Congress Without Quorum and Mails May Stop Unless Money Is Provided.

LEADERS PROMISE HELP

Unanimous Consent Will Be Essential to Relieve Present Embarrassment—Naval Bill Is on Senate Docket.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The deadlock in the Baltimore convention threatens to continue the embarrassment of the executive departments of the Government, due to the failure of Congress to pass the necessary bills for the new fiscal year, which begins tomorrow.

When the House and Senate meet at noon tomorrow, it is not likely that a unanimous consent is given for the passage of the Fitzgerald resolution continuing last year's appropriations during July, the Government will have to struggle along without funds until the Democrats nominate a candidate for President and permit the absentee statesmen to return to their seats in Washington.

Mails Might Be Held Up.
Heads of the executive departments have decided to continue operations tomorrow on the promise of leaders that the resolution will be passed, if it is not passed it is hard to predict what might happen. Certainly some of the machinery of Government will be paralyzed.

With conventions out of the way, Congress will begin a steady grind to transact the business which has been waiting in the Senate. From the Senate the naval bill will come shortly which the House has rejected. The conference on the judicial and executive bill will begin immediately.

The first business of importance in the House will be the impeachment proceedings against Judge Archbald of the Court of Commerce.

Maneuvers Not Provided For.
Chairman Hay, of the military affairs committee, has announced that tomorrow appropriations funds for the expenses of the joint maneuvers between the Regular Army and militia. An emergency appropriation for the maneuvers at Manassas, Va., being under orders to go to the encampment.

MEDFORD IS DRY TOWN

BREAK IN SUPPLY LINE PUTS EMBARGO ON USE OF WATER.

Repair Crew at Work and Hope Is That Damage Will Soon Be Fixed.

Soft Drink Shops Popular.

MEDFORD, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—"Water is as scarce as coffee today," says the wail of Medford today when a break in the supply line from Fish Lake compelled the cutting off of the city water supply, and the city had to be held in case of fire emergency.

Medford residents even had to go without their usual cup of coffee while the water was being pumped to the washing of faces and hands. For a while the soda fountain did a land office business and housewives went from church to the confectionary stores for money to buy a soft drink.

The first of the trouble, was at the Irvington Club. The club was closed for the night, and the water was cut off. The club was closed for the night, and the water was cut off.

This is the first serious trouble Medford has had since the 1906 water system since it was installed several years ago.

"Pennsylvania Dutch."
Philadelphia Public Ledger.

To most Americans the word "Dutch" means German. The "Dutch" are Hollanders from the Netherlands. New York was first settled by the Dutch from Holland. The first German came to this country in 1682 and settled at Germantown. It is estimated that in Pennsylvania and New Jersey there are 1,000,000 of these descendants of the Pennsylvania Germans or Dutch.

Their language is a mixture of English, meaning German. The early Germans were followers of Menno Simons, known as Mennonites. They were persecuted in their own country on account of their religious beliefs and when Penn offered religious liberty it was gladly accepted by them.

The persecuted Germans came largely from the Rhineland, Palatinate, Wurtemberg, from the lower Rhine, Alsace, Saxony and Switzerland. The southeastern counties of Pennsylvania, such as Lancaster, York, Berks and Lebanon, were chosen for settlement. These settlers spoke a variety of dialects and, owing to segregation in religious communities, they clung to their "mother tongue." Many English words have since crept in and as a result we have the somewhat picturesque language known as the "Pennsylvania Dutch." Their religious beliefs and their common interest have preserved this class with singular purity.

DAUGHTER OF PRESIDENT GRANT WHO WILL MAKE SECOND VENTURE INTO MATRIMONY.

MRS. NELLIE GRANT SARTORIS.

WEDDING DATE SET

Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris to Be Married Again.

FIRST VENTURE UNHAPPY

Bridegroom Is Frank H. Jones, First Assistant Postmaster-General Under Cleveland—Announcement Is Surprise.

NEW YORK, June 30.—(Special.)—Announcement of the approaching marriage of Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris has caused surprise among her New York friends. The bridegroom will be Frank H. Jones, First Assistant Postmaster-General during President Cleveland's second administration and now secretary of the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank. The wedding is set for July 4 at Mrs. Sartoris' country place at Coburg, Canada.

The first marriage of Mrs. Sartoris was one of the brilliant social events at the White House while her father was President. Captain Sartoris' family and friends took sides with Mrs. Sartoris in their estrangement and she brought the same seldom appearing in print. Up to the announcement within a day or two of the approaching marriage to Mr. Jones even her closest friends had received no intimation that there was another romance.

She was President Grant's only daughter. One of her brothers, Major General Frederick Dent Grant, died recently. Her two other brothers are Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., a lawyer of San Diego, Cal., and Jesse R. Grant, a lawyer and mining promoter of New York. The wedding, it is declared, will be an exceedingly quiet one. The prospective bridegroom is well-to-do.

EUROPEAN SPY SYSTEM

Big Sums Spent to Fry Into Military Affairs.

Pall Mall Gazette.
The dictum laid down by Mr. Justice Dowling that "the practice of spying with the intent of discovering secrets which another nation thinks essential to her safety" is a significant fact in the relations, say, between Britain and Germany. Whether the idea will carry any weight with diplomatists is another matter. It is a significant fact that one of the German papers, the Tagliche Rundschau, tells us that among the topics that formed the subject of discussion between Lord Haldane and the German statesmen when the British minister of war was in Berlin was an Anglo-German agreement to for-

WOMAN NEARLY DIES

For Week Chicago Painter Is Prisoner While Police and Family Hunt Him.

CRIES ARE HEARD AT LAST

Just Recovering From Illness, He Climbs to Attic to Watch as Hole in Roof Is Fixed and Falls Asleep; Is Forgotten.

CHICAGO, June 30.—(Special.)—While search for him was being conducted all over the city, Louis Haver, aged 34, a painter, for seven days lay sick and helpless, walled in the attic of his own home unable to summon assistance and facing starvation. Today he was rescued almost dead from hunger and thirst and raving in delirium. Physicians are doubtful of his recovery.

Haver had just arisen from a long illness on the day he disappeared. Roofers were mending a hole in the roof and Haver climbed to the attic to watch them. He was exhausted by the effort and sank into sleep on a bundle of carpet in a dark corner. The roofers completed their work and descended through the attic trap door, fastening it from below. Then they closed the stairway door leading to the attic from the upper story, and departed.

Meanwhile the family had missed Haver, but thought he had gone for a walk. When he did not return, the police were appealed to and a search for him began. It was feared he had wandered to the lake or fallen into the water. He had been found in a state of extreme weakness. At all times he lay, half-conscious and feverish in the attic. Today in rational moments he told how he had been taken up by the floor and tried to tear a hole through the roof on the first day. The family was absent searching for him and no one heard him.

Today members of the family heard shrieks in the attic and found him.

BAKER PLANS BIG TIME

HOLIDAY CELEBRATION WILL LAST UNTIL FRIDAY.

Governor West Will Make Principal Address and Novelties Are on the Programme.

BAKER, June 30.—(Special.)—With Governor West, Adjutant General Fin- gler, of the Oregon National Guard and several thousand visitors, Baker will have a two-day's Fourth of July celebration such as has never been known in Eastern Oregon. Hundreds of visitors are coming from as far as La Grande and Boise.

The people are enthusiastic over the prospect of the unique ideas that will surprise even those who have seen the best held here before. The city is now being decorated and it is predicted that there will be scarcely a house that will not display a flag, merchants reporting sales of Old Glory will mount into the thousands.

The plan is to compile all the ideas of the old-fashioned Fourth of July celebrations with entertainments that have not been seen in any other city. Everything is free, so that a visitor need secure only meals and sleeping quarters.

The celebration opens at 9 o'clock the morning of July 4 with a concert by the Baker Concert, Baker Juvenile and Union bands, and will be followed by a parade, immediately after which the "Horribles" division in which the features of circus and other parades are burlesqued. The Chinese and Japanese will have floats, which cost several hundred dollars each, and there will be a Chinese band. Governor West will make the address of the day. Immediately after will be the parade of the Pioneer and Baker "Trail Breakers" parade, showing the original idea of street cleaning. The coming of the white man will be a feature of the Pioneer parade.

In the evening a free vaudeville and moving picture show on Main street will be given.

NOBILITY ARE CONVICTED

"COUNTESS CLARE" SENTENCED TO YEAR IN PRISON.

Count Zoltynski Must Serve Two-Year Term for Defrauding American Heiress.

PARIS, June 30.—The Correctional Court has sentenced "Countess Clare" to one year's imprisonment and to pay a fine of $200, and Count Ladislaus Zoltynski to two years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $400 for obtaining money under false pretenses from Miss Wilhelmina Kemper, in connection with a scheme to arrange a marriage between Prince "Victor" of Thurn and Taxis and the American heiress. The case came up on appeal.

In the previous trial in April, 1910, the court acquitted the defendants on the ground that the "Countess Clare" was not responsible for the loan of $97,000, which Miss Kemper is alleged to have made to the count, and that the count borrowed in good faith to help the prince to find a wife.

The defendants are now ordered to return this money to Miss Kemper.

BEAR SKATES AT OAKS

Young Women Vain to Get Bruin as Partner.

For what her trainer, Dr. B. D. Boyd, said was the first time on record, Lady Livingston, the trained bear that is one of this week's features of the new bill at the Oaks, absolutely refused to skate alone yesterday.

As soon as a young woman consented to make the circle of the great floor, however, the bear overcame its bashfulness and the brute's giant paw rested on the girl's hand as lightly as a feather. Although the floor was cleared long as a young woman would be a partner, the bear later skated with the crowd and there was no expert on the floor who had a more thorough control of the roller skates than the great bear.

Several young women took turns circling with the bear and, apparently, enjoyed the experience. During the evening Lady Livingston skated alone considerably.

With King Pharaoh, the educated horse, eulogized by Ella Wheeler Wilcox as the most famous animal in the world, Lady Livingston shared headlines with the bear at the platform all to himself in front of the Oaks grandstand, and from this position was assailed by the audience with questions. So long as they could be answered with words, letters or numbers, King Pharaoh fulfilled every requirement. He passed five minutes hunting alone among the audience for the "prattiest young woman," and finally was satisfied when he found one of a particularly rosy complexion. The lightest man, the smallest child and other persons were identified by the horse, while identification of colors was perfect.

At both performances the Neapolitans attracted a considerable crowd, the Venetian and Italian songs and troubadour music being greeted with applause. The Oaks park band, under Director Philip Felt, proved uniformly well received.

Despite the unsatisfactory nature of the day, there were fully 15,000 persons at the park in the afternoon and the evening audience was approximately twice as large. The bill will be repeated every day this week.

CANNERY CHOOSES SITE

FOREST GROVE ENTERPRISE NOW IS ASSURED.

Co-operative Association Expects to Have Plant in Operation Before End of Fall.

FOREST GROVE, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—The Forest Grove Fruit Growers' Association, which was organized a month ago for the purpose of establishing a co-operative fruit and vegetable cannery and other enterprises, has determined upon a site, and work on the cannery building will begin at once. It is expected that the building will be completed and machinery installed by early fall.

The site is located mid-way between the Oregon Electric line and the new Southern Pacific Electric, a block lying south of First avenue South and west of "A" street. It has a frontage of 150 feet on "B" street.

The association consists of 100 farmers near Forest Grove, who hold all the capital stock. The directors recently elected are: B. Orman, J. F. Forbes, H. Correll, H. C. Atwell, R. Alexander, E. A. Seater, Allan Dilley, J. E. Lewton and Austin Buxton. H. C. Atwell, ex-president of the State Horticultural Society, and president of the Commercial Club of this city, was elected president. A. E. Hart secretary and Robert Alexander treasurer.

It is the plan of the association to put out large acreages of berries. Already, as a result of the project, many acres of fruit have been set out this Spring. The association will endeavor to the credit of the cannery to plant loganberries, evergreen blackberries and red raspberries, as these berries find a ready market.

The Forest Grove Fruit Growers Association have made a careful investigation of the methods employed at the Eugene and Salem Co-operative Canneries, which are said to be successful.

WINGFIELD ACTS COVILY

POLITICIANS WORRIED AS TO NEVADA'S ACCEPTANCE.

Fear Expressed That Appointment May Be Rejected to Enter Race Against Newlands.

RENO, Nev., June 30.—(Special.)—Although the appointment as United States Senator was handed him on a silver platter by Governor Odde on June 12, George Wingfield has not accepted nor rejected the appointment, and says that he has not made up his mind, all of which is worrying the politicians of Nevada, who believe Wingfield will decline the appointment in order to enter the campaign two years hence in opposition to Senator Newlands.

Wingfield is a Republican, while Newlands is a Democrat. It is feared that, with the appointment of a Republican at this time, the people of Nevada under the preferential primary would ratify the Governor's choice and Wingfield would be the strongest Republican in the state to be pitted against Senator Newlands.

Wingfield's decision will probably be announced this week, possibly Tuesday.

RANCHERS WILL PROTECT RIGHTS.

HUSUM, Wash., June 29.—(Special.)—To keep any corporation from monopolizing the available water power sites along the White Salmon River for some distance below here, ranchers owning land adjacent to the stream will form a company and proceed to protect their rights. William Olson and others will file on power sites and do development work. A prominent engineer asserts that a dam and power plant can be installed at this point at a cost of only one-third as much as that being now built by the Northwestern Electric Company four miles below here.

All That Is Earthly Is Subject to Pain

—King Solomon.

The victims of Rheumatism all tell the same story; they have sore, inflamed muscles and stiff, aching joints; they have no ambition or strength, and get nervous and irritable, which is not to be wondered at. We realize how much they suffer.

"Nurito," a prescription free from Opium and Narcotics, and free from all aches and pains, and limber up those sore and inflamed muscles, or your money will be refunded.

We realize that there are worthless and dangerous remedies which are sold as cure-alls by the help of manufactured testimonials, whose object is to extract gold. "Nurito's" purpose is to give relief, and it is compounded exclusively as a specific remedy for those who suffer from Rheumatism, Sciatica or Neuritis.

VANCOUVER 'DRYS' WORK

WOMEN DEPENDED ON TO BRING VICTORY IN FALL.

Campaign Starts by Visit of State Superintendent of Anti-Saloon League and Union Meeting.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—With women voting, which gives hope of success to the leaders in the temperance movement, a campaign to vote Vancouver dry at a special election November 5 was launched here today by C. D. Conger, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, of Seattle. In four of the churches this morning the theme treated was temperance.

In the new Presbyterian Church tonight at 8 o'clock, a union meeting of the congregations of six churches was held, and Mr. Conger spoke on the temperance movement and said that this Fall about 125 units will vote on the question of saloons or no saloons. About 700 were present.

The ministers present were: Rev. H. S. Templeton, pastor of the Presbyterian Church; Rev. J. M. Cause, of First Methodist; Rev. R. G. Summerlin, United Brethren; Rev. Floyd A. Ross, Christian, and Rev. C. R. Zoole, First Baptist, N. E. Allen.

LURLINE WINS YACHT RACE

San Pedro Craft First at Honolulu in Trans-Pacific Contest.

HONOLULU, June 30.—The yacht Lurline, of San Pedro, arrived here today, leading its three rivals in the biennial trans-Pacific yacht race, from San Pedro to this port. The yacht sailed from San Pedro on June 16, in the following order:

Seafarer, Captain Norris, of San Francisco; Lowell, Captain Stroud, of Honolulu; Lurline, Captain Harris, of San Pedro; and the Matcoosh, Captain Able, of Victoria, B. C. The Seafarer was first away from San Pedro.

Because of the time allowances it is not possible as yet to determine the winner. The Lurline was given a time allowance of 7 minutes 49 seconds, the Hawaii 8 hours 23 minutes 45 seconds and the Matcoosh 10 hours 28 minutes 44 seconds. The Seafarer was a "scratch" or standard boat.

Ireland's linen industry employs 70,000.
