

JUDGE ARCHBALD TO BE IMPEACHED

House Committee Unanimous in Favor of Reporting Charges Against Him.

FINAL HEARING IS JULY 1

Alleged Misconduct in Relation to "Culm Bank" Transaction With Railroad Upheld by Report of Committee.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

The report will be made to the House in the week of July 1.

The charges against Judge Archbald were brought at the instigation of W. B. Boland, president of the Marion Coal Company. Mr. Boland was a prominent witness in the hearing before the House committee, and it was his testimony, supported by other witnesses, that led to the finding of the committee.

A decision which is closely interwoven with the action against Judge Archbald was given by the Interstate Commerce Commission today. This decision ruled in favor of the Marion County Coal Company in its suit against the Lackawanna Railroad, which figured prominently in the Archbald impeachment hearing.

Chairman Clayton will present the Archbald report from the floor as of the highest privilege, and it will go to the House with the charges and specifications the committee makes accusing the judge of misbehavior. With the report will be a resolution appointing five or possibly seven of the leading lawyers of the House to act as managers of the trial, which will be held by the Senate.

The "culm bank" transaction will furnish the basis of the accusations. The vacation trip alleged to have been financed by lawyers practicing in his court and the supplementary briefs filed by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, in a pending case, may also enter the discussion.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

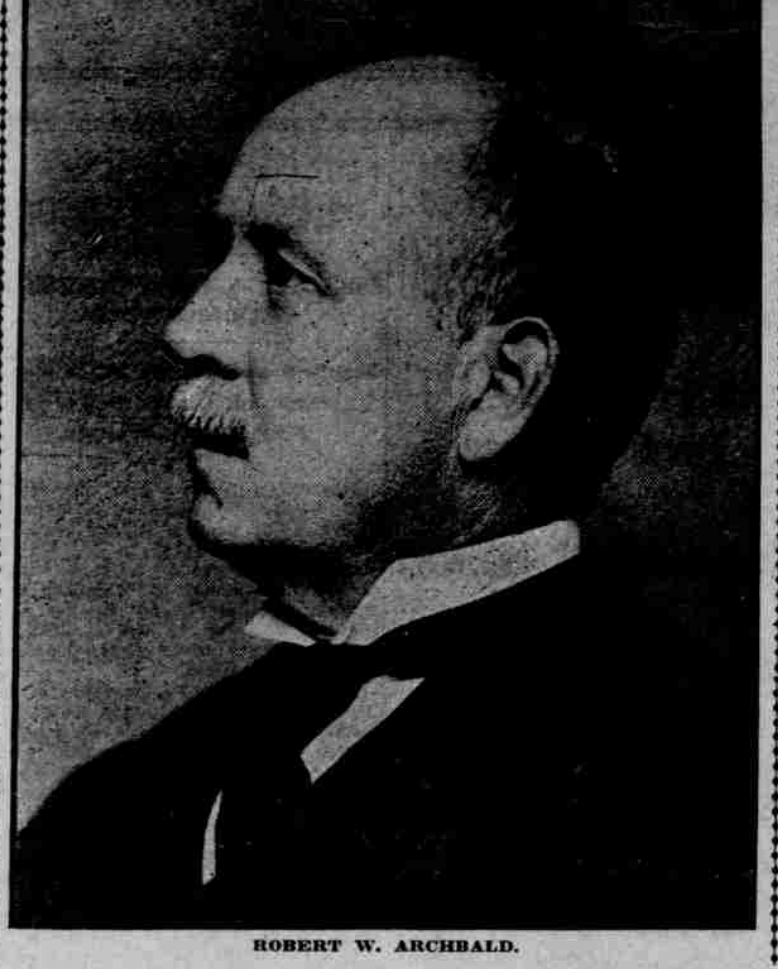

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Following a long investigation by the House Judiciary committee into the official acts of Judge Robert D. Archbald of the Commerce Court, that committee today unanimously voted to report articles of impeachment against him. Judge Archbald has been under investigation for several weeks for alleged misbehavior in office in connection with a "culm bank" transaction with the Erie Railroad.

JUDGE OF COMMERCE COURT, WHOM HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE HAS VOTED TO IMPEACH.

ROBERT W. ARCHBALD.

VENICE IS ENJOYED

Oregon Naval Militia Reaches Famous Beach Resort.

HOME TRIP BEGINS SUNDAY

Chamber of Commerce and National Guard Officers to Act as Host at Dinner and Smoker to Men From Cruiser Maryland.

VENICE, Cal., June 21.—(Special.)—Reaching Southern California's famed beach resort at 6:30 o'clock this evening, after an uneventful run from San Francisco, which was made at a 13-knot clip, officers and men of the cruiser Maryland, regulars and militia alike, have been received by delegations from Venice and Los Angeles and informed of a series of entertainments planned in their honor. These entertainments have been limited because the ship will sail at 8 o'clock Sunday morning on the return to the Columbia River.

The seventh and eighth divisions of the California naval militia will play hosts part of tomorrow and at noon officers of the Maryland and the Oregon naval militia will be entertained at luncheon by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. In the evening a dinner will be given in their honor here, the National Guard officers, Association of Southern California, and Venice organizations being the hosts. There also will be a smoker on board the Maryland tomorrow night for the crew and during the day they will be admitted to concessions at Venice.

Mr. Elliott has planned that the Maryland shall stop at Santa Barbara on the way north, reaching there Sunday evening and sailing Monday morning. He says the Maryland will enter the Columbia River not later than 12:30 o'clock, June 27, and the Coos Bay and Bandon men will be transferred at once to the steamer Breakwater, the Portland divisions going up the river on other transportation.

Leaving Venice the Oregon militia will have an opportunity to see the court draft trials, as the cruiser is to steam her fastest during a period of four hours in another coal test.

STATE REPORTER REVISED

Sixteenth Supreme Court Report Almost Up to Date.

SALEM, Or., June 21.—(Special.)—With the issuance of the 60th Oregon Supreme Court report within the next two weeks the Oregon reports will be nearer up to date in Oregon than for many years. This reporter will take the Supreme Court cases through the month of January.

It is probable that the next report will bring the cases within striking distance of those that have been decided and place the Oregon report practically on the same basis as the reporters which are issued by private companies.

These reporters previously have been much more up to date than reporters of the state itself, but apparently from the 60th report, the next Oregon report will equal that of the private concerns.

DARROW'S "DEALS" TOLD

HARRINGTON TALKS OF $10,000 ROLL OF BILLS.

"If He Speaks I Am Ruined," Involved Attorney Alleged to Have Said at Franklin's Arrest.

LOS ANGELES, June 1.—John R. Harrington testified today in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow for jury bribery that Darrow had shown him, last September, a roll of bills which Darrow had said contained $10,000 and were procured from "Tvetimoo's" bank in San Francisco; that Darrow told him at the time if he could arrange to reach a couple of jurymen James B. McNamara would never be convicted. Harrington also testified that on the morning of Bert Franklin's arrest for attempting to bribe George N. Lockwood, Darrow had said to the witness: "My God, if he speaks I am ruined."

Harrington said that was Darrow's reply to his question whether Darrow would be involved in the scandal. Harrington also testified that it was upon Darrow's orders that Mrs. Flora Caplan was taken from the state; that F. A. Diekelman was persuaded that he should leave Alhambra, N. M., for Chicago and that other witnesses subpoenaed by the prosecution in the McNamara case were induced to absent themselves.

Harrington testified that he had heard Darrow tell George Behm uncle of Ortle McManigal, prior to a visit to the latter by Behm that if McNamara did not "come across" for the defense he would have him indicted for a murder in Illinois.

The question of immunity was raised by the defense in the trial. The court if he would be immune from prosecution if he testified. Judge Hutton assured him that was the court's understanding. Harrington said that he did not understand that he was testifying under compulsion.

Almost the entire cross-examination was aimed at the impeachment of the witness.

CROOK COUNTY LAND FILED UPON

SALEM, Or., June 21.—(Special.)—The Black Butte Land & Livestock Company has forwarded filings to the State Engineer on 540 acres of land in Crook County in six separate filings. This is in point of the number of filings by one person considered exceptionally large by the State Engineer, although the acreage is comparatively small. As the company is one of the largest in that section the State Engineer believes the development of the land may have some important bearing in that county.

CHINESE ASSEMBLY QUIET

Retirement of Provisional Government Attracts No Interest.

PEKIN, June 22.—(Special.)—Some interesting features marked the retirement of the provisional government at Nankin, at which the retiring president, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, and the members of the provisional republican government formally relinquished the seals of office.

No public interest whatever was manifested in the event. The only visitors were half a dozen foreigners, a handful of younger China, and nine suffragists, who occupied a prominent place in the gallery, and throughout the proceedings comported themselves with strict propriety.

A military band was employed to enliven the ceremony, and President Sun, the Premier, and the old Cabinet walked to their places to the strains of a German march. The music having ceased, the speaker announced that the retiring president would address a farewell message to the assembly. Dr. Sun Yat Sen then came forward to the rostrum and made a speech.

AMERICAN FOLLOWS TRAIL

Lieutenant W. G. Morris, of Portland, Tracks Army Cook for Years and Thinks He Knows Now Where Book Is Hidden.

HONOLULU, Hawaii, June 11.—(Special Correspondence.)—With the alluring prospect of winning a fortune of $9,000 taels and a gold medal from Congress, William Grant Morris, of Portland and Newberg, Or., sailed for China today to recover for the Chinese government the priceless Sacred Book of Ancestral Worship, stolen from the imperial palace within the Forbidden City during the occupation of the allies in the Boxer outbreak, and for 10 years hidden in such a place as to defy the almost unremitting search of the Chinese authorities.

At the time of its disappearance, United States troops were in possession of the Forbidden City and the Chinese Emperor and his household had flown in the direction of Pao-tsing.

The American occupation of the Forbidden City continued for more than five weeks and one of the first acts of Li Hung Chang (who had come up from Canton to greet his sovereign), was to seek out General Adna R. Chaffee, the American commander, and thank him on behalf of the throne for the unexpected condition of affairs within the Forbidden City.

Search for Sacred Book Starts.

But Li Hung Chang had a sorrowful and unpleasant duty as well to perform. The greatest treasure of the empire, the Sacred Book of Ancestral Worship, had been removed from the Room of Heavenly Grace and Intelligence in the Palace of Ancestral Fathers' General Chaffee said, and he would begin a thorough investigation and he promised Chang that the great volume of priceless historical and religious worth would never leave China. It was then that the famous Chinaman stated he would reward with $9,000 Canton taels ($5,000 about) the finder of the lost treasure. Chaffee assured him that no reward was necessary or would be considered, and that same day instituted a searching investigation.

Lieutenant William G. Morris, at that time a sergeant of volunteers attached to the American headquarters, because of his knowledge of China, and the Chinese language, was finally put in charge of the secret service work and began quietly to make investigation, with the result that he learned that three persons, an American Lieutenant, an Army cook and a private, were guilty of removing the famous work from the palace. A few weeks thereafter the Lieutenant suspect put in his resignation to the United States, and the suspected private died in the Spring at the Camp Reilly Hospital.

Brown's Action Suspicious.

James L. Brown, the cook, received his discharge from the service only a few days ago, and returned to the Philippines, but instead of going home in a transport, he engaged passage to Hongkong, went from there to Manila, and then to the United States, and finally presented himself for re-enlistment to the officer commanding the legion guard in Pekin. Whether he knew the whereabouts of the Sacred Book at his heels during the greater part of the time, Morris received funds regularly from the War Department under the name of Smith, Kline and O'Brien, as well as liberal supplies from the estate of Prince Ching and from the Chinese government.

In February of this year Morris received a letter from James Gummy, of Watertown, N. Y., saying that a William Brown, of Cornwall-in-the-Hudson, a brother of James Brown, had written to him regarding a buried book in China, and Morris lost no time in getting to Cornwall and interviewing William Brown. From Brown he made a hurried return to Washington and thence to his present home in Portland, Or.

Your correspondent talked with him yesterday at the desk of the Oregon Mail liner Manchuria. Mr. Morris was not secretive. He said that scores of people in many parts of the world, particularly in the Orient, knew that his principal business for 10 years was the finding of the Sacred Book of Ancestral Worship and that he believed that at last he would find the long-sought volume.

CHILD-GOVERNMENT TRIED

England Adopts Plan Having Boys and Girls Work Together.

LONDON, June 22.—(Special.)—The scheme for establishing a self-governing colony for boys and girls in England, on the lines of the George Yunt Republic in America, is well on the way to fulfillment, and the first colony will be established at Flowers' Farm, in Dorset, where the farm is beautifully situated in wooded and well-watered country, and the architect's dreams go beyond the actual planning of houses, courts and offices, to a swimming bath made at the junction of two streams, one of which is called the Wringle.

A Flowers' Farm, in keeping with the best spirit of social reform today, girls are included in the scheme, and will work side by side with the boys, sharing all responsibility and all privileges.

POSTERS URGE REBELLION

Irish Proclamations Say Time for Revolt Is at Hand.

DUBLIN, June 22.—Large printed proclamations were found posted in Wexford and the vicinity calling attention to the rebellion of 1788.

"The time is drawing near," the proclamation declared, "when we will be called upon to do the same again. England is certain to be involved in a big war in the near future with Germany, so it is necessary for each and every one of us to be ready for that time. Break away from England, or else come under German rule. Irishmen, awake! Arm at once! Delays are dangerous. The dawning day is at hand. Prove yourselves worthy descendants of the men of '98. God save Ireland."

The constabulary obliterated the posters.

A Year on a Houseboat.

Baltimore American.

Dr. John F. Goucher, president emeritus of Goucher College, Baltimore, traveled 45,000 miles during his year's absence, making 2500 miles of the trip in a houseboat up one of the largest rivers in China, drawn by coolies. He is 56 years old, robust and hearty, and finds much enjoyment in travel under all circumstances.

CHINESE SEEKING BOOK OF ANCESTRAL WORSHIP

Relic Removed From Forbidden City Is Object of Continuous Search.

AMERICAN FOLLOWS TRAIL

Lieutenant W. G. Morris, of Portland, Tracks Army Cook for Years and Thinks He Knows Now Where Book Is Hidden.

HONOLULU, Hawaii, June 11.—(Special Correspondence.)—With the alluring prospect of winning a fortune of $9,000 taels and a gold medal from Congress, William Grant Morris, of Portland and Newberg, Or., sailed for China today to recover for the Chinese government the priceless Sacred Book of Ancestral Worship, stolen from the imperial palace within the Forbidden City during the occupation of the allies in the Boxer outbreak, and for 10 years hidden in such a place as to defy the almost unremitting search of the Chinese authorities.

At the time of its disappearance, United States troops were in possession of the Forbidden City and the Chinese Emperor and his household had flown in the direction of Pao-tsing.

The American occupation of the Forbidden City continued for more than five weeks and one of the first acts of Li Hung Chang (who had come up from Canton to greet his sovereign), was to seek out General Adna R. Chaffee, the American commander, and thank him on behalf of the throne for the unexpected condition of affairs within the Forbidden City.

Search for Sacred Book Starts.

But Li Hung Chang had a sorrowful and unpleasant duty as well to perform. The greatest treasure of the empire, the Sacred Book of Ancestral Worship, had been removed from the Room of Heavenly Grace and Intelligence in the Palace of Ancestral Fathers' General Chaffee said, and he would begin a thorough investigation and he promised Chang that the great volume of priceless historical and religious worth would never leave China. It was then that the famous Chinaman stated he would reward with $9,000 Canton taels ($5,000 about) the finder of the lost treasure. Chaffee assured him that no reward was necessary or would be considered, and that same day instituted a searching investigation.

Lieutenant William G. Morris, at that time a sergeant of volunteers attached to the American headquarters, because of his knowledge of China, and the Chinese language, was finally put in charge of the secret service work and began quietly to make investigation, with the result that he learned that three persons, an American Lieutenant, an Army cook and a private, were guilty of removing the famous work from the palace. A few weeks thereafter the Lieutenant suspect put in his resignation to the United States, and the suspected private died in the Spring at the Camp Reilly Hospital.

Brown's Action Suspicious.

James L. Brown, the cook, received his discharge from the service only a few days ago, and returned to the Philippines, but instead of going home in a transport, he engaged passage to Hongkong, went from there to Manila, and then to the United States, and finally presented himself for re-enlistment to the officer commanding the legion guard in Pekin. Whether he knew the whereabouts of the Sacred Book at his heels during the greater part of the time, Morris received funds regularly from the War Department under the name of Smith, Kline and O'Brien, as well as liberal supplies from the estate of Prince Ching and from the Chinese government.

In February of this year Morris received a letter from James Gummy, of Watertown, N. Y., saying that a William Brown, of Cornwall-in-the-Hudson, a brother of James Brown, had written to him regarding a buried book in China, and Morris lost no time in getting to Cornwall and interviewing William Brown. From Brown he made a hurried return to Washington and thence to his present home in Portland, Or.

Your correspondent talked with him yesterday at the desk of the Oregon Mail liner Manchuria. Mr. Morris was not secretive. He said that scores of people in many parts of the world, particularly in the Orient, knew that his principal business for 10 years was the finding of the Sacred Book of Ancestral Worship and that he believed that at last he would find the long-sought volume.

Ghirardelli's Cocoa

For Sixty Years

the house of Ghirardelli has been making the products of the nutritious cocoa bean—60 years engaged in one line of manufacture in the city of San Francisco. During this period every effort has been made to produce the "best of all" in every department.

Ghirardelli's Cocoa

is the premier of all cocoa preparations and when made as it should be, it makes a most nourishing drink for morning, noon and night.

One cup of milk and one lump sugar for each person, heated in a double boiler. In cup or bowl mix one teaspoonful cocoa for each person, with sufficient milk to make a thick liquid; add this to the hot milk. Lift top boiler out and boil up once. Stir well when serving—add sugar to taste.

GOMEZ IS ACCUSED

Newspaper Says Cuba's President Fomented Rebellion.

PRECAUTIONS NOT TAKEN

Direct Charge Made That Understanding Existed With General Estenos, but Uprising Got Beyond Control.

HAVANA, June 1.—The rumors that have been long current that President Gomez instigated the revolution in Cuba for the purpose of getting the credit of quelling it and thus increasing his chances of re-election to the presidency have now taken the form of direct charges made principally by the newspaper El Diario. The paper declares that President Gomez personally arranged with General Evaristo Estenos to start the revolution and then be bought off.

President Gomez was then to pose as a strong man, capable of dominating any situation and indispensable to the Cuban republic.

The paper charges that President Gomez was fully informed of the details of the outbreak before March 10, but took no precautions, keeping in constant touch with General Estenos. The paper says that after Estenos and Gomez had agreed to start a small revolution for their mutual benefit, the affair took on unexpected proportions, resulting in a veritable conflagration.

A Conspiracy of 13 Sporting Times.

The Visitor—Why are you here, my misguided friend?

The Prisoner—I'm the victim of the unlucky No. 13.

The Visitor—Indeed; how's that?

The Prisoner—Twelve jurors and one judge.

HAVANA, June 1.—The rumors that have been long current that President Gomez instigated the revolution in Cuba for the purpose of getting the credit of quelling it and thus increasing his chances of re-election to the presidency have now taken the form of direct charges made principally by the newspaper El Diario. The paper declares that President Gomez personally arranged with General Evaristo Estenos to start the revolution and then be bought off.

President Gomez was then to pose as a strong man, capable of dominating any situation and indispensable to the Cuban republic.

The paper charges that President Gomez was fully informed of the details of the outbreak before March 10, but took no precautions, keeping in constant touch with General Estenos. The paper says that after Estenos and Gomez had agreed to start a small revolution for their mutual benefit, the affair took on unexpected proportions, resulting in a veritable conflagration.

A Conspiracy of 13 Sporting Times.

The Visitor—Why are you here, my misguided friend?

The Prisoner—I'm the victim of the unlucky No. 13.

The Visitor—Indeed; how's that?

The Prisoner—Twelve jurors and one judge.

Special for Sunday—Strawberry

If you crave the most delicious treat of the Summer, order some Washington Pure-Cream Ice Cream, made with crushed, fresh, ripe, juicy, delicious strawberries. No advance in price—this is our Sunday special. Regular 60c per qt., 2 qts. for $1.00; brick, 75c qt., 2 qts., $1.20. Order early. Auto deliveries made all day Sunday.

Washington CREAMERY CO.

169 Fourth St. Phones: Main 764, A 2276

IF YOUR TIME IS VALUABLE

Our Telephone Girl—This is Her Picture

Why annoy the telephone girl and waste your time and patience? Use the Automatic Telephone.

You can save both time and temper by using the Automatic Telephone.

Your conversation cannot be interrupted nor overheard.

A perfect, mechanical agency at your service twenty-four hours a day, 365 days in the year.

ASK THE MAN WHO HAS ONE

THE AUTOMATIC TELEPHONE "The more you use me, the better you will like me."

Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, of Portland, Or.

Can Keep a Secret

She never sleeps nor talks back

Her nerves are steel

She speaks all languages, twenty-four hours a day, every day in the year

Never gets tired or "saucy"

She never strikes