

EVERY DAY LADIES' DAY TO ELKS WOMEN

Owner of Portland Baseball Club Plans Courtesy to Visiting Lodgemen.

PROGRAMME TAKES SHAPE

Automobile, Horse Races, "Round-Up" and Masque Carnival Only Part of Lavish Entertainment.

Delegates Begin to Come. Every day will be ladies' day at the Portland baseball park when the Elks are here...

Now that the convention is drawing near, numerous forms of entertainment are being added to the programme.

Complete arrangements already have been made for a racing matinee at the driving park on Saturday afternoon, July 13.

Registration headquarters will be opened in the new Oregon Hotel building on Wednesday, July 3.

More than 100 information booths will be established at various places in the business district.

Delegates Begin to Arrive. One of the first delegates to arrive is J. J. Collins, of Winlow, Ariz.

Portland lodge will lead the procession by reason of its position of host to the grand lodge.

Candidates for grand lodge offices are becoming numerous. Thomas B. Mills, of Superior, Wis., grand trustee, probably will have no opposition for the office of grand orator.
