Nothing to Add, Says Comi

Audience Not Courteous Mr. Bryan received an enthusiastic greeting both from the floor and gal-leries when he made his first appear-

Thenceforward no man who faced the

PLATFORM MAKERS

Bryan Is Not Present, So Committee

Postpones Action.

Four Lend for Chairmanship

The rules committee decided that more would be accomplished by post-poning its session until tomorrow

Early Decisions Expected.

Rhode Island—All ten delegates.

Rhode Island—All ten delegates.

Missouri—Ninth district.

Pennsylvania—Seventh and Ninth districts.

Texas—Seventh district.

Alaska, District of Columbia and Philippines. six delegates each.

CITY'S BOOKS POORLY KEPT White Salmon's Assets Less Than $3000-Liabilities $10,356.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 25 .- (Special.)

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 25.—(Special.)—But few of the old board walks remain in Hood River. Concrete has replaced boards. The city will issue $23,047 improvement bonds to continue paving work.

committee decided tha

BALTIMORE, June 25 .- After being

PARKER FORGIVES BRYAN FOR FIGHT

Nebraskan Recommended for Chairman of Committee on Resolutions.

TARIFF THEME OF SPEECH

Democratic Chairman Declares T. R. Dangerous, Attacks His Third-

Dangerous, Attacks His ThirdTerm Aspirations and Calls on All in Party to Act as One.

BALTIMORE, June 25.—The address of Alton B. Parker as chairman of the National Democratic convention today was as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the convention: Last week in Chicago there met a great party, the purpose of which was to save the party from destruction; here in this city the Democratic party meets for the purpose of helping the country. In that convention, inside of it and outside of it, there were heard the words of 'liar,' 'thief,' 'robber,' 'corruptionist,' briber,' but no such words will be uttered in this Democratic convention. Democratic convention.

the voice of the majority of this commit-vention, speaking through its commit-tee on resolutions, and by the adoption of the committee's report by the con-vention, shall speak the will of every Democrat in this land.

Democrat in this land.

'The cause of government by the people the world over has been materially checked by the disgraceful brawl which terminated in the bedlam of Chicago. Every good citizen has been put to shame by the brutality and the abuse which characterized this ween the between a President and an e abuse which characterized this rangle between a President and an President. Gratitude, friendship. party loyalty, patriotism, and common decency were forgotten in the tussie.

In the very beginning of our constitution-making it was urged by dele-gates participating that safety required a constitutional limitation of the period a constitutional limitation of the period of years one man might hold the office of President. History warned them of the coming of a man whose insatiable lust of power would be as consuming as Caesar's, towering high above his love of country. The danger seemed, even to the pessimists, to have passed with the establishment of a precedent by Washington, Jefferson, and their successors. Indeed, where lives the man who has not either heard or said, that an unwritten law forbids or said, that an unwritten law forbids more than two terms? And if anyone could be so foolhardy as to seek fur-ther, he would be crushed by the wrath ther, he would be crushed by the wrath of a patriotic and intelligent people. "The man who split his party at Chicago once recognized the third term tradition and acknowledged its application to his situation. On the eve of his triumph in 1904, he said:

"The wise custom which limits the President to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

substance and not the form, and under no elecumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.

Lust Knows Ne Limitation.

"Wrong in this year of grace, he was right in that. Peradventure he was honest with his soul, and he may have confessed to it that even a President may be tempted to resort to sordid devices and shameless importunities to gain his ambition. If so, he was in mental condition to realize to the full, the danger to the republic involved in setting saide a custom constituting the early his luster for men whose ambitions choke their particular and whose assisting and whose selfish desire for personal victory and power throttles those moral scruples with which they may once have been endowed.

"Would the man who threw his hat in the ring' and sought to 'slug his opponent over the ropes' in his fight for a third term would have brooked no such limitation. A third term would but have whetted his desire for more, and as the terms support and the would but have whetted his desire for more, and as the terms support and the would but have whetted his desire for more, and as the terms supported vould have brooked no such limitation. A third term would but have whetted his desire for more, and as the terms supported that the more of the convention shoulder in the ring' and sought to 'slug his opponent over the ropes' in his fight for a third term would but have whetted his desire for more, and as the terms support and the soluder in the ring' and sought to 'slug his opponent over the ropes' in his fight for a third term would but have whetted his desire for more, and as the terms support and the solid delegation from Washing-ton and the solid delegation from First Page.)

It is because the platform, he were in the pastest of the full, the majority from the majority of the mental cond on his imperious will,

"This is the man who menaced us with an increase of Federal power by usurpation of state's rights and without authority of Constitutional amendments.

The man who took the lathmus of Panama, 'and let Congress debate about it afterwards.' The man who, having enough meney to send the facet on its famous cruise to the Pacific, sent it without sanction of Congress, leaving it to appropriate the money for the return when Congress deemed that necessary—This is the man who advocated Federal incorporation for the increase of power at Washington and the lightening of legal burdens on the corporations; the man who advocated the man who advocated Federal incorporation for the increase of power at Washington and the lightening of legal burdens on the corporations; the man who authorized the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company by the steel trust; the man who, by many such drastic acts and by unnumbered words, has sought to batter down our statutory and constitutional safeguards.

The who runs may read the danger of the meating was well attended and the latter the meating was well attended and the meating was well atten

One of our opportunities in this cam-paign is to lead the fight against the third term. That opportunity should appeal to every drop of patriotic blood in our veins.

"In this great country, which boasts of a wealth of one hundred and thirty billions, as against eighty billions for Great Britain and Ireland, sixty-five billions for France, and sixty billions for Germany, all are conscious that too large a part of our wealth has been secured by a small percentage of our population, and that the cost of living rises faster than the average income.

Tariff and Trusts Blamed. "The principal cause of all this is to be found in the tariff statutes and in the combinations restraining trade and competition created for the purpose of wringing from the public every dol-lar which the tariff statutes make pos-

"The average of duties under the tariff of 1789 was 8½ per cent. Now the average is 50 per cent. In 1842 the average was 32 per cent. In 1845 it was reduced to 25 per cent, which worked so well that a reduction to an average of 20 per cent followed in 1857.

Probably it would never again have fortunes.

Pledge Declared Unfulfilled.

Democratic convention.

Bryan's Power Recognized.

We have had a little difference here today, a question of men, but, my fellow citizens, there was nothing said on that occasion by any of the principal debaters that was at all severe or intended to be unkind. If, for a moment I thought that the chief speaker was a little bit harsh I remembered on the other hand those three magnificent struggles that he had made for the Democratic party in this country; is realize that this meant much to him and that if he were mistaken with reference to my position, as I believe he was, that it was my duty to forgive and to stand with him in this convention.

"My fellow Democrats, there is only road to prace where he is capable of rendering great service, service unsurpassed by anyone, and that is the chairman of the resolutions committee and I hope and believe that every member of the resolutions committee will honor himself by casting his vote for that great leader for chairman of the committee.

Democrats All Progressive.

Wy fellow citizens, there are no reactionaries, whatever they may have been once, there are none now. The Democrats are progressive. Now, it may possibly be true that here in this great convention, with all these able men coming from every section of the country. I say it may be true that there in this great convention, with all these able only road to progress, but you will agree upon this one proposition, that the voice of the majority of this convention of the committee representatives on resolutions, and by the adoption of the committee representative on resolutions, and by the adoption of the committee representative on resolutions, and by the adoption of the committee representative on resolutions, and by the adoption of the committee representative in the resolution of the committee representatives and the resolutions of the resolutions of the corporate and individually agree upon this one proposition, that the voice of the majority of this contracts and of the corporate and individually agree upon

"It is necessary that laws should be passed to prohibit the use of corporate funds directly or indirectly for political purposes; it is still more necessary that purposes; it is still more necessary that such laws be thoroughly enforced.

"On an occasion even a President of the United States has been known to solicit the financial assistance of a great railroad leader, over whose railroad an executive department might hold either a stern or a mild and gentle sway. The Presidential attitude was gentle and polits, but firm and, insistent. Several letters failing to produce the sheep for the shearing, another was addressed to 'My dear Mr. Harriman.'

Plea Against Third Term Made.

"The assault upon the unwritten prohibition against a third term made in the wild scramble for the Republican nomination, warns us of the vital necessity of incorporating in our Constitution safeguards against repeated terms.

"Now, my dear sir, you and I are practical men and you are on the ground and know the conditions better than I do. If you think there is any danger of your visit to me causing trouble, or if you think there is nothing special I need to be informed about, or no matter on which I could give aid, or no matter on which I could give aid, why, of course, give up the visit for the time being and then a few weeks hence, before I write my message, I shall get you to come down to discuss certain Government matters not connected with the campaign. "For their crimes against American citizenship the present leaders of the Republican party should be destroyed. "For making and keeping the bargain to take care of the tariff-protected interests in consideration of campaign funds, they should be destroyed.

Waste of Public Funds Charged.

Waste of Public Funds Charged.

"For encouraging the creation of combination to restrain trade and refusing to enforce the law, for a like consideration, they should be destroyed.

"For encouraging the creation of combination to restrain trade and refusing to enforce the law, for a like consideration, they should be destroyed.

"For the lawish waste of public funds, for the framework of public funds, for the framework of the formula of the content of the formula of the content of t for encouraging the creation of combination to restrain trade and refusing to enforce the law, for a like consideration, they should be destroyed.

"For the lavish waste of public funds, for the fraudulent disposition of the people's domain, and for their contribution toward the division of the people into classes, they should be destroyed.

"For the efforts to seize for the executive department of the Federal Government powers rightfully belonging to the states, they should be destroyed.

"All destruction will be theirs this very year, if we but do our duty.

"What is our duty? To think alike as to men and measures? Impossible! Even for our great party. There is

MEDFORD, Or., June 25.—(Special.)

—The Socialist party at a mass convention Saturday nominated a complete ounty ticket as follows:

Representatives, R. G. Satchwell and

IS GROWING LESS

Northwest Delegates Not So Sure They Will Join Any Possible Stampede.

DEFEAT ACTS AS DAMPER

Washington and Idaho Men Hesitat About Going Over to Nebraskan in Face of Victory by Parker. All "Progressive."

BY HARRY J. BROWN. BALTIMORE, June 25.—(Special.)— Those Bryan followers from the Northwest attending this convention under instructions from Clark, but who last night loudly acclaimed their intention to swing to Bryan after the first ballot, have paused for reflection, follow-

VOTE BY WHICH ALTON B. PAR-KER DEFEATED WILLIAM J. BRYAN FOR TEMPORARY

j	CHAIRMAN.	***
ij	P	Par-
ø	Bryan.	150000000000000000000000000000000000000
9	Alabama 14	2214
þ	Arizona 4	18
Ø	Arkansas	18
ß	Colorado	6
g	Connecticut	12
ø	Connecticut
ø	Florida	11
b	Georgia	25
9	Idaho 8	58
þ	Indiana	21
9	Iowa 13	13
2	Kansas 20	****
R	Wantunky	1814
ß	Tonisiana	10
g	Maine	1414
Ġ	Maryland 1% Massachusetts 18 Michigan 9 Minnesota 24 Mississippi 14	150
Б	Michigan 9	21
ă	Minnesota 24
b	Mississippi	20
þ		22
þ	Montana	1
P	Nebraska	the same
Į	New Hampshire	3
į,	New Jersey 24	4
B	New Jersey 24 New Mexico 8	22
B		15
õ	North Carolina 9 North Dakota 10	1338
9	Ohio	29
þ	Oklahoma 20
g	Oregon	1
2	Pennaylvania 51	9
H	Rhode Island	10
B	South Carolina 18 South Dakota 10
ď	Tennessee	17
1	Texas 40
ß	Utah	4
ŭ	Vermont	14
þ	Verginia	Strates.
7	Washington	914
g	Wisconsin	7,25000
N	Wyoming	1000
ø	Alaska	4
g	District of Columbia
ľ	Hawaii	750
S	Philippines	2
g	Porto Rico	-
ß	Total 510	579
þ	California cast one vote for	Kern
Z	and Massachusetts three votes in Indiana.

ing Bryan's decisive defeat today for the temporary chairmanship. It is now demonstrated that Bryan in this convention is relatively only as strong as was Roosevelt at Chicago when the first test vote came, and here, as in Chicago, the candidate who is defying the National committee seems to have shown his full strength.

Instructed Clark delegates from Washington and Idaho, who last night were ready to disregard instructions after the first ballot and go over to Bryan, are talking along different lines tonight. They now propose, they say, to continue to support a "progressive" campaign in the convention, but to

to continue to support a "progressive" campaign in the convention, but to abide by their instructions when balloting begins on the nomination of the Presidential candidate, and, furthermore, they are frank to say they will continue to support Clark.

Those of them instructed for Clark will vote for the Speaker as long as there appears a chance of nominating him. Only in event his nomination seems impossible will they go to Bryan and they may be spared even that move if some other compromise looms up good and strong in case the Wilson and Clark forces become hopelessly poning its session until tomorrow morning.

The credentials committee organized and adjourned until 9:30 A. M. tomorrow. Contests from nine states and territories, involving the seats of 77 delegates will be heard. Joseph F. Bell, of Indiana, will be elected chairman, and Frank J. Donahue, of Massachusetts, secretary.

A motion to adopt the findings of the National Committee on all contests was ruled out of order by Chairman Bell. The full committee will consider each case, and all evidence bearing upon the contests will be admitted.

Early Decisions Expected.

Early Decisions Expected.

It is expected they will be completed and decisions reached before the convention meets at noon. A call of the states showed tonight the following contests:

Illinois-First to Tenth districts, Twentieth district, one delegate in Seventeenth district and eight delegates-at-large.

South Dakota—All ten state delegates.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 25.—(Special.)
—The town of White Salmon, in Kilckitat County, has assets of less than $3000 and liabilities of $10,355, leaving a surplus of liabilities of $7590, according to the report of the State Bureau of Inspection, filed today with Attorney-General W. V. Tanner. Street improvement assessments due amount to $511, while the case on hand totals $1252. The bonded indebtedness amounts to $3000, and warrants outstanding to $1356.34. There is a total of $1751 due from street improvement assessments, this amount not being calculated in the assets, for the reason that there is a question as to the collectibility of the amount, on account of certain promises which the Town Council made.

The report covers the period from the date of incorporation of the municipality, May, 1907, to June $, 1812, and shows that the records have not been kept as they should. The report finds no fault with the license and ordinance books, but all other books have been neglected. The discrepancies shown represent warrants illegally drawn, and amount to $107.05. Ciark strength in the convention.

Rryan May Not Be Heard Again.

Those who argue against the possibility that Mr. Bryan will be named assert that he had his say in the convention today and failed to stampede it. Mr. Bryar was frequently interrupted in his remarks and it was regarded as doubtful tonight whether he would get another hearing on any issue involving himself.

Mr. Bryan claimed the right to speak today on the ground that in three Presidential campaigns he had borne aloft the banner of Democracy as its Presidential nominee. Now that the fruits of victory were at hand, he said, he should not be denied an opportunity to rejoice with his party. The Democratic party, "a pillar of fire by night for the plain people," now that the dawn had come, he declared, should be made a "pillar of cloud by day." Mr. Bryan made another point which elicited unbounded enthusiasm from his hearers. He declared that the sinister influences which had been at work in the Republican National convention in Chicago were operating even more braxenly at Baltimore.

But, he added, the Democratic party could not be run by the Ryans or bought by the Beimonts.

Nebraskan's Streas is Piain.

unnumbered words, has sought to batter down our statutory and constitutional safeguards.

"He who runs may read the danger that threatens the country ruled by such a man.

"The way to prevent a life series of terms is to prevent the present attempt to capture the office for a third term.

W. R. Sparks, Jacksonville; Constable, George Dayton, Gold Hill; W. F. Dunn. Central Point; Joseph Applebaker, Jacksonville.

The meeting was well attended and to turn down the Wall street intermuch enthusiasm prevailed. This is the largest ticket the Socialist party has ever put in the field in Jackson present attempt to capture the office for a third term.

County,

Kern, taking the floor from the Nebraskan, dramatically called upon Parker to withdraw from the fight and in the interest of harmony to throw his support to any of a half dozen "progressives" named by the Bryan sympathiers. There was no immediate response to the open challenge in the convention and Mr. Kern then declared that as it was a fight to the death between the interests and the people. Mr. Bryan was the only person fitted to bear the brunt for the people. In behalf of Judge Parker, it was said later that, as he had not sought the office at the hands of the National committee and had taken no part in the fight he felt he had no right to withdraw. Nothing to Add, Says Commoner. POWERFUL STILL

Samuel G. Blythe Says, However. That Nebraskan Will

Mr. Bryan left the convention hall by a rear entrance soon after the vote on the temporary chairmanship was announced and resumed conferences in his rooms. Tonight he said:

"The vote in the convention shows the attitude of the convention and my speech shows my view on the subject. I have no statement to make. I swait developments without impatience. I do not know of anything that needs to be added."

The Nebraskan did not attend the Commoner Refuses to Recognize Any Iconoclastic Rights of Others and, With Fighting Clothes Donned, Paces Fray.

do not know of anything that needs to be added."

The Nebraskan did not attend the night session of the convention to hear Parker's speech, but remained in his rooms to attend correspondence and confer with his friends. Later, Mr. Bryan purposed joining in the deliberations of the platform committee.

Mr. Bryan was apparently in a cheerful humor notwithstanding his defeat. He carefully refrained from giving any suggestion as to his future course of action in the convention.

The first session of the convention which marked the defeat of Mr. Bryan was a noisy and disorderly one. It be-(Continued From First Page.) ation and their nervousness and their fright while the roll call was in prog-ress. They could have defeated him in a more decisive fashion, to be sure, but they did not think until the vote which marked the defeat of Mr. Bryan was a noisy and disorderly one. It began with every one apparently in the best of good humor, but soon after the opening prayer by Cardinai Gibbons the lines between Bryan and anti-Bryan forces tightened almost to the breaking point. showed Parker was elected by about 60 majority, a curious manifestation of political absence of mind.

The Clark men came out of the convention hall ciaiming the defeat of Bryan was also a sure indication that Wilson cannot be nominated by this convention. So did the Harmon men and the Underwood men and various other brands of men.

leries when he made his first appear-ance and began his speech of protest against Parker. He had not proceeded far, however, before interruptions be-gan to be hurled at him. This was a signal for further disorder. Senator Kern was treated even less cour-

The Clark men came out of the convention hall claiming the defeat of Bryan was also a sure indication that Wilson cannot be nominated by this convention. So did the Harmon men and the Underwood men and various other brands of men.

Hidden Strength Fostered.

They all claimed Wilson went down with Bryan, forgetting that Bryan has gone down many times before, but so gone down has always managed to come up again with a smile and a speech. Not that I intend to say Wilson can be nominated, but that it is reasonable to correct the certain Bryan is stronger than his opponents think him to be, and continues a most valuable asset for any candidate for the nomination.

So far as the nomination is continues a most valuable asset for any candidate for the nomination.

So far as the nomination is continues a most valuable asset for any candidate for the nomination is continues a most valuable asset for any candidate for the nomination is continues a most valuable asset for any candidate for the nomination is continued and the Bryan and the Bryan leaders. There are many elements to consider. Including the hope of the Wail Street contingent, captained by Thomas Fortune Ryan, that an eminently safe and sane candidate can be secured, with preference for Harmon or Underwood; the Murphy-Hearst combination and numerous other features of a situation that, while clearer, is not entirely clear. And in front and in the middle and behind every phase of the situation is Bryan, who is now fighting mad, and a fairly good fighter in his way.

Conservative Temper Absent.

The only safe prediction is that this give an indication of the fellings of situation of the situation is that this Thenceforward no man who faced the convention was safe from catcalls, hisses and noisemaking. The hubbub grew to such an extent that when Parker had heen elected and escorted to the platform to make his "keynote" speech the disorder was so great that a racess was taken until 8 o'clock tonight, when he resumed his discussion of party principles and his denunciation of the Chicago Republican convention as one of the most disgraceful exhibitions in the political history of the country. Mayor Gaynor, of New York, was also talked of late tonight as a pos-sible running mate for Champ Clark in the event of Clark's nomination. the event of Clark's nomination.

For the permanent chairmanship Senator Culberson, of Texas, and Senator Kern, of Indiana, were discussed, in addition to Mr. James, but opinion generally seemed to center on James. It was said the conservatives were ready to throw their support to any man the "progressives" might decide upon.

The only safe prediction is that this convention is not in a temper to name a conservative candidate. The conservative interests have held tenaciously to the idea of a conservative candidate for a long time, but they are afraid to work that end, for the work they must do and be surely detected, and there is a haven of refuge for radical Democrats in the third party movement.

BALTIMORE, June 25.—After being forced into a night session by a vote of the convention the various committees took matters in their own hands soon after meeting and decided not to continue through the night.

William Jennings Bryan, the probable selection for the chairmanship of the resolutions committee, was not present to assist in the organization and the platform makers adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The permanent organization committee adjourned until 10:30 A. M. tomorrow. There was no discussion of in the third party movement.

The men who are trying to lead this convention are in a situation that demands not only a good knowledge of the principles and practice of politics, but that requires a fair amount of conscience and patriotism and party loy-able selection for the chairmanship of the resolutions committee, was not present to assist in the organization and the platform makers adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The permanent organization committee adjourned until 10:30 A. M. tomorrow. There was no discussion of morrow. There was no discussion of the probable choice to' succeed Judge Parker in the chair, but it is well understood a "progressive" will be named.

Four Lead for Chairmanship.

The stage was well set for Mr. Bryan this morning. There never has been a prettier, lighter, airier, or more comfortable convention held than that provided by the people of Baltimore.

Senator Kern, of Indiana; Senator-elect James, of Kentucky; Senator-Culberson, of Texas, and Governor Burke, of North Dakota, are being considered.

filled at noon, when Chairman Mack went on the raised platform He waited half an hour before he introduced Cardinal Gibbons, who, in his scarlet robes, bad been sitting on the platform. Everybody stood while the Cardinal prayed.

Meantime Mack hand. All of the orators took warning at Mr. Bryan, pausing after an exceedingly complimentary reference to Sensitive What better man can what better man can be sensitive.

prayed.

Meantime, Mr. Bryan had been sitting on the platform, very white, very stern and, unusual for him, palpably nervous. As soon as Chairman Mack told the delegates he had been instructed by the National committee to put the name of Alton B. Parker for temporary chairman, Mr. Bryan stepped forward, nodded to Mack, and held up both hands. They cheered him sufficiently.

Not Be Nominated.

Bryan's speech was devoted to himself in the first part; to John W. Kern in the second part and to himself in the third part. It was not so good a speech as Bryan has made on many occasions, but it was suitable to what he had in mind to do.

he had in mind to do.

Senstor's Whiskers Waggie.

Senator Kern gave a fair imitation of a man utterly surprised when Bryan named him as the man best fitted to be temporary chairman. The Senator's celebrated paintbrush whiskers waggled violently and he was observed to arise and make his way to the platform, torn, as it were, by the conflicting emotions of love and duty, and keeping the corner of his eye turned toward Tom Taggart, also of Indiana, who stood near Chairman Mack.

Mr. Bryan gave Senator Kern a good recommendation, digressing now and then to call eloquent attention to the uplift movement now in progress in then to call eloquent attention to the uplift movement now in progress in Turkey, Persia and China. However, as there was few, almost no Chinese, Turk or Persian delegates in the convention, the reflections passed unnotticed. Mr. Bryan made it clear he was fighting for a principle and to save the Democratic party from itself—not himself—and concluded, amid applause, with a stirring appeal to all Democrats to get in behind him and select Kern.

didate for President and quit.

California for Packer.

Various speakers followed, including Theodore Bell, of California, who was the Bell that tolled the temporary chairman keynote at Denver, four years ago, with full permission and sanction of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bell is the Clark leader in California, and when he announced both he and California were for Parker, it was thought to give an indication of the feelings of the Clark supporters.

However, this thought did not hold good during the roll call, for under the able but non-partisan leadership of Senator Stone, of Missouri, the Clark forces managed to maintain a masterly position in the middle of the road on the question at issue; they straddled, to be exact.

The spectators were noisy and demonstrative, but the delegates seemed to have themselves well in hand. It was only further proof of the ancient truth that, while it is easy to stampede the galleries at a National convention, it is difficult to stampede the delegates. The opportunity to get up on a platform and talk to 14,000 or so people impressed itself on various spellblinders and they got up on the platform, entirely in the interest of the freedom of speech, by the way, and talked not to, but at the 14,000.

The 14,000 devised ways of its own to keep from hearing what was going ingly complimentary reference to Senator Kern, asked:

"What better man can be named?"
and was promptly answered by about 10,000 persons, who told him loudy and persistently that Parker was a better man to Mr. Bryan's evident annoyance.
Presently Mr. Bryan confided that he had tried to get Oille James and Senator O'Gorman to stand for him in the fight hefore he lighted on Senator Kern and that both James and O'Gorman had politely but firmly refused. Wherefore, inasmuch as Senator Kern seemed insensible to the high honor which Mr.
Bryan sought to confer on him, it became the bounden duty of the subscriber, William Jennings Bryan, to take over the job himself, and he declared himself the leader in the crisis, willing to lead until the crisis had crisised, and not committing himself as to his actions after that.

Antis Grow Frightened,

Antis Grow Frightened, anti-Bryan leaders grinned at this. They had Mr. Bryan where they begin the roll call in order that he might be shown his proper place, which in their estimation was an inconspicution of the parker in the lead. Presently Mr. Bryan began to come along, and he came along to such an extent that the anti-Bryan leaders, who had thought to do some lusty shattering of the idol, wondered if the thing would not work with the reverse English.

They pulled through and Parker was declared the choice, of the convention for temporary chairfman, while Mr. Bryan remained on the platform wearing a stern and rockbound expression and exuded a few laments as to the sad and ultimate fate of his pet Democracy. But they made Parker's selection unanimous, and the New Yorker came forward to speak. Not many persons evinced a strong desire to hear him keynote the situation and nearly everybody started to leave the hall. Thinking it useless to keynote to 14,000 people who were crowding toward the door and wondering how they would get home in the rain without spoiling their clothes, a recess was taken until $\frac{8}{2}\times \times \time clothes, a recess was taken until & o'clock, when Parker keynoted to the entire satisfaction of all concerned, it was said.

Elimination Process Worked, The night was one of seeking for with the two-thirds rule, there must be a good deal of elimination before a candidate can be selected. Numerous candidate can be selected. Numerous discordant elements must be brought into harmonious relations. The ticket must be balanced skilfully throughout to hold the entire Democratic vote.

The big factors, which, although not Democratic, are powerful in Democratic politics, must be consuited. The leaders have a hard job before them. Bryan is there, not eliminated—not one-quarter eliminated. He is powerful and determined. So are his opponents.

Defeat can as easily come out of this convention as victory. The Republican party has no monopoly on faternal dissention. The Democratic party is as radical in its canservative wing as the Republican party. Harmony is a servative in its conservative wing as the Republican party. Harmony is a fine theme, but it is a difficult attainment. At this writing Clark and Wilson are the leading candidates for the nomination. Neither has enough votes. Back of them are numerous dark horses. It is any man's convention as

SALARY PAYMENT IS LATE

Federal Fund for District Attorneys Is Exhausted.

United States District Attorney Mc-Court and United States Marshal Scott, with their deputies, have no assurance as to when they will receive their June salaries. The same is true of all other officials of this class in the employ of the United States Government. This is the information contained in a cir-the right man, not a man wanted by a faction, or by an interest, or by their own selfish personal considerations.

The stage was well set for Mr. Bryan this morning. There never has been a prettier, lighter, airler, or more comfortable convention held than that provided by the people of Baltimore.

The spectators were largely sympathelite. The acoustics were good. The dramatic was not lacking. There was plenty of enthusiasm. The scene was large audience, and the freedom of speech must be maintained at all hazards in a Democratic convention. Notling the fact that the men who decorated the lall had grabbed off George Washington as the original Democrat, the Democracy of that eminent citizen and of Thomas Jefferson was loudly extolled and explained to the case in the employ of the United States Government. This is, the information contained in a circular letter sent out by Attorney-General Wickersham, and received by Mr. McCourt early this week.

The reason the June salaries are held up is that the appropriations by Convention. The orators were speaking to a mass-meeting, as no organization had been perfected. Still it was a large audience, and the freedom of speech must be maintained at all hazards in a Democratic convention. Notling the fact that the men who decorated the light of the speakers, was historic. What more could a peerlief the United States Government. This is the information contained in a circular letter sent out by Attorney-General Wickersham, and received by Mr. McCourt early this week.

The reason the United States Government. This is the information contained in a circular letter sent out by Attorney in the cull with the transact no business except routine from June 29, inclusive, so the hall had grabbed off George Washington and the providing for this deficiency."

Breakfast Is Served

Good breakfasts start the day right; and it's the part of wisdom to select food for nourishment, that can be easily digested.

Grape-Nuts

with some fruit, a slice of crisp toast and a cup of Postum, contains ample nourishment-easily digested-to carry one, well fed, through the morning's work.

The exhilaration of bounding health is well worth the trial of such a breakfast.

"There's a Reason"

Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich .