

The Oregonian

Published at Portland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-Class Matter, March 10, 1886.

Entered as Second-Class Matter, March 10, 1886, under Postoffice No. 100, Portland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-Class Matter, March 10, 1886.

Subscription prices: Daily, Sunday included, one year, $3.00; six months, $1.75; three months, $1.00.

Advertising rates: Single copy, 5 cents; per line, 10 cents; per column, 25 cents.

Portland, Tuesday, June 11, 1912.

Is the South Faithful?

According to present indications there is just one thing that can bring about the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt by the Republican convention.

That one thing is a secret understanding by the Colonel with a number of the National delegates who are in the National Committee.

The National Committee has fully demonstrated its pro-Taft leanings. It will seat a sufficient number of contested delegates to give President Taft, on the face of things, at least a majority in the National Convention.

Some support to the suspicion that there may be a secret understanding with certain Southern delegates is given by the apparent willingness with which the ten or fifteen warm supporters of Roosevelt at the National Committee saw the Southern contest settled in Taft's apparent favor.

Those who came in touch with McHarg in Oregon when he was sent West to induce members of the Oregon Legislature to vote for the Senate and defeat the tariff.

What about the stay-at-home? How will the men who stayed away from the presidential primaries vote at the election?

How will the men who stayed away from the presidential primaries vote at the election? In some states the total Republican vote was less than 50 per cent of the normal strength.

Should Taft be nominated and should Roosevelt bolt, both opposed by a Democrat of whatever stripe, the body is to blame, but a good many people have been misled.

GO TO THE ROSE MUSICAL FESTIVAL. After all the effort that has been made to secure a worthy patronage for the Rose Musical Festival, it is now $2000 in debt.

There is to be one more concert this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. It will take place in the Gipsy Smith auditorium and will include a wealth of beautiful music.

Root, the New York Globe recalled a speech made by the Senator in the New York campaign of 1910 highly eulogizing Roosevelt.

But when Barnes' telegram appeared, making the election of Root the issue, the Senator, thinking he was in a predicament, thinking he was in a predicament.

THE WHY OF THE ROOSEVELT WAY. We strongly suspect that Mr. George Watkins, of Marshfield, has never read the Republican National platform of 1908.

It did make the following declaration: In all tariff legislation the true principle should be the protection of the citizen against the imposition of such duties as will equal the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad.

ROUSSEAU'S 20TH ANNIVERSARY. If the celebration of Rousseau's 20th anniversary, which takes place this month, is on a scale corresponding to his influence over the course of history, it will be a stupendous affair.

Nothing symbolizes the unity of the American people better than one of the great battleships. It belongs to all of us. By its threatening guns the power of the Nation is proclaimed.

Happily for the Republican convention, the American suffragist is not as belligerent as the English suffragist. He would have cause to dread a mauling such as was given Asquith.

Mount Katmai equals Mont Pelee in volcanic pyrotechnics and is only surpassed in the number of fatalities through the fact that the people were not there to be killed.

Wives who were courted and became brides in the good, old-fashioned way have a sniff of contempt for the young women who tell how they catch millions.

The most deluded mortal on earth is the unfortunate convict who joins in mutiny. He gets contempt on the outside and is due for torture within.

Let a wave of sympathy go out to Judge Hennessy Murphy these festival days because the scheme of nature does not contemplate a green rose.

These are holiday days in Portland, wherein many work at hard labor to provide entertainment for the multitude. So the joy is unconfined.

A quarter-million dollars' worth of blood stock at the Union show gives an idea of what is in the Grand Ronde and Powder valleys.

social contract and, therefore, not one of them has any moral claim to the obedience of its subjects.

But when Barnes' telegram appeared, making the election of Root the issue, the Senator, thinking he was in a predicament.

THE WHY OF THE ROOSEVELT WAY. We strongly suspect that Mr. George Watkins, of Marshfield, has never read the Republican National platform of 1908.

It did make the following declaration: In all tariff legislation the true principle should be the protection of the citizen against the imposition of such duties as will equal the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad.

ROUSSEAU'S 20TH ANNIVERSARY. If the celebration of Rousseau's 20th anniversary, which takes place this month, is on a scale corresponding to his influence over the course of history, it will be a stupendous affair.

Nothing symbolizes the unity of the American people better than one of the great battleships. It belongs to all of us. By its threatening guns the power of the Nation is proclaimed.

Happily for the Republican convention, the American suffragist is not as belligerent as the English suffragist. He would have cause to dread a mauling such as was given Asquith.

Mount Katmai equals Mont Pelee in volcanic pyrotechnics and is only surpassed in the number of fatalities through the fact that the people were not there to be killed.

Wives who were courted and became brides in the good, old-fashioned way have a sniff of contempt for the young women who tell how they catch millions.

The most deluded mortal on earth is the unfortunate convict who joins in mutiny. He gets contempt on the outside and is due for torture within.

Let a wave of sympathy go out to Judge Hennessy Murphy these festival days because the scheme of nature does not contemplate a green rose.

These are holiday days in Portland, wherein many work at hard labor to provide entertainment for the multitude. So the joy is unconfined.

A quarter-million dollars' worth of blood stock at the Union show gives an idea of what is in the Grand Ronde and Powder valleys.

AT THE CAFETERIA. It was Friday afternoon and the little blonde cashier was away at the ball game, where she was rooting like anything for the Beavers.

As the clock chimed, the cafeteria pouty-mouthed had not yet appeared, and the boss pecking out from the kitchen cogitated that they also were taking a day off.

Jobbing said he was in a great hurry as a team was waiting him down on Front street, and he had to get back to the ranch.

"Flying to the aid of the injured" is no longer a mere figure of speech. A New York doctor, with the help of aviator Robinson, has made the expression literally exact.

The California farmer who has developed a variety of barley with five heads to the stalk deserves well of his country. Men who carry out experiments in plant breeding are among the best friends of the human race.

Nothing symbolizes the unity of the American people better than one of the great battleships. It belongs to all of us. By its threatening guns the power of the Nation is proclaimed.

Happily for the Republican convention, the American suffragist is not as belligerent as the English suffragist. He would have cause to dread a mauling such as was given Asquith.

Mount Katmai equals Mont Pelee in volcanic pyrotechnics and is only surpassed in the number of fatalities through the fact that the people were not there to be killed.

Wives who were courted and became brides in the good, old-fashioned way have a sniff of contempt for the young women who tell how they catch millions.

The most deluded mortal on earth is the unfortunate convict who joins in mutiny. He gets contempt on the outside and is due for torture within.

Let a wave of sympathy go out to Judge Hennessy Murphy these festival days because the scheme of nature does not contemplate a green rose.

These are holiday days in Portland, wherein many work at hard labor to provide entertainment for the multitude. So the joy is unconfined.

A quarter-million dollars' worth of blood stock at the Union show gives an idea of what is in the Grand Ronde and Powder valleys.

WHY PEOPLE ARE FOR ROOSEVELT

Writer Dreams of Tariff Promise Not Kept by President Taft

MARSHFIELD, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—We want many things we don't seem to be able to get and we at least believe we want them badly.

We asked for bread and got a tariff board. We didn't ask for the board; it was thrust upon us. We were told this board would help reduce the tariff.

As the clock chimed, the cafeteria pouty-mouthed had not yet appeared, and the boss pecking out from the kitchen cogitated that they also were taking a day off.

Jobbing said he was in a great hurry as a team was waiting him down on Front street, and he had to get back to the ranch.

"Flying to the aid of the injured" is no longer a mere figure of speech. A New York doctor, with the help of aviator Robinson, has made the expression literally exact.

The California farmer who has developed a variety of barley with five heads to the stalk deserves well of his country. Men who carry out experiments in plant breeding are among the best friends of the human race.

Nothing symbolizes the unity of the American people better than one of the great battleships. It belongs to all of us. By its threatening guns the power of the Nation is proclaimed.

Happily for the Republican convention, the American suffragist is not as belligerent as the English suffragist. He would have cause to dread a mauling such as was given Asquith.

Mount Katmai equals Mont Pelee in volcanic pyrotechnics and is only surpassed in the number of fatalities through the fact that the people were not there to be killed.

Wives who were courted and became brides in the good, old-fashioned way have a sniff of contempt for the young women who tell how they catch millions.

The most deluded mortal on earth is the unfortunate convict who joins in mutiny. He gets contempt on the outside and is due for torture within.

Let a wave of sympathy go out to Judge Hennessy Murphy these festival days because the scheme of nature does not contemplate a green rose.

These are holiday days in Portland, wherein many work at hard labor to provide entertainment for the multitude. So the joy is unconfined.

The Visitor's Dream

By Dean Collins.

Sallied unto ennu With the average sort of shows, Came a stranger from a distance To the City of the Rose.

And he stretched himself to slumber, And he said, "It is a dream, And I'll be back in the morning, Finding things not what they seem."

Half a Century Ago. From The Oregonian of June 11, 1862. We have letters from Captain Crawford, charged with the command of the escort for the overland emigration.

This city and the Lower Willamette and Columbia River valleys are now crisscrossed by one thoroughfare in which the memory of the oldest inhabitant runneth not back unto. A large portion of the lower part of this city is now under water.

Washington, June 1.—Dispatches from the Army before Richmond say: "Our loss during the two days' engagement will amount to about 200. The enemy's dead left on the battlefield in the morning, June 1, 1862, were about 600 prisoners."

Washington, June 1.—A dispatch from McClellan says that the rebel troops were unable to rally their forces this morning, and have retired toward Richmond. Our men have moved forward to take three miles from the city. Every one seems sanguine of the fall of the rebel capital when our troops advance.

Washington, June 1.—The House bill punishing polygamy in the United States and annulling certain acts of the Territory of Utah passed by the Senate today, 37 to 2.

We were shown yesterday by Mr. G. Collins a small box of very fine specimens of coarse gold recently obtained on Powder River by Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Comstock, late of the Columbia River bottom from Vancouver to Monticello.

As "Ed" Howe Sees Life. What is known as nervous prostration in the human family, is known as fits in cats.

Nothing is true that cannot demonstrate itself. Right is always too slow in asserting itself.

Public affairs do not amount to much; it is your private affairs that are really serious and important.

Some young men from the country never regard a clerk as a success unless they have a fight with a circus man.

When an agent walks in, you may depend on this: his purpose is to benefit himself; he doesn't care anything about your interests.

Warwickshire

NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.

Warwickshire. NEWPORT, Or., June 10.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to state a dispute between two Warwickshires, kindly in the town of Birmingham in Staffordshire or Warwickshire, England.