Yesterday's Results. At Portland—Portland 6, San Francisco 1.

By BOSCOE FAWCETT. Koestner pitched brilliant ball for the Portland Coasters yesterday, and as the Beavers simultaneously were beating a tattoo of "Cack" Henley's spirals, San Francisco lost the second game in three. The score was 6 to 1, and the holiday crowd numbered slightly over 8000. Paid male admissions were 4067.

Henley was touched up for 11 healthy swags, the greatest slaughter centering in the sixth inning, when Fisher took one on his ribs and incited Butler, Rapps and Deane to a fusillade of hits, sending three scores across.

Portland's initial tally was donated on an error by Corhan in the third inning, Rodgers and Krueger following with singles that sent Lindsay over the register.

Hard Hitting Means More Runs. Healthy slugging added a duet in the eighth inning. Fisher opened with his second hit, and was advanced to third on Butler's double down the first base line.

MULTNOMAH FIVE WINS

TRIPLE B PLAYERS LOSE BY SCORE OF 26 TO 31. Contest Is Close Throughout, but Visitors' Part in Parade Tends to Tire Them.

The Triple B basketball team of Billings, Mont., the acknowledged champion of the United States, suffered its first defeat in two years last night when the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club scored a 26-21 victory over the Elk visitors.

The humbling of the champions may be charged to the Elks' convention jollification as well as to the prowess of the Winged "M" squad, for four hours of marching yesterday and many hours of celebrating the reunion preceding that, did not tend to prime the Montanans for the grueling struggle in the Multnomah Club gymnasium.

The Multnomah five went into the game with small hopes of victory, but made a bold start, showing that they were as good as the Triple B squad, and after a few minutes the Portland team took the lead.

Todd of Billings, had been making long shots at the basket from the start of the game, and landed one from the middle of the floor, gaining the lead near the end of the half. This lead was maintained, and when a first half ended the Triple B men were 15-12.

Matters went faster in the second half with Allen and Morris in place of Keck and Pugh in the Multnomah line. The visitors managed to even the score once more, but the new strength added to Multnomah put the game beyond the reach of the Montanans.

The teamwork and form the Montanans displayed in floor work and marksmanship at the baskets, Captain Markham, of the visitors, ascribes the lack of more tallies to the stiff baskets and boards in the Multnomah gymnasium.
