More Lock Boxes added.—The lobby of the Portiand Postoffice has been remodeled and 401 new lock boxes installed, giving 1169 boxes. Postmaster Merrick is now ready to receive applications to rent these new boxes, and expects all will be disposed of in a few days, as he has had a waiting list of about 190. The small boxes are $1.50 a quarter; the medium sized ones, $2 a quarter; the small drawers, $3, and the double sized drawers, $4. The improvements have been made at a cost of $1500, it being necessary to enlarge the mexianine floor for the accommodation of the postal clerks. The present arrangement gives $600 square feet additional of floor space.

MRS. J. N. VOORHIES PASSES.—Mrs. John N. Voorhies died Sunday evening at the family residence, 139 East Sixty-second street, after an illness of several years. Mrs. Voorhies was born at Leister, Mass., February 5, 1841, and was married when Mr. Voorhies returned from the war in 1865. They moved to Michigan and remained there until 1893, coming then to Portland. Mrs. Voorhies is survived by her husband and two sons, C. R. Voorhies, of Mount Tabor, and A. E. Voorhies, editor of the Rogue River Courier of Grants Pass. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from Dunning's undertaking parlors at 14 East Alder street.

ADVICE GIVEN MINISTERS.—Norman

Advice Given Ministers.—Norman C. Thorne, at the Methodist ministers' meeting yesterday morning, said it is the fault of the ministers that school teachers take so little interest in the Sunday school. "What I Would Do if I Were a Prencher," was his subject. He advised the ministers to do their own evangelical work, and to dispense with traveling evangelists. He said ministers do not attend the Sunday schools with sufficient regularity. Dr. J. W. McDougall, district superintendent, reported the dedication services of the Clinton Kelly Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church the most successful ever held in Portaind.

Sunday School Carnival Opens.—The carnival conducted by the Sunday school class of M. E. Thompson, of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, Shaver street and Missouri avenue, opened yesterday with a parade and reception to King Pilgrimanus, and Queen Hortese at 7 o'clock. At the ground the carnival was opened by the king and queen and a comedy sketch, "Dr. Cure-All." was given by the M. E. Thompson Sunday school class under the direction of Clarence Sprague. Tonight is Japanese night when "Chrysanthemum," a Japanese operetta, in three acts will be given.

AD CLUB TO HEAR TALKS.—Freedom of speech and the problem of capital punishment will be the subjects of the two speeches to be delivered at the luncheon of the Portland Ad Club at the Multnomah Hotel tomorrow at noon. E. S. J. McAllister will discuss the former subject, and capital punishment will be discussed by Dr. C. H. Chapman. D. W. Campbell will talk on "What the Railroads Have Done for Oregon." P. E. Arlett will be chairman of the day. Shapirer Breaks Record.—During the state bankers' convention at Gearbart, Or., June 21 and 23, Leo Shapirer, SHAPIRER BREAKS RECORD.—During the state bankers' convention at Gearbart, Or., June 21 and 23, Leo Shapirer, transit manager of the First National Bank of this city, broke all records for the Pacific Coast, by correctly adding and listing 250 bank checks on an adding machine, in four minutes and 19 acconds, and listing 100 checks in 87 acconds flat. This is only a few seconds below the world's record held by Harry Reynoids, of New York.

ADVERTISEMENTS MUST GO.—The grandstands on Grand avenue erected for the Rose Festival by the East Side Business Mon's Club have been let stand for the Elks' reunion. Since the Festival the grandstands have been covered with advertisements painted on the surface of the boards. This has caused indignation and the directors say that the advertisements must come off.

PRESIDENT TO INVESTIGATE ROUTE.—
C. F. Clark, W. T. Gardner, J. C. Bucher, J. H. Johnson, of the Clacksmas Improvement Association, and L. M. Lepper, of the East Side Business Men's Club, held a conference with Joseph H. Young, president of the Hill lines, last week, concerning the construction of an electric railway in the southeast section by way of the Reed College grounds and Clackamas Station, and he agreed to investigate the district. The committee also submitted a description of the country through which the line will run if built, together with numerous photographs of the products of the district. Collection of tonnage statistics is now in progress to show what may be expected in freights and passenger all along the route. Accurate figures are being secured through the clubs and farmers. Clubs are to be organized at Harmony and Logan this week. No Splashing Order Issued.—Following complaints from various sources of carelessness on the part of street cleaners in splashing mud and water on the dresses of women during night street cleaning hours, orders for greater care were issued to the department yesterday by Superintendent Donaldson. Women going to and from the theaters complained often of the carelessness of the sweepers not only in splashing mud and water but in leaving pools of muddy water and piles of debris on the intersections.

ELECTRIC COOKING DEMONSTRATION by Mrs. Margaret E. A. Hawley, Tuesday at 2:30 P. M., with a lesson on "Brown-Stone-Front" cake, marshmallow filling, and Mrs. Hawley's special recipe for making cheese souffle. These classes are becoming very popular with the ladies of Portland, so come early and secure a front seat. Electric Store, Seventh and Alder. All ladies welcome. Lessons free.

Fibtic Trouble which has been one of the predominating features of the Municipal Free Imployment Bureau for many months back, broke out again yesterday when the acting cierk, C. E. Christensen, used force in persuading Waiter Fehlert, a laborer, to leave the bureau office on Second street. Fehlert, it is said, appeared at the office in quest of a job and after refusing one offered him by Mr. Christensen became noisy. This action on his part lead to a fight in which Fehlert besides getting put out of the place received some bruises. He later swore to a warrant against Christensen charging him with assault and battery and against Policeman Fones for failure to do his duty, it being Fehlert's opinion that the patrolman should have interfered. PLANS COMMISSION TO MEET.—The Portland City Plans Commission will meet this afternoon at 4 clock at the City Hall to consider bids for the printing of the booklet of plans.

RIVER END SEWER NEAR COMPLETION.

—The big sewer between the Willamette River and East Twenty-first street on East Stark, is nearing completion. The sewer is a concrete tube six feet in diameter. The digger is now at work at East Twentieth street, and soon the first unit of the North Mount Tabor sewer will be completed to the river, and work will start on the second section, which will carry it through Laurelhurst to Center Addition. These two section of the sewer will cost nearly $150,000. The other sections of the sewer will pass through Center Addition, North Mount Tabor and Montavilla. ALTHOUGH the advertised feature of the Pantages Theater failed to get the applause of the Portland audience, Henri Kublick and Signor R. Frizzo, one an especially good violinist, and the other a quick-change artist, make the bill worth while sitported at the meeting Pricay afternoon.

SUFFRAGE LEAGUE TO MEET.—The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Suffrage League, under the presidency of Mrs. Solomen Hirsch, will be move quickly to hold the entire story in such short time.

The production is so big, so beautiful and interests so intensely that the other acts of the bill take on the significance of side orders in connection with a spiendid, big entree.

Honors and Le Prince, French pantomime gymnasts, open the bill with a dozen brand new tumbling tricks, each better than the one preceding.

Next comes the Tuxedo Comedy Four—Hannon, Petrie, Healy and Johnson. Always a quartet makes friends, and this one, with its funnyisms and pleasant singing, is no exception. It pleases well.

Harry Atkinson is a whole orchestra in himself and deserves second place as he probably already has, on the bill as he probably already has, on the bill.
His act consists of a clever monologue of nursery rhymes, introducing original imitations of every instrument conceivable. Of these his harp and mandolin are most amazingly natural.
A duo of entertainers are Brown and Blyer, who follow "Madame Butterfly."
Brown just scampers about, singing rags and making everybody quite comfortable with his jolly songs. Blyer pedals the plano acceptably.
A trio of diminutive lassles, the two O'Meers, and one lavender acrobat, who is "and company," ends the bill with a tight-wire act that has all the old ventures, and an occasional new one.
