REAL ESTATE.

Beautiful Suburban Home AT A SACRIFICE

As the owner's business has compelled him to move to another city, we are authorized to offer a beautiful 8-room house with 4 acres of ground, fronting on the Willamette River about 255 feet and extending back to the railroad at Rock Spur Station. House is well built and has all modern improvements, electric lights, etc. Also small bungalow built to one side, suitable for servants' quarters. Good car service, only 20 minutes from center of the city. Deducting value of improvements made will leave cost of ground less than $2000 per acre, while adjoining property with less frontage is held at $4000 per acre. Price for the four acres, $12,000.
