

R. AND T. R. ONLY
S CHOICE OF CLUB

Portland Progressives Override Efforts to Eliminate Colonel's Name.

MEETING ATTENDED BY 65

Name of Organization Is National Progressive Club of Oregon.
"Bandana" Is Dropped—Mulkey Is for Roosevelt.

"Roosevelt for President and nobody but Roosevelt" was the prevailing sentiment among a gathering of 65 progressives in the East Side Branch Library Monday night. Efforts to eliminate Roosevelt's name as the choice for standard-bearer of the proposed new party in Oregon were trampled underfoot.

At the outset of the meeting, which was an adjourned session of a week before, the name of the tentative organization was changed, on motion of David Gross, from the "National Bandana Club of Oregon" to that of the "National Progressive Club of Oregon." L. M. Lepper, temporary secretary, wanted the word "Republican" included in the official designation of the club, but this suggestion was turned down after H. P. Gallimore had registered objections, based on the assertion that the use of the political term "would weaken the organization, especially in the South," from which, he said, he had come.

Report Is Submitted.
George W. Joseph, State Senator, as chairman, submitted the report of the committee on constitution and by-laws.
After declaring that the "Republican" had been defrauded of the nomination at Chicago, the committee's report, in presenting reasons for the formation of the proposed club, insisted that the "President should be made a candidate for President in the coming election.

Membership in the proposed organization was made available to any person qualified to vote and the bandana was declared to be the official emblem of the club.

Harry Yanckwich demanded—at the constitution and by-laws should include an endorsement of the "Oregon system" and the official call issued by Senator Dixon, Roosevelt's manager, for a National convention August 5 at Chicago, when the proposed new party should be formed. This suggestion was opposed by Levi W. Myers.

Arthur F. Brown, after asserting his unflinching loyalty to Roosevelt, urged that it was a grave mistake to propose and insist on the candidacy of Roosevelt to the utter disregard of all other progressives. He said it was apparent that the evident purpose of the gathering was to promote the candidacy of Roosevelt to the exclusion of any consideration of any other progressive. He objected to the meeting pledging its support, through the organization of a club, to any one man for the Presidency, because of the handicap and embarrassment that action might produce for the progressive movement.

Joseph Makes Objection.
H. E. Vernon wanted the recommendation as to Roosevelt's candidacy removed and an endorsement of the "Oregon system" incorporated in the committee's report. This was objected to by Senator Joseph who maintained that the purpose of the club was to promote the candidacy of Roosevelt, whom he regarded as the only man who could win.

Over the continued protests of Mr.
Brown and Mr. Yanckwich the motion to eliminate the name of Roosevelt as the specific and accepted candidate of the new party for President was declined. By the same unani-mity of expression the incorporation of Dixon's call for a National convention, in which the name of Roosevelt was omitted, was rejected. Only to be made a part of the constitution and by-laws on motion of Mr. Yanckwich just before the meeting adjourned. Over the protest of Mr. Hickey, who charged "steam-roller methods," the report of the committee was adopted with only a few scattering negative votes.

Mulkey for Roosevelt.
Permanent organization of the club was deferred until next Monday night, when, under the constitution and by-laws, an executive committee of five members will also be elected. At the same time a subcommittee of five members, to be appointed by temporary Chairman Kellaher, will submit a report on the advisability of proposing by petition five Roosevelt candidates for Presidential electors.

Frederick W. Mulkey, who conducted Roosevelt's campaign in this state last Spring, aroused considerable enthusiasm when he announced his unwavering loyalty to Roosevelt, although he admitted that if any other progressive should demonstrate greater strength he would be willing to transfer his support.

Mr. Mulkey argued that the proposed new party must be a "party of principle based upon a platform entirely opposed to the perfectly equivocal, colorless and wabbling platform of the Republican party and the very dangerous platform enunciated by the Democrats."

Sixty-five voters attended last night's meeting, as compared with 100 at the meeting a week before, when 66 signed as charter members of the proposed Roosevelt club.

ELK GIRL LOSES PURSE

Miss McFadden, of El Centro, Cal., Drops $84 in Throng.

Miss, Dicie McFadden, a member of the Elk party from El Centro, Cal., lost her purse containing $84 last night while in the street in one of the theaters. Miss McFadden has appealed to the police to aid in finding the property as it contained the supply of money she had brought to the convention.

The purse contains two $20 gold pieces, four $10 pieces and four $1 pieces. Miss McFadden is at the Ford family hotel, Lucania and Washington and is offering a reward for the return of the purse and money. Detectives Ackerman is endeavoring to locate the finder.

STOLEN FLAGS RETURNED

Chinese Colony, Robbed on Eve of Celebration, Are Joyous Again.

BAKER, Or., July 9.—(Special).— Baker's Chinese had a supplementary celebration today when their flags, which were stolen Friday night, were returned by mail.
The Chinese took part in Baker's Fourth of July celebration Thursday and Friday and spent several hundred dollars in celebrating the American Independence day, taking part in the parade, bringing a Chinese band 150 miles from Hanoi and giving a complete fireworks display on the night of the Fourth and in honor of the birth of the Chinese Republic. They purchased immense American and Chinese republic flags, which they hung on a tall flagpole.

During the carnival Friday night revelers stole the flags. The next day a local paper told of the sadness at the ingratitude of the Americans after the Chinese had done so much in their efforts in the first time they joined in the celebration. This morning the flags came back. The bundle was so large the senders could not put them into the postoffice chutes, so the revelers had to reveal their identity to the postal clerks in mailing them, but the clerks refuse to divulge the names.
The Chinese are happy, but cannot get the flags on the pole, for the revelers took the rope and it cannot be replaced until some one climbs the pole.

FIELDS' BOY IS KIDNAPED

Mother Is Prostrated by Disappearance of Her Son.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 9.—(Special).—Believing that her 15-year-old son, Howard Ormiston, has been kidnaped by a woman, Mrs. R. E. Fields, of Parkplace, today asked Sheriff Mass to make a search for the boy. Mrs.
Fields, who was divorced from Elmer Ormiston about two years ago, told the Sheriff that her son last Friday left his home in a wagon with a strange woman, ostensibly for Estacada.
The mother declared that the boy had met the woman in Oregon City, and she asked him to go with her to a city in the eastern part of the county, adding she did not know the way. She promised to pay him liberally. They went to the boy's home, and he obtained the consent of his mother to make the trip, promising to return the following day. Nothing has been seen of him since by anyone in Parkplace or this city.
T. B. Long, Mrs. Fields' father, and John Long, her grandfather, are of the opinion that the boy has been kidnaped. They were here all the afternoon conferring with the officials.
"Howard is a bright boy and I am certain he has been kidnaped," declared John Fields. "He said he would return Saturday, and I know he would have done so had he not been kidnaped. The woman came here to lure the boy from his mother. The woman said her name was Bishop." Mrs. Fields is prostrated over the loss of her child. The boy has blue eyes, brown hair and weighs about 115 pounds. Mrs. Fields thinks the woman who lured him away was about 21 years of age. Sheriff Mass wired the Marshal of Estacada regarding the mysterious disappearance of the lad and a search for him is being made there.

VISITING ELK DROPS DEAD

John Watson, of Lakeview, Falls Victim to Heart Failure.

John Watson, a prominent stock breeder in Southern Oregon, for many years receiver of the Lakeview Elks, dropped dead on Maryland avenue Monday afternoon.
He and his wife were inspecting some property which they owned. Mrs.
Watson had gone indoors to talk to the tenant and Mr. Watson was joking with the children outside when he suddenly collapsed. Death was due to heart failure. Mr. Watson had come to Portland for the convention.
Mr. Watson, who was 70 years old, was a veteran of the Civil War and was one of the most prominent men in Southern Oregon. One of his brothers who resides in Vancouver, B. C., has been informed of his demise, and friends are waiting to hear of his instructions as to the funeral arrangements. Mrs. Watson is being cared for by Mrs. A. Y. Beach, 419 Going street.

proving of the third term candidate.

vote, taken among American passengers of the North-German Lloyd steamship George Washington, was announced today when the vessel arrived.

Easy to Get Relief
From Indigestion

Your stomach should digest the food you eat, without the aid of any artificial digestives. If it won't do that, then you are continually subject to dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, headaches and constipation.

Instead of taking digestive medicines, take steps to get your stomach and intestines again in a healthy, natural condition. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge will do this for you if you will take it regularly. It is not a digester of foods, but it will restore your stomach and intestines so that they will attend to their natural functions, digesting what you eat and giving strength to the body.

For more than eighty years thousands of men and women who had suffered the pains caused by dyspepsia and indigestion have been praising this Tonic as the only remedy which brought them permanent relief. As the Tonic acts directly upon the stomach and intestines, it is a natural appetizer and strength builder.
Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites, for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed. Insist upon Jayne's; accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadel-

MORE EARTHQUAKES FELT

Wireless Can't Reach Bristol Bay.
Another Eruption Feared.

CORDOVA, Alaska, July 9.—The earthquake shocks of Saturday night and Sunday were felt all over Alaska.
It is feared Mount Katmai is again in eruption. Wireless connection with Kodiak Island is broken.
The United States Navy wireless station has been unable to communicate with Karluk, Bristol Bay and other westward stations since the earthquake.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, July 9.—Following shocks, mostly mild, at intervals of one to two hours, since yesterday, a quake was felt this noon equal in violence to the first shock reported.
It was, however, much shorter in duration and did no damage. Towns throughout the interior report earthquake shocks yesterday simultaneously with those in Fairbanks.

farm a few days ago they made a peculiar discovery. After digging 12 feet they suddenly broke into an old tunnel, which is four feet wide and 12 feet high and has the appearance of having been made a great many years ago.
