Social Evil Discussed.—At a well-attended meeting in the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium yesterday afternoon, various aspects of the social evil were discussed by Dr. J. Norman Pease, C. E. S. Wood and R. C. French. J. Allen Gilbert acted as chairman. Dr. Pease said that the ignorance and misinformation which prevailed with regard to this subject resulted in mental and physical suffering. Mr. Wood dwelt upon the economic phase of the question, declaring that the evil could not be eliminated until industrial conditions were changed so that workers received more than a bare living. Mr. French made a plea for better standards of living.

Ministers Against Fights Gypsy Smith Tabernacle.

PROMOTERS ARE SCORED

Resolutions Condemning Proposa to Use Auditorium for Boxing Matches Adopted by Dif-

to be a boxing and wrestling exhibition.
The ministers declare that they are just as much opposed to this sort of exhibition as to a prizefight, asserting that the term boxing match is only another name for prizefighting.

Johnson Gives Version. "My idea of the proposition," said Mr. Johnson last night, "was that it was to be an exhibition such as are held monthly at the Multnoman Club and such as are promoted at the Y. M. C. A. at times. It was merely wrestling and boxing. There was no provision made for a prizefight, and if that is the plan of the promoters the auditorium cannot be used under any circumstances.

"I have a letter from the manager of the exhibitions stating that no effort will be made to hold anything but a series of clean exhibitions, and I can see no objection to clean sport. I have closed no deal with the managers other than promising them the use of the building if their plans were carried out as they were represented." The ministers declare that they op-

The ministers declare that they oppose the holding of boxing exhibitions as much as prizefights. Dr. W. B. Hinson, pastor of the White Temple, said last night that he and the members of his church oppose the holding of any kin dof athletic affairs at the building.

ELKS ARE UNANIMOUS IN THEIR CHOICE OF MAN WHO IS TO BE THEIR NEXT GRAND EXALTED RULER.

THOMAS B. MILLS.

Unanimity of opinion prevails among Elks on the question of electing the man who is to preside over their organization during the ensuing lodge year.

Thomas B. Mills, of Superior, Wis., is the choice of everybody. He will be elected on Tuesday by acclamation. C. R. Fridley, past exalted ruler of Superior lodge, will make the nominating speech. Everybody on the floor will second it. Then Fred C. Robinson, the grand secretary, will cast the ballot of the entire grand lodge for "a Superior man from a Superior city." man from a Superior city."

In half a dozen of the leading churches the ministers announced the fact that the committee controlling the building had rented it for the boxing bout, and they denounced the action as decidedly improper.

Plans Are Opposed.

In the White Team of the leading believe that we should oppose the so-called boxing exhibition not only at the Gipsy Smith Autditorium but anywhere else in the city as well.

President Allen, of the Ministerial Association said he considers the proposed affair to be nothing less than a prizefight.
