Picked Athletes of "Big Six" Schools to Compete on Multnomah Field.

OREGON'S CHANCES BRIGHT

Coach Hayward Expects Two State Schools to Capture Nine of 15 Events, Judging From Records of Different Men.

Portland track and field enthusiasts will be treated to the greatest collegiate meet in the history of the Northwest today at Multnomah Field, when 15 stellar athletes, representing the pick of the stars at Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, Washington, Washington State College, Whitman and Idaho, will compete for the conference championships.

Courtney, the remarkable sprinter who will represent America at the Stockholm Olympic games, will be seen in action wearing the colors of Washington; McClure, the distance man, whose prowess at the Olympic trials clinched him a similar berth; Hawkins, another Oregon star; Cook, of Washington; Baker, of Oregon Agricultural College, and others are numbered among the crack performers.

Oregon Men Practise. The Oregon contingent reached the city Tuesday night and practiced at the field yesterday.

Hayward looks to see Oregon take nine of the 15 events, with the Oregon Aggies giving Washington and Washington State a hard run for second.

TRYOUTS PROVE CLOSE

Columbia Weightman Puts Shot Out 47 Feet 1-8 Inch and Shatters Only Record of Intercollegiate Competition.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—The tryouts on Franklin field today for the finals in the inter-collegiate track and field events tomorrow, indicate that the team championship probably lies between Cornell last year's winner and Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania weathered 13 men, the greatest number of men in the 11 events in which trials were necessary. Cornell pulled through seven, but the Ithacans are strong in the branches of the sport in which they will run tomorrow. Harvard showed up well, but not as strongly as expected.

Beatty Breaks Record. One inter-collegiate record, the shotput, was broken. R. L. Beatty, of Columbia, in his second throw placed the distance at 47 feet 4 inches. The inter-collegiate record was 46 feet 7 1/2 inch, made by J. J. Horner, of Michigan, in 1911.

Outside of Beatty's heaved shotput, another notable performance in the field events was Mercer's broad jump, to 22 feet 10 1/2 inches. The Pennsylvania man made this distance on his first and only leap.

Cornell's strength tomorrow is expected to lie in her ability to carry off the half mile and the one and two mile events.

REFEREE CASE ADJUDICATION DUE

University of Oregon Action to Be Brought in Name of State, Now.

FRIENDS CARRY EXPENSE

Use of District Attorney McNary's Name as Law Officer of State Merely Formally in Conducting Proceedings.

SALEM, Or., May 31.—(Special.)—District Attorney McNary, of the Third Judicial District, has consented to allow the University of Oregon referendum cases to be brought in the name of the state, and a complaint was filed in Circuit Court today with a view toward adjudicating those cases along the lines set down in the opinion of the Supreme Court.

The District Attorney, however, made the provision that the friends of the University will have to carry the burden of expense and that the use of his name as a law officer of the state is merely as a formality in conducting the proceedings.

Resolution Is Adopted. A short time prior to May 29 the Board of Regents of the State University adopted a resolution reciting the institution of the suit of Friendly vs. Olcott, to have the referendum petitions on House bills Nos. 219 and 211 of the Legislative Assembly of 1911, making appropriations for the University of Oregon, declared fraudulent and void, and requesting the Governor to refer the matter to the proper law officer of the state to bring a new suit involving the same matters, and to force a speedy decision upon the merits of the cases as presented by the former petitions.

On the same day I obtained a letter from Governor West containing a copy of this resolution and requesting that I take such action as in my judgment might seem proper with a view of carrying out the wishes of the Board of Regents as set forth in said resolution. After examining the authorities and the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the O'Connell case, I concluded that it would be proper for me as District Attorney to permit a suit to be brought in the name of the state involving the same matters.

I therefore informed W. T. Slater, one of the attorneys for the Board of Regents, that I would verify a complaint as District Attorney in order to get the matter properly before the court, but I would not assume the responsibility of carrying on the litigation, neither could it be done at the expense of the state; that the cost of the suit must be wholly borne by the Board of Regents, or friends of the university.

Former Case Testimony Questioned. In view of the facts that the allegations in the complaint filed today are identical with those filed in the case of Friendly vs. Olcott, with the exception of the first, wherein it is set forth that the suit is brought in the name of the state at the request of the Governor, it can be seen that the charges are the same, but I would not assume the responsibility of carrying on the litigation, neither could it be done at the expense of the state; that the cost of the suit must be wholly borne by the Board of Regents, or friends of the university.

Increasing interest and a larger attendance of enthusiastic spectators marked the second day of the spring handicap tennis tournament of the Irvington Club pass delightfully for some and regretfully for others, as indicated in the results, though the handicaps in such tennis affairs make a material difference.

One of the most interesting events of the day was the play between Miss Irene Campbell and Miss Kurtz, which the former won only after a difficult turn in the second set. The first went easily, but Miss Kurtz proved almost too much for the little tennis crack, who, only by a burst of speed, was able to draw out the last set and match at 12-10. The 21 games of the final contest were strenuous, to say the least.

Several matches in the men's singles were played, and the tournament is moving rapidly, much to the satisfaction of all.

An interesting schedule has been arranged for today's play, beginning at 10 o'clock and running through the day. It has been fixed to play several more matches in the afternoon for the benefit of visitors who enjoy the sport, though they may not play the game themselves. Two or three mixed doubles men and men's doubles have been scheduled.

City Champion Wickersham will be seen in play today against S. S. Humphreys, who promises to give the much-cup-winner a "run for the silver."

Miss Campbell beat Miss Kurtz, 6-1, 13-10; Miss Johnson beat Mrs. Weston, 6-2, 6-1; Mrs. Northrup beat Miss Whittier, 9-7, 6-2; Miss McFried beat Mrs. Gregg, 6-3, 7-2; Miss Riley beat Miss Thayer, 5-8, 6-4, 6-3; Van Loan beat Frank Smith, default; Moyer beat Hart, 6-2, 6-0; Lewis beat Shives, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3; Freeman beat Brewer, 6-4, 6-4; and Van Loan vs. Smith, 7-6, 6-1; Weston beat Treace, 7-6, 6-2.

The schedule for today follows: 10 A. M.—Miss Randall vs. Miss Knapp; Miss Goss vs. Miss Schaefer; Miss Houston vs. Miss Goss; Miss Goss vs. Miss Knapp; 11 A. M.—Riley vs. Thomas; Mitchell vs. Esch; M. Starr vs. Mungler Jordan vs. Corbett; winner, Sakin-Mitchell vs. Rosenfeld; Van Loan vs. Murrer; Miss Kurtz and
