

BOIT ABANDONED; PARTY PLAN

Roosevelt Forces to Stay in Convention Colonel Will Wait People's Call.

BALTIMORE ACTION WAITED

Members of Credentials Committee Who "Left for Good" Back at Sessions—Nominations Not Expected Until Saturday.

how soon after the adjournment of the present convention the new party would be formed, should such a decision be reached.

Result at Baltimore Will Count.
The opinion was expressed by some Roosevelt supporters that the outcome at Baltimore would have a considerable bearing upon the situation.

Colonel Roosevelt said there had been some difference of opinion among his supporters as to the advisability of holding the Ohio delegates, he said, felt that under their instructions they should remain at the convention until after the nomination was made. Other delegates, including some of those from California, were in favor of withdrawing at once.

The agreement finally was reached at a caucus in which were present two representatives from each of the states having Roosevelt delegates, as well as those states from which the Roosevelt candidates for seats in the convention had been excluded.

The caucus was held unanimously a resolution introduced by William Allen White, of Kansas, said Colonel Roosevelt in explaining the situation, "This resolution is to the effect that the republican party would not submit to having the nomination for President determined by theft and if the convention declined to seat the delegates fraudulently seated by the convention, the Roosevelt delegates would decline to be bound."

Delegates Not to Vote.
The second resolution was adopted later, stipulating that the Roosevelt delegates would take part in the convention if their delegates were seated, and if they were not seated they would remain in the convention and not participate in it.

The text of these resolutions was not made public.

Colonel Roosevelt explained that the action of the caucus did not mean that any delegates would bolt, but that they reserved the right to do so if they preferred as to leaving the convention. Roosevelt leaders said it was the unanimous decision of their men that they would not quit the hall. They will remain in the convention, he said, and when the convention is over will continue to hold their seats and proceed to effect their own organization.

Colonel Refuses Compromise.
Colonel Roosevelt made it plain that he would not support any compromise candidate nominated by the convention as at present constituted. He declined to make any statement in regard to Governor Hadley or any other individual, confining himself to an explanation of his general position.

"Any man who is nominated by this convention as now composed," he reiterated, "will not be tolerated by the Roosevelt delegates."
No definite statement could be obtained from the Roosevelt leaders as to the number of delegates they believed would support this programme. They expressed confidence there would be no serious defections.

It was explained that one of the chief reasons of the Roosevelt delegates for deciding not to withdraw from the convention was the action adopted by the rules committee which would enable the National committee to fill the seats vacated by the selection of other delegates.

Decision is Right-About-Face.
The plan of action adopted by the Roosevelt leaders is an abrupt change from the position taken yesterday by Colonel Roosevelt and his close associates, but he denied that it was an admission of weakness on their part or that their decision not to bolt was because they could not obtain the support of a sufficient number of delegates.

"This is the shrewdest move we have made," said one of the Roosevelt leaders. "It will enable us to hold a genuine republican convention without having it tainted by the bolted. Every act of the convention which is accomplished by fraudulent votes is illegal. The action of the fraudulently elected chairman in declaring the convention finally adjourned will, therefore, be illegal, and we shall decline to recognize it, as we have every other act of the convention. We will remain in our seats and proceed with the nomination of Roosevelt, after having seated the 78 Roosevelt delegates who are entitled to seats and who have been excluded."

After Colonel Roosevelt had personally discussed the tense situation of the afternoon, he had called the leaders Governor Stubbs of Kansas. When the Governor had left the conference room he too announced, "There will be no bolt."

Boit Talk Held Foolish.
"This talk of a bolt is foolish," said Governor Stubbs. "Colonel Roosevelt never talked about a bolt."
"Is there a difference," the Governor was asked, "between a bolt and a 'split' in the party?"

"That is a question which the Colonel should answer himself," said the Governor. "I have talked with Mr. Roosevelt many times the last few days, and I just talked with him now. Never has he mentioned the subject of a bolt. Of course, there has been much talk of the Roosevelt forces bolting, and that has affected the delegations. It has affected my state."

"But I want to say that the delegation from my state has decided it will not bolt this convention."
"When did the Kansas delegation take this action?" the Governor was asked.

"The Kansas delegation voted today that it would not bolt," said Governor Stubbs. "This delegation and all the other Roosevelt delegations will remain in this convention until the nomination is made, I believe."

"What about a compromise candidate?"

"There can be no compromise candidate so far as we are concerned," the Governor replied.

After the late afternoon conference of the state delegates and campaign leaders this formal statement was issued from Campaign Manager Dixon's headquarters:

"The Roosevelt delegates at the meeting this afternoon decided that they will not permit the title to the Presidency of the United States to be bestowed. If the action of the convention on the report of the committee on creden-

DEMOCRATIC FORMER CANDIDATE, WHO IS AGREED UPON FOR TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN AT BALTIMORE.

ALTON B. PARKER.

Alton B. Parker does not remove from the roll of delegates the names fraudulently placed thereon by the National committee, the Roosevelt forces will refuse to be bound by the action of the convention.

"The Roosevelt camp gradually has divided into two groups," said George Record, of New Jersey. "A new party is in the process of birth. A new party to be taken to usher in this new party there are almost as many opinions as there are men. In the inner councils of the Roosevelt camp two groups are forming."

Roosevelt Camp Divided.
"One group is satisfied to beat Taft and have a more progressive candidate nominated. The second group believes that the settling aside of Roosevelt after he has carried the primaries would in itself be a victory for the reactionaries and the standpatners. If a compromise ticket is the outcome, we must wait for other times and other conditions to shape the new movement. If Roosevelt takes the field as a candidate, under whatever party name the new party is born."

COLLEGE HEADS MEET

PACIFIC CORPORATION HOLDS CONFERENCE AT NEWBERG.

Lindsay A. Wells, of Portland, Resigns as Member of Board, as Does B. C. Mills, of Salem.

NEWBERG, Or., June 20.—The annual meeting of the Pacific College Corporation was held Friday evening at the college building, and the report of the work of the college year was presented that afternoon before the Oregon yearling meeting. The college had a prosperous year, with the largest attendance for years and with the sure prospect of a still better year for 1912-13. The annual reports of the officers were most encouraging, including the report of the progress of the endowment campaign.

Lindsay A. Wells, of Portland, resigned his membership in the board of managers because his work for the coming year is to keep him out of reach of the college. The resignation was accepted with regret, as was the request of B. C. Mills, of Salem, that he should not be re-elected. Charles O. Whitely and Amos C. Stambrough were elected to the board in connection with the school. Hodson, of Newberg; John Pemberton, of Salem; and Ezra H. Woodward, of Newberg, were re-elected to the board of managers for the term of three years.

After the corporation meeting, the board met and reorganized by electing H. Woodward president, A. R. Mills vice-president, Evangeline Martin secretary and W. E. Crozer treasurer.

The board adopted the recommendation that the new college building be named "Wood-Mar Hall" in honor of the two women, Mrs. E. H. Woodward and Mrs. Evangeline Martin, who were in a sense the originators of the movement for the new building, and who made the canvass for subscriptions for the new building a success.

The board also adopted a strong resolution in favor of the abolition of the death penalty in Oregon, and a petition to institute a law to that effect was freely signed.

A resolution was also adopted protesting against the spread of militarism, especially in the churches that have adopted the Boys' Brigade movement. Quakers have been pioneers in the peace movement, and the peace session of the yearly meeting was one of special interest.

A committee was appointed to look into the matter of the supplementary reading in connection with the school of the state, and if thought advisable, to suggest changes.
