

WAITERS LOSING NEW YORK STRIKE

Sound of Small Skirmishing Not to Be Mistaken for Roar of Battle.

SOME ADVANTAGE GAINED

Union Will Not Be Recognized, but Wages Will Be Increased, Workday Shortened and Better Treatment Given.

NEW YORK, June 4.—(Special.)—The indications tonight were that on the culinary battlefield the napkin-drummer boys are soon to roll the signal for retreat. The battle is about done. Here and there may be heard faintly the sounds of distant skirmishes, but the great war of the waiters, omnibuses and cooks against the hotels and restaurants is gradually resolving itself into the hush of time.

Walters Won Better Wages. But though they did not win the great victory they expected, their battle has its compensations. They do not gain recognition of the union, but the waiters won an increase of 20 per cent, giving them $10 a month instead of $8, and the omnibuses get $25 a month instead of $20. A shorter workday, overtime pay, elimination of fines and better treatment are guaranteed by the offer of the Hotel Men's Association made several days ago.

Brokers Wait on Themselves. At noon today 31 waiters in the luncheon club in the Stock Exchange building marched out on strike. Most of the brokers were recently converted and served themselves with a buffet lunch.

Even the Grand Central Station did not escape. Eleven waiters and cooks decided the being on the job was superior to being on the inside, so they abandoned the station restaurant to its fook.

Governor Refuses Pardon to Max Weiss, Local Option Violator.

ROSEBURG, Or., June 4.—(Special.)—According to information received here today, Governor West has refused to suspend the jail sentence of 30 days imposed upon Max Weiss, a wealthy Roseburg merchant, who was recently convicted of violating the local option laws. Weiss filed a petition containing several hundred signatures with the Governor, in which suspension of the jail sentence was urged. Weiss was formerly engaged in operating an ice and cold-storage plant in Roseburg, and is reported to be one of the wealthiest men in this section of the state.

before they get through' And didn't Mr. Stineman ask you: 'Why do you want to get Darrow?' and didn't you say: 'Oh, he has been defending the unions and is a prominent man on their side.' Didn't Stineman ask you where you got the money for Lockwood and didn't you say outside parties had furnished it; that Darrow never gave you any money to fix jurors and didn't you say then, after you had talked at some length about that, 'For God's sake don't repeat this conversation'.

Purported Conversation Denied. "I did not nor anything like it," replied Franklin. "I told him," said the witness, "that Leocombe Davis had told me that he probably could get me off with two years; that I went home to Mrs. Franklin and told her that if I got off with two years and served my time, which I thought it was my duty to do, that she would be taken care of by Mr. Darrow and her remarks to me at that time were what caused me to change and I agree with you on what you have said, but if you bring one dollar of dishonest money into my house, I will leave you in 24 hours—and then I quit."

Oregon Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Circles Makes Report.

THREE KIDDIES YET IN NEED

Child Welfare Work Takes Rapid Strides Since Formation of Portland Council Last Year. Summer Plans Made.

Yesterday's annual meeting of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Association, held in the auditorium of the Y. W. C. A., was the last of the monthly and yearly meetings of the state organization. This is a natural sequence to the formation last September of a city organization called the Portland Council of the association, which will take entire charge of local work, leaving the state body free to concentrate all its efforts on external work.

Annual reports from state officers and departments were presented with the president's statement. These showed that the last year was by far the biggest since the inception of the association, the membership being doubled, and 21 new circles being admitted, of which 13 had already affiliated with the state organization. Altogether, there were 44 circles as compared with 21 the previous year.

One of the most important reports was that from the literature committee. Since the child welfare exhibit there have been many donations for literature. The committee on dependent widows' pension bill presented its report in which they stated that the bill was ready to be printed for circulation, and they were hopeful of its passing at the next session of the Legislature. This bill demands the state pensioning of widows who are dependent and who have children under 14 years of age. It has received the hearty support of Governor West and Judge Gatens, so the members declared.

Rooms for Babes Found. No less than 15 babies have been placed in parental homes ready by the child-placing committee, which has been doing active work only six months. These babies would otherwise have had to go into one of the institutions. They have two boys and one girl at the present moment for whom they desire to find homes.

Directors Are Named. Directors elected yesterday were Mrs. John Manning, Mrs. I. A. Amos, Mrs. F. Langerman, Mrs. E. A. Sessions, Mrs. C. T. Dickinson and Mrs. Samuel Connell.

Child Welfare Day has been fixed for July 13 at Chautauque, Gladstone, when the congress will hold a morning forum. All the mothers are expected to take luncheon at the hotel.

Studebaker
Automobiles

You Want the Best—Not the Cheapest

Don't be alarmed if somebody tells you you can buy an automobile for less money than the $750 Studebaker-Flanders "20." You can, but you better not. The Flanders "20" corresponds point by point with the best and highest priced cars sold. Cheaper cars at every vital point are built on ideas long ago discarded for good cars. Don't take our word for it. Make comparisons and see.

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a marvel—a high grade modern car at a low price. If you pay less, you buy much less. And the cheaper car today will cost in far more in the long run. The competing car isn't sold which the Studebaker Corporation, the greatest automobile manufacturers in the world, couldn't reproduce for less money; but we won't build a cheap car, because the name "Studebaker" means the best for your money.

If you are content with a car that rusts today and dies tomorrow, don't buy the $750 Flanders "20." It will wear for years. Remember this—the Studebaker-Flanders "20" will outwear 2 to 1 any other car under $1100 and give you double satisfaction, confidence and comfort in the bargain.

We can prove it—Send for new catalogue
