LOS ANGELES, June 19.—(Special.)

Vernon trimmed the Beavers again this afternoon 3 to 1, in an interesting and close contest, errorless on both sides and with plenty of sensational playing. McCredie shook up his team somewhat with apparently good results. Chadbourne's triple in the fourth, his second time up, was one of the cleanest hits of the game and resulted in his coming in with the only score of the game a moment later, after the catch of Lindsay's sacrifice fly to Carlisie.

Koestner and Carson put up equally consistent games, the former allowing six hits and the latter five. Kane, par-ticularly, found Koestner and scored three of the six hits the Tigers registhree of the six hits the ligers regis-tered. Kane 'lined out a triple, a double and a single. Carlisle was hit by a pitched ball in the leg in the first inning and although he played up to the sixth inning he was forced to rethe sixth inning he was forced to retire in that session because of the injury. In the fifth inning he swapped fields with Bayless, but couldn't stand the pace any longer. He says he will be all right tomorrow. Steward went in in the sixth to take his place.

After Carlisle had reached first Kane doubled and both scored on Brashear's single. Kane's triple in the third and McDonnell's single brought Kane across with the Villagers' last run. Score:

However, with Southpaw Tonson's quick recovery from a nearsastrous beginning came the oft-reated crack of Colt hat to horsehide, the fusillade turning possible defeat into a stampede of runs that quickly placed the Tigers in the "also ran" column.

Melkle Found for 15 Hits.

Fifteen hits, two of them for three bases and others accumulated by virtue of the failure of the Tacoma infielders to handle hard chances successfully, brought defeat to Melkle, the ex-San Francisco hurler, and his indifferent supporters. Eddle Mensor and Ward McDowell led the hitting assault against the Tiger moundman, and every Colt in the game managed to gather at least one hit in the average-fattening episode.

Scarcely half a dozen fans of the 500 in attendance gave Tonneson more than a few innings' duty. He escaped the first period, but three hits and careless tossing of the ball around the infield tossing of the ball around the infield scored two Tigers in the second, and the fams began to look towards the warming-up station for relief. In the third, the southpaw had a strangle-hold on a long rest, when, with the bases full and not an out recorded, he recovered control of his twisters, forced "Cy" Neighbor to fly out weakly to Cruikshank, fanned Morse when the latter had a base on balls earned, and forced Lynch to fly out to Eddle Mensor.

Lynch Alone Bats Well.

For the next six innings Mike Lynch was the only Tiger to land safely, the Tacoma manager scoring two singles, for a total of three hits, almost half of the seven credited to the Tigerville lads.

America's greatest problem is not to find athletes but to have them in fit condition to do their best. Not infrequently have American athletes been unable to do themselves justice owing to the change in climate. Mike Murphy, the Pennsylvania trainer, is here looking after the men and so is Bill Hayward, who has been assigned to the Western representatives. These two should bring us through with the minimum of breakdowns.

NAT EMERSON TO MEET TYLER Former Northwest Champion and Speas dropped the ball. However, the sub first sacker made a splendid peg to third, catching Lynch. La Longe singled to right and took second when singled to right and took second when Fries let the ball get away from him. Fries threw badly to Coltrin, and Cam-eron scored.

Colts Begin Hitfest.

Harris, the first Colt up in the sec-ond, singled to right and scored on McDowell's clout to center for the first run. In the third, Mensor was safe on Morse's bad throw and Speas took first on a doubtful hit to the same man. Cruikshank filled the sacks when Melkle mishandled a sacrifice bunt. On Fries' hit Morse had a chance to pull off a triple play but the high one went for a bingle, just escaping the Tiger glove, and Mensor scored. Harris hit into a double play, Meikle to La Longe to Cameron, but McDowell scored Cruikshank and Fries with a hit to

Speas did not look so good at first, accunulating two errors, but Nick Williams will be unable to return to the game for several days.

The fans were glad to see McDowell recover his batting eye. Many of them figure him to wind up the season well towards the top.

Lynch was fined $5 for protesting against a strike in the third inning. Mike was so peeved that he falled to hit safely. On the three other occasions he found Tonneson easy.

Colts Have Good Chance.

"Seattle is the team they will have to beat to win the Northwestern League pennant," is the way Frank J. Dorsey, Spokane owner of 1905-6, sizes up the Northwestern race this season.
"I have seen all of the teams in action this year, and figure Seattle the best chance for the championship, Dugdale has two great pitchers in James and Fullerton, a bunch of heavy hitters, and with a good home schedule it is going to be mighty hard to rob the 1909 pennant-winners of another flas. "The Colts have a mighty fine ball club, and if the pitching staff braces up over its work of the past few weeks, they are worth a bet for the pennant.
