

IDAHO WONDERS IF DUBOIS WILL WIN

Manager of Campaign for Champ Clark Anxious to Deliver His State.

BRYAN DEMOCRATS ACTIVE

What Part Governor Hawley Will Play in Arena Before and at Convention, June 3, Remains to Be Seen—Lovefeast Is Plan.

BOISE, Idaho, May 24.—(Special).—The pre-convention situation in the Democratic party in this state is similar to the one confronting the Republicans prior to the Lewiston convention...

What Will Hawley Do? What part Governor Hawley will play in the Idaho or anti-Dubois program is not known. The Governor has declined to make his position clear prior to the Coeur d'Alene convention...

Many of the leading Democrats believe that Idaho should send its delegates to the Baltimore convention un-instructed and unpledged. The Dubois people are willing to consent to the un-instructed feature providing they can pick the delegates so as to be certain of their friendship to Clark.

Ada County, the largest in the state, is, as usual, furnishing the entertainment for the Democratic fight. The open fight that is being made between Kinyon and Judge Perky, both prominent attorneys of this city, who want to be selected national committeemen...

Bryan Men Fight Clark. There are many Bryan Democrats in this state who are determined to prevent the instruction of a Clark delegation from Idaho. They believe that Clark will be unable to secure the necessary two-thirds vote in the National convention and that at the opportune time the great commoner of Nebraska will step into the breach with a "cross of gold and a crown of thorns" speech as he did in 1892 at Chicago and stampede the convention for Bryan, maybe.

That element in the Democratic party in this state, and it is a powerful one, back of Dubois and his plans has visions of Federal patronage if Clark receives the nomination and there is disruption at the Republican National convention and the speaker of the house is elected. They therefore, are loud in their praise of both Dubois and Clark.

The Democrats promise a lovefeast following the convention fight. It will be held at the Bonanza tavern. Those following are the toasts to be given: "Welcome, Robert H. Elder; 'Mining Interests of Idaho,' Senator Kerns, of Wallace; 'Fifty Years in Idaho,' Governor Hawley; 'The Farmer Politician,' S. J. Rich, of Blackfoot, State Immigration Commissioner; 'Democracy,' John F. Nugget, of Boise, Democratic state chairman; 'The Inhabitants of the Eleventh Session,' William M. Morgan, of Moscow; 'Republican Harmony at Lewiston,' George Tannahill, of Lewiston; 'The Political Outlook,' Senator Freshafer, of Council; 'The Judiciary,' A. M. Bowen, of Twin Falls.

Corvallis Gets Meeting. Threshermen Name Union Resident President—Phil Bates Honored. Casman, of Hubbard, vice-president; Phillip Bates, of Portland, secretary; executive committee, George Duke, Condon; M. F. Section 2230, Lord's Oregon Laws, Now Does Not Provide for Regulating Inflated Statements of Real Estate.

SALEM, Or., May 24.—(Special).—To make more effective the jurisdiction of the corporation department, which under the proposed new law to be initiated will create a separate office of this branch of the state government, there is a plan on foot to amend section 2230 of Lord's Oregon laws, which provides penalties for false statements in advertising.

The talked-of amendment will be made to include real estate and other businesses not now touched upon in the statute as it now stands. This amendment will be separate from the proposed law to create a new office of the corporation department, but will have a bearing upon it, inasmuch as it will give the power to the Corporation Commissioner to inquire into any business which through advertising is making false statements.

Provision Is Cited. The section of the Oregon laws referred to, as it stands, reads as follows: "Any person who in a newspaper or other periodical, or in public advertisement, or by letter or circular, knowingly makes or disseminates any statement or assertion concerning the quantity, the quality, the value, the price, the method of producing or manufacturing of his merchandise or professional work, or the manner or source of purchase of such merchandise, or the motive or purpose of any sale which is untrue or calculated to mislead, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

Shipments to Montana points are increasing daily. Montana is a ready buyer of berries from this place. A telegram from Kallispell to the local union reads: "The citizens of Kallispell await the arrival of White Salmon berries and show a decided preference for anything like an even break in price. J. C. Lattie, a restaurant man who is famous all over the state of Montana, pronounced the White Salmon berry the superior of all berries in the United States, and will serve his customers with nothing else while they are obtainable."

COSTLY MOSIER HOME BURNED. MOSIER, Or., May 24.—(Special).—Mayerdale, the country home of Mark A. Mayer, was burned to the ground Wednesday. Manager Weller and his family were taken to the home of C. A. McCarger until they can make a temporary shelter. Mr. Mayer is in New York City at present and it is not known what his plans are, but it is supposed that he will rebuild just as soon as possible. Mayerdale Fruit Ranch is one of the finest in the Mosier district, containing over 200 acres, with about 125 acres in fruit and lies one mile east of Mosier, facing the Columbia River.

Twelve Years Ago— And Today

Twelve years ago the head of this business came to Portland a stranger—unknown, friendless, and without capital.

Today we open this great store at Fifth and Washington.

If all of our friends will call on the opening day, we will be very happy and Holtz' corner will be crowded.

This will be a store of the people and for all the people.

It emphasizes nothing more than the glorious opportunity which the Golden West gives to a young man.

We offer you a Welcome, sincere and heartfelt—We hope to succeed—for we believe we realize our responsibilities to the community and to our helpers and how to meet them.

FRIEND—will YOU come today?
