

LAWAGANS IN W. ISSAN DIEGO HOPE

Possibility of Special Legislative Session for Applicable Measure Stirs.

POLICE CHIEF IS PLACID

Guardian of Peace Asks Citizens to Desist From Taking Hand—Force Capable to Cope With Crisis Without Troops, Chief Says.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 28.—The possibility of a special session of the Legislature to enact a law applicable to the San Diego I. W. W. situation was the topic tonight among many residents of this city.

It was said that if such an action were taken and a law based upon retaliation and its consequences were enacted, that San Diego thus would be equipped with a measure which would enable it to cope with its present troubles without the aid of the state authorities.

Attorney-General U. S. Webb indicated yesterday that this might be the result if the authorities here were powerless to handle the situation, but today he declined to discuss the subject.

Special Session Welcomed.

D. F. Gilliden, city prosecutor, said that a special session of the Legislature would be welcomed by San Diegans. Attorney Fred H. Moore and Marcus W. Robbins, representing many industrial workers charged with violations of the street-speaking ordinance, tried today to obtain from District Attorney H. S. Utley a complaint against Chief of Police J. K. Wilson, charging him with complicity in the alleged taking from San Diego May 15 of their stenographer, W. S. Rawlins. They desire a complaint charging false imprisonment, addition or hindrance, and they believe anything done by Chief Wilson had been in the interest of the preservation of the peace.

The attorneys said they would take the matter up tomorrow with the Superior Court judges.

People Asks to Be Placed.

Captain John L. Sehm, superintendent of police, issued tonight a statement to the "people of San Diego," asking for the co-operation of all citizens in preserving order. He expressed the opinion that the police department was competent to cope with any situation that might develop and that troops either state or federal, were not now and would not be needed. Citizens were asked not to take into their own hands the enforcement of the law.

SCHOOL SITE IN DISPUTE

Milwaukee Board Refuses to Rescind Purchase Action.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 28.—(Special.)—At the regular meeting of the directors last night the purchase of a site for the central high school was discussed. The directors of the board refused to rescind the purchase of the site. Several directors declined to comply. Several taxpayers were present and they offered another site, three blocks from the one selected, but this was also turned down by the directors. Chairman Graze said that the board has paid $100 on the purchase price of the site and the district will have to complete the sale. The board has an attorney, and there will be a hearing before Judge Campbell at Oregon city on the restraining order. At the annual election, June 17, there will be an attempt to rescind the action of the board of directors. At this meeting the following teachers were elected for the ensuing year: Principal, Robert Geitz; teachers, Miss Kate Casco, Mrs. Fred Carter, Miss Edna Armstrong, Miss Minnie Emmel, Mrs. C. W. Clark, Miss T. Maurer, Miss H. Homestead, Miss Anna Young, Miss Louisa Crossin, Mrs. Anna Hayes was elected music teacher. Election of the high school teachers was postponed. It was voted to close the school for the year June 28. There will be a class of 14 graduates from the grammar department. The board decided not to have plans drawn for the schoolhouse until the site question is definitely settled.

Campbell on Coos Bay Tour.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 28.—(Special.)—President F. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, left Eugene Sunday on a speaking tour through the Coos Bay country. Tonight he delivered the commencement address to the graduates at Marshfield and the next three nights he will address the seniors of the high schools at Marshfield, North Bend and Coquille. He also will give the Memorial day address at Marshfield, Thursday, and address the students of the schools at Myrtle Point June 1. Dr. Joseph Schaefer has just returned from Eastern Oregon where he delivered commencement addresses at Union and Hood River. Others of the university faculty who are in demand at the preparatory school exercises are: Dr. George Lieber, Professor E. E. Deschamps, E. E. Dunn and J. H. Gilbert.

Central Oregon Road Improves.

HALEEM, Or., May 28.—(Special.)—A report in the Union County has written to the Central Oregon Railroad is providing better facilities for shippers at this time than at any previous time. The question was referred to the Railroad Commission several weeks ago, the complaint being that within the territory had plenty of switches and cars, it nevertheless crowded the sidings with full cars and neglected to give the shippers the number of empty they required. This condition has now been changed, and the shippers are apparently satisfied. The commission has a suit pending against the railroad in the question of putting the road in better condition and making it safe for travel.

Eugene Prisoner Set Free.

EUGENE, Or., May 28.—(Special.)—A grand jury this afternoon returned a true bill in the case of Joe Miller, Austrian, accused of putting 24 lbs of dynamite under the house of independent Congressman at Noll (town). The Eugene Justice Court had Miller under $1000 bonds.

MILDRED BRIDGES' FATHER WON OVER

Former Bitter Foe of Exponent of "Absolute Life" Has Change of Heart.

AFFIDAVIT MAY YET SAVE

"Mother of Race" Makes Progress in Her Effort to Win Reversal of Prison Sentence Imposed on Cult Leader.

CHICAGO, May 28.—(Special.)—Mildred Bridges has won her father to the fight to save Evelyn Arthur See from the penitentiary.

This statement was made by the young woman herself today. It means that Stephen H. Bridges will try to prevent See, master of the "Absolute Life" cult, from serving the prison sentence resulting from the trial which Bridges, the father, prosecuted so vigorously. See was accused of contributing to the alleged delinquency of Mildred Bridges. Bridges was the cult leader's bitter enemy at the trial.

Affidavit May Aid See.

The girl known to the cult as "mother of the race," said that her father had signed a statement of his complete approval of "Absolute Life." Further, she said, her father would make an affidavit calculated to have vital effect on the action of the higher court on See's appeal. No statement could be obtained from Bridges. Later it was declared he had gone out of the city. All inquiries were referred to his daughter.

Father Devoted to Girl.

Attaches of the State's Attorney's office declare the changed attitude of Bridges is due solely to his determination not to lose sight of his daughter and to submit to anything in order to afford her the protection of his presence. "This, they say, explains his apparent willingness to live at the temple, 2541 Racine avenue. Mildred Bridges and Mona Rees, "the perfect woman," today visited See at the county jail. They are together in the fight for his release.

AINSWORTH FIGHTS WOOD

serve as Chief of Staff unless he shall have served at least ten years as a commissioned officer in the regular army below that of Brigadier-General.

Action Is Result of Feud.

When President Taft made General Wood Chief of Staff, General Ainsworth, then Adjutant-General, undertook to run the Army to suit himself. He quickly discovered that Leonard Wood intended to be Chief of Staff in fact as well as in name, and thereupon started the Ainsworth-Wood feud. For two years Ainsworth did his utmost to harass and embarrass General Wood and finally became so abusive and domineering that he brought about his own retirement. He charged this up to General Wood, and is trying to get Ainsworth out of the Army, and now Ainsworth, as a retired officer, is trying to get Wood out of the rank of Brigadier-General.

General Leonard Wood is regarded by unprejudiced military authorities as one of the ablest men who ever commanded in the American Army. He has been a remarkable career. He was a medical officer up to the time of the Spanish war, when he shared Roosevelt's high regard for this officer, and today regards him as the best equipped man in the Army for general command. General Wood is not a few men upon whom President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt still agree.

Taft and Roosevelt Agreed.

In Army circles it is admitted that unless Congress acts by passing the pending amendment, General Wood will continue as Chief of Staff for another four years, if President Taft is re-elected, or if Colonel Roosevelt is preferred Wood to any other officer in the Army and Ainsworth knows it. So the crafty Ainsworth desired this prominence and General Wood out of office and found a ready response in the conference committee.

President Taft, before he left for New Jersey, was informed as to the Ainsworth amendment to the Army bill, and was greatly incensed at this bold attempt to legislate out of office a man who had served the country so well. Now that the campaign is virtually over, the President is called upon to take a hand in this Ainsworth-Wood row once more, and if he is unable, through friends in Congress, to defeat the amendment in question, may be called upon to veto the Army appropriation bill, and send it back for reconsideration. That he will go to this extreme is considered possible, for the President is deeply incensed over this underhand attack, and is disposed to show his loyalty to General Wood by rejecting the bill and in that way eliminating the Ainsworth-Hay amendment. It so happens that there are several other amendments in the bill tending to impair the usefulness of the Army, such as the four-year enlistment provision, which gives the President an additional ground for vetoing the bill, and there is expectation that this bill will meet with rough handling at the White House, unless these amendments are eliminated. The fact is that the Army appropriation bill has been used as a means of saving Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., which

Effect of Great Kidney Remedy Is Soon Realized

I feel it my duty to let you know what Swamp-Root did for me. I was bothered with my back for over twenty years and at times I could hardly get out of bed. I read your advertisement and decided to try Swamp-Root. Used five bottles, and it has been five years since I used it, and I have never been bothered a day since I took the last bottle of it. I am thoroughly convinced that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root cured me, and would recommend it to others suffering as I did.
My husband was troubled with kidney and bladder troubles and he took your Swamp-Root and it cured him. This was about five years ago.
