Pleas of guilty yesterday were re-ceived by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh from Dan B. Brundridge, Gail B. Mer-ritt and Guy A. Vaughn, the three youths who on the morning of Sun-day, June 30, attempted to hold up an automobile on the Fowell Valley road, shooting Lenora Stanley, a member of the automobile party.

the automobile party. Merritt and Vaughn were sentenced to one year each in the County Jail. Some uncertainty exists as to Brund-ridge's age, his attorney, W. H. Fowler, asserting that he is not yet 18, and sentence in his case was postponed till sentence in his case was postponed till Friday. William Titus, indicted on a charge of stealing a sewing machine from Helen McNamara, pleaded guilty. He was given two years and a parole. Pleas of not guilty were entered by Edward A. White, charged with shooting Wil-liam Malloy, and A. F. Walton, alias Williams, against whom there is an in-derment charging the execution of a

Murry, a pleasant-faced man of stork-like build, who does a lot of posturings in a lavender suit of the period of 1840, with a lot of funny patter and several bright songs. He is very entertain-ing. Irene and Bobble Smith, two at-tractive young women, give a series of amusing songs, pantomimes and planologues, helped out by several handsome gowns. Herbert Brooks gives a series of new card tricks that completely baffled the handsome gowns. Herbert Brooks gives a series of new card tricks that completely baffled the audience. Picking cards asked for out of his clothes was the one that inter-ested most. Afterward he gave the familiar trunk mystery that never fails to get the interest of any audi-ence. Allan Dinehart and Anna Her-itage are seen in a laughable playlet called "The Two Rubies," which deals with a jealous wife and some unac-counted-for gloves and cigarette case. The innocent husband turns the tables on the wife. The difficulty is straight-ened out satisfactorily and the curtain goes down on a tranquil household. The Krags Trio of European sym-nasts give a series of startling feats.

The New Food Drink

Instant Postum

-a beverage with a flavour much like those mellow Javas which years ago came from the Dutch Plantations of the Southern Seas.

This new drink is said by many who have become acquainted with its delicate Java taste to be superior to much of the Brazil coffee marketed nowadays. But Instant Postum possesses additional merits.

It is made in the cup-requires no boiling, and is absolutely free from the coffee-drug, "caffeine."

Tins containing sufficient quantity for about 100 cups of Instant Postum are sold at 50 cts., by grocers. Smaller tins at 30 cts., make about 50 cups.

Coffee Averages About Double That Cost

If your grocer does not have Instant Postum, send his name and address and a 2-cent stamp to cover postage, and we will mail you'a 5-cup sample tin.
