At the Cudahy home few details of the reunion were given out. Both Mr. Cudahy and Mrs. Cudahy were there. Mr. Cudahy particularly refused to give out anything, and it was only from hurried snatches of talk that any facts could be gathered.

Children in School.

Four children, Edna, aged 11; Catherine, aged 9; Elizabeth, aged 8, and Michael, a 4-year-old baby, may return and live with their parents. They are now in school in New Jersey, and it was said upon good authority that at the end of the school term they may be brought here. Little was learned of the future plans of Mr. and Mrs. Cudaby, but it is believed they intend to continue to make their residence at 3527 Main street.

The first indication that the Cudabys would be ultimately reconciled ap-

The first indication that the Cudahys would be ultimately reconciled appeared at Christmas, 1910. Then Mrs. Cudahy came here to the home of Michael Cudahy to visit her children and she found Jack Cudahy there. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jack helped trim a Christmas tree for the children and Jack Cudahy gave elaborate gifts, especially to Mrs. Cudahy. The couple seemed to be very happy together and at once rumors of an approaching reunion were scattered broadcast.

The divorce of the Cudahys was one of the quickest on record in Kansas City. All the details were arranged out of court and within ten minutes after Mrs. Cudahy had filed her petition she was the possessor of a decree

Lillis Not Mentioned.

At the divorce proceedings no mention was made of the attack upon Jere Lillis, which occurred in the early morning of March 6, 1910. Mrs. Cudahy said this was "to protect the children." Mrs. Cudahy charged incompatibility of temper and called in her maid as the witness. This was the same maid who saw the attack upon Lillis and who said she saw Cudahy and the chauffeur carve Lillis with the butcher knife.

Mrs. Cudahy received $1 alimony, according to the court decree, but it was said at the time that arrangements had been made whereby she was to get $5000 the first year and $2000 for every year therefater as long as she remained single. The children were given into the custody of Michael

Following the fracas with Lillis Mrs. Cudahy declared she never would be reconciled with Jack Cudahy. This was because when Cudahy war arrested at the time of the attack on Lillis, he had declared of Lillis, "he has ruined my home." She maintained that Lillis, an old friend, had been merely calling upon her at a late hour and calling upon her at a late hour and she bitterly resented the implication of her husband's words.

SETTLERS TAKE INITIATIVE

The order of the Governor and the decision of the Board was reached at an open session of the commissioners y sesterday, when accusations and counter charges made by the settlers against the company and the company against the settlers were heard.

It was one of the most bitter hearings in the history of the Board. It was after this the arrangements were made to secure the extra necessary supply of water from the Government.

Her testimony covered her relations with Thaw from the time, 10 years ago, he first sought her acquaintance, his proposal of marriage, his rage when she told of an earlier attack upon her by White, the Thaw marriage, his constant reversion to her relations with White and the shooting of White on the Madi-son Square Garden roof.

Her story was a mere outline, the only features dwelt on having been those which W. T. Jerome, for the state, wished to bring to the front to show Thaw's mental condition. She identified several hypodermic
