Million Thinks Republicans Will Lose Governorship in Washington. E. C. Million, one of the five Democratic aspirants for Governor of Washington, is representing Bellingham Lodge No. 194 at the convention, but his present home is in Seattle, where he is practicing law. In speaking of his candidacy he said: "I was born a Democrat and my platform is that of the state and National Democratic conventions, which means

Woolsey Regains Memory

Operation at Vancouver Also Restores Power of Speech. VANCOUVER, Wash., July 11.—(Special.)—Paul A. Woolsey, who was injured by a pony bolting into the crowd July 4 and who has been in a semi-conscious state since, has regained his memory and power of speech through an operation. Two splinters of bone were found pressing into the brain and when these were removed Woolsey almost immediately regained his memory and speech and recognized his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Woolsey, of California, who have been here several days. There is now hope that Woolsey will live.

Centralia Will Help Feed Soldiers.

CENTRALIA, Wash., July 11.—(Special.)—A part of the supplies for the big military maneuvers which will be held in this vicinity July 20 to 29, will be purchased in Centralia. The farmers of this locality have been asked to submit bids on 13 tons of potatoes for the encampment.
