TAFT FORCES TAKE COMPLACENT VIEW

Roosevelt Bubble Burst, Says McKinley—Steady Losses Are Predicted.

R.'S VOTE PUT AT 464

Demonstration for Hadley Said to Be Sign of Abandoning Colonel. Attempt to Bolt Expected Today but Failure Prophesied.

CHICAGO, June 19 .- At Taft headquarters a general atmosphere of satis-faction and relief tonight greeted the warms of delegates. Director McKin-ley and his staff presented an it-is-allover-but-the-shouting attitude and con-fidently assured that today's vote of 564 to 510 against the Roosevelt forces showed conclusively that Taft would be renominated.

be renominated.

Taft men said Roosevelt would lose on the nomination roll call 46 of the 516 votes he had today. They said that Wisconsin's 26 votes, South Dakota's and the Cummins votes from Iowa Would desert the Roosevelt column on any decisive vote. From this they argue that the real Roosevelt strength in the convention at the most was 464 votes.

Taft Gains Predicted.

"President Taft's renomination is a certainty," said Director McKinley, Each succeeding roll call from now on will show steady losses from the Roosevelt column and gains for Taft.

"A statement was issued by McKinley in which he said:

"President Taft will be renominated by the National convention. Theodore Roosevelt has been eliminated as a candidate. Two test votes, one today and another forced yesterday by his lead-sys, has demonstrated that he cannot be nominated. The delegates have reers, has demonstrated that he cannot be nominated. The delegates have repudiated his third-term pretensions. His managers have resorted to every known method of political strategy but without success. They have attempted combinations with other candidates, they have presented unfair and revolutionary plans of procedure under the pretense of honesty and they have endeavored by every means to make Taft delegates break their solemy pleuges and instructions.

Another Leader Sought.

Another Lesder Sought.

"In the face of these desperate efforts the Taft column has steadily grown. Taft's majority today was larger than it was yesterday.

"The Roosevelt followers, knowing their candidate can never get enough fates to give him a majority of the convention, are now seeking in hopeless and discouraged fashion for another leader. Their search will be in vain. Fresident Taft's demonstrated majority in the convention represents delegates who have come to Chicago deterrined to renominate him and they will not be swayed from that purpose.

"They have shown their loyalty and devotion to the President upon two fest votes and their solidity was not in the least affected by a deliberate but futile aftempt to stampede the convention through, a carefully-planned demonstration. They gave their answer to that demonstration by casting more yotes today than they did yesterday.

Bluster Loses, Says McKinley.

Bluster Loses, Says McKinley. "They have shown that they propose to remain with the President until his domination is an accomplished fact and they will receive accessions to their ranks from those who have been temperarily carried away by a noisy, blustering, braggadecic campaign. The balloon-like character of that campaign has been twice punctured by definite majority votes.

Convention is concerned, but they are far from being sure of the nomination

"The Southern colored delegates, in-tructed for Taft, are carrying out their structions with courage and fidelity, margin is small. It is known now to netwithstanding the temptations offered them in the way of money, patronage and political preferment. They have shown a laudable regard for loyalty to

"Roosevelt not only lost in votes to-Agy but his delegates indulged in 40 minutes of continuous cheering for Governor Hadiey, of Missouri, one of his campaign leaders, thus showing a decided tendency to desert the Roosevelt standard.

Bolt Talk Discounted.

"Roosevelt's repeated attempt to statements have been made by many of his leaders that should a bolt be at-tempted it will not be generally participated in. "The solidarity of President Taft's

The solidarity of fresident latts time and the wavering weakness of the Rossevelt forces tell their own story of victory for the President and the bursting of the Rossevelt bubble."

The Taft leaders, while outwardly ridiculing talk of a Rossevelt bolt, grivately admitted that the Colonel.

grivately admitted that the Colonel, when it becomes apparent tomorrow, as they say it will, that the credentials committee will not interfere materially with the Taft delegates selected by the National committee, undoubtedly will order his followers out of the convenorder his followers out of the conven-tion. But the Taft leaders say that the real leaders of the Roosevelt move-ment will not hold a rump convention to give Roosevelt an independent nomi-nation.

—If Colonel Roosevelt, failing to control the Republican convention, undertakes to boit he will take with him only three out of the ten Oregon delegates.

test is pro-Roosevelt, for it is greater than that. Mr. Roosevelt adroitly seized a moment, for his own aggrandisement, that is much greater than he is, great though he may be. He capitalized a cause that existed before he thought of selsing it and that will continue to grow even after he has retired from view. Mr. Roosevelt projected himself to a leadership. He did not incite the rebellion, nor did he ever do much.

The condition is not a Roosevelt condition. He is merely the incident symptom of conditions. It is a widespread movement that has worked with much rapidity in the last four years and will work with even greater rapidity in the coming four years.

old Order Is Changed.

This convention, with its contests, its struggle for delegates, its parliamentary seesawing, its lack of determination, its almost equal division between the old order and the new, its creaking, rusty machinery, its petty politics and its petty politicians, its reliance on patronage and Federal officeholders, its coercion and corruption, its methods of 20 years ago, when the people were complaisant instead of contentious, its bosses and its bossed—this convention is the last of its kind. There never will be another like it.

Inevitably, also, the convention at Baltimore will prove the same contention. There are now four parties, t Conservative Republican and a Radical Republican, and a Conservative Demo-cratic and a Radical Democratic. Four-parties cannot exist, for no one of four-parties can hold the majority and ours is a government by majorities.

Every word of debate, every bit of strategy, every piece of manipulation, every struggle for votes, every deal with delegates, every speech, every mo-tion, every voice in the convention, both on Tuesday and on Wednesday, proved this contention. Nominally, all were either Taft or Roosevelt demonwere either Tait or Roosevel demon-strations. Really they showed the struggle between the conservatives and the radicals in the Republican party. Absolutely they pointed to the disin-tegration of the Republican party as it

The National committee, as a determining factor for candidates, has been shoved out of power. No National committee ever will perform as any National committees have performed in the past, even without enough primary states. It will be deader than a smelt in four years from now.
