Fans of the old school—those who believe in long hits and lots of emgot their money's worth resterday, Sacramento, after losing three in a row, retaliated by lambasting the Beavers for their forst beating of the year, the picnic score at the close reading 13 to 1.

Girot the spirals

Girst, the spindly southpaw, and Higginbotham looked like the little red shaw! worn by some person hamed Molly after the third inning. Yeal They were tattered and they were torn. The Senators fell upon them for nine singles all condensate and con singles, six doubles and one triple-16 safe swars-mostly off Higgin-botham, who relieved Girot, with two out, in the fourth inning.

Form Reversal Shown Several thousand fans, a majority of them of the gentler sex, assembled to cheer our boys to victory. There was no danger of them scraping their windpipes or scarring their throats in doing it. Whereas, on Wednesday and Thursday, McCredie's minions looked like champions, yesterday they looked like town-letters. "The team is all right," said one optimist during the deluge. "The only trouble is there aren't enough fielders

The heap of bingling and the few quarts of bungling emphasized the vast difference between good and had nitching. Arrelanes held the locals under his thumb, permitting only five hits in the first eight innings. As a consequence the O'Rourke henchmen took on the garb of world-beaters, while Portland alunk down the percentage column to fifth place.

Everything was lovely up to the fourth, with Portland leading, I to 0, as a result of Krueger's terrific double to right field in the first inning, scoring Chabbourne, who had walked. After that, it might be stated parenthetically, that there were no frescoes on Girot's twirting.

wirling. Fourth Is Disastrous-Madden singled to centerfield, start-ing off the fourth inning, and scored on the first of O'Rourke's doubles. Then the fun was on. It was as thrilling as a motion-picture drama after the lights go out. If the Beaver mascot had been a cat instead of a Beaton bull, today be would be a wildcat.

Swain walked, Milier sacrificed in-field: Lindsay, on second in Rodgers' place, booted Lewis' drive and O'Rourke scored; Shechan fouled out: Check hit to third and second another and then after Girot had walked Arrelance and after Girot had walked Arrelanes and filled the bases. McCredie sent Higginbotham in as relief pitcher.

Irsian couldn't even set a foul off Higginbotham, but that was principally because he couldn't have reached them with a broom. Anyway, Irelan walked and forced in Lewis for the fourth tally, Madden and O'Rourke banging out their second hits of the inning, tallying three more.

As the poet might have warbled: "In that one frame, in the awful game, They pasted our curves for seven!"

End Is Phiful.

End In Pittful.

Higginbotham got along a little better during the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth innings, but in the ninth the earnage became so cardinal colored that McCredle quit the bench in disgust, while several hundred of the spectators followed suit. O Rourke, Miller, Lewis, Sheehan, Cheek and Arrelanes all banged out safe hits, and only a sensational stop and putout by Rapps on Swain's drive saved a series of ensational stop and putout by Rapps on Swain's drive saved a series of seven consecutive hits without a skip.

Fortland had the bases full in the seventh and ninth innings, but the necessary bingles were not forthcoming Rapps enjoyed his customary great day with the bludgeon, annexing three hits in four, while O'Rourke, Lewis and Cheek fattened their averages to a considerable extent. The score:

BAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—Gray's present of a walk to Tiedemann in the second half of the 13th, with two out, gave Oakland just enough to climb back into the lead and win from Vernon, 8 to 5. With the score tied, Kane laced out a home run in the first of the 13th, and it looked rosy for Vernon. The score stood 5 to 4. Frick, the first man up in the second period, was struck by a pitched ball and took first, but Gray steadled and the next two were out. Then he walked Tiedemann. Leard was substituted to run for Tiedemann. Hetling lined a pretty single to center, scoring both Frick and Leard, and it was all over. Score:

SEATTLE, Wash, May 21 - (Special.) The Portland Colts outhit and played as well in the field as their opponent today, but lost to Victoria, 9 to 3.

The explanation of the loyalded score s that the break was with Victoria all the way through and they bunched hits in three periods.

Pertiand was killed off in two innings by timely double plays and in the stansas when they got more than one lit, runs came very hard. Kennedy's three-bagger, a ball that struck on top of the jeft-field fence and then bounded away from the fleiders, nested three runs and Merritt's peo over the right. runs and Merritt's pop over the right fence gave two. On the other hand, Portland's double and two singles, all in a row for the first inning, gave only one, and homers by Coltrin and Spens dropped in when no one was on base.

Tonneson is Removed Early.

Tonneson was taken out in the third after the total score was five to one in favor of Victoria, on six hits. Lam-

Concannon is entitled to credit for tightening up when a little hitting would have put the Colts in the running. The feature play was Stadilla's running catton of Fries' fiv. followed by a relay to Rawlings to Weed, ending in a double play at first base, Harris being unable to get back in time.
