

Gus Fisher mays that he's giad to be back on the Coast. He doesn't mind a bit having been released by the New York Americans and told McCredis he welcomed the opportunity to join the Beavers. Gus tooks heavier than when he was out this way before. He ought to be of considerable assistance to the Fertiand club. R. Fitzgerald, made it four straight over Washington. Caldwell, who has lost six straight games, won his first game of the seacrub.

during which the Colts added four runs, and on several other occasions enough men died on the bags to have brought the score even again. Two worthy incidents were McCree-ry's three hits, as he has a reputation as a hitless wonder, and Meek's beat-ing out of a bunt performance that struck the fans as comically incon-grous.
