is Now Smooth.

R. F. D. 2, Portsmouth, N. H. — "I was bothered with pimples and blackheads in the most way for over four years. My face and arms were completely covered with them. The pimples would come out on my face and fever all up. They would swell, and make my face sore, besides being so disgusting that I shunned my friends. I tried facial creams, balms and benzoins with no effect.

"One night I asked a friend what was good for pimples, and he advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which I did. I would wash my face first with hot water and Cuticura Soap, and then put on some Cuticura Ointment, let it stay on five minutes, and then wash my face again with the Cuticura Soap.
It would draw the blackheads out as nice, and the pimples, oh say, it was one grand relief to go among my friends and be jolly again.
After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, my face is as smooth as if there never had been a pimple on it. I cannot speak too highly of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I hope others will profit by them as much as I have. I know they will after giving them just one trial." (Signed) Arthur E. Caswell, May 6, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25¢ book on skin and scalp treatment. Address, "Cuticura," Dept. T, Boston. Tender-faced men should shave with Cuticura Shaving Stick.

ment. Emmons & Webster, attorneys for Ingles, said yesterday afternoon that they hope to be able to locate the clergyman who performed the ceremony and one of the witnesses, Ingles swore that they were married in San Francisco in 1901. He said that the woman had done away with the marriage certificate and that the court records were destroyed in the big fire of 1906. His contention is that, being his wife, she is not entitled to recover.
