Advertisements intended for the City News in Brief columns in Sunday's issue must be handed in The Oregonian business office by 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

NURSERYMEN IN SESSION.—The first meeting of the Oregon & Washington Association of Nurserymen was held in room 309 at the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday. A. W. McDonald, of Toppenish, Wash., presided. A constitution and bylaws were adopted, and organization perfected. W. K. Newell, president of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture, spoke. At the meeting today he will speak again on proposed changes in the Oregon horticultural law. The association will endeavor to have as large a delegation as possible present next June at the convention of the American Association of Nurserymen and the Pacific Coast Association. All visiting nurserymen are invited to attend the meetings of the association today.

MILWAUKIE DOUBLE TRACKS LAID.—The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company is completing its double tracks on Milwaukie street between Holgate and Bybee avenue in advance of the paving of the street. Work is now being finished up on the second track. The company started work on double tracks on this street under an agreement with the Mayor made some time ago, and will not be stopped because of the recent disagreement over the franchise. The paving company has graded a portion of the street. It is expected to have the work completed to Sellwood early this Fall.

MRS. ELIZORA MCCONAUGHY DIES.—Mrs. Elizora McConaughy died yesterday at the home of L. D. Hunter, her son-in-law, 270 East Twenty-eighth street, where she had been living for the past two months, death being caused by heart weakness. She was a widow of the late Judge William McConaughy, a California pioneer. She was 66 years of age, and is survived by a son, Henry McConaughy, and a daughter, Mrs. A. B. Wheeldon, of Portland. Arrangements for the funeral are being made and will be held Saturday or Sunday.

CLACKAMAS CLUB TO PROMOTE ROAD.—Sunnyside Clackamas Improvement Club will hold a meeting tomorrow night to take steps to join with the other improvement clubs of the southeastern district which have been organized to work for electric railway connection with Portland. Committees will be appointed to collect photographs of the garden and field scenes of the country at and near Sunnyside, Clackamas County, and also to gather tonnage statistics.

COLLEGE TO BUILD POWER-HOUSE.—Plans have been completed for a reinforced concrete powerhouse for the Reed College, to be erected on the college grounds at Eastmoreland. It will cost about $15,000, and will furnish light and power for all the college buildings, and also will be a training school for students. Architects Doyle, Patterson & Beach prepared plans for this building.

RABBI TO CONDUCT SERVICE.—Rabbi Jonah B. Wise will conduct the services at Beth Israel tonight. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, will sing the service. Service opens at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock the service will be conducted by Rabbi Wise and Dom Zan and Mrs. Delphine Marks will sing.

PREVENTION OF ACCIDENTS by safeguarding machinery and other industrial hazards will be the subject of an illustrated lecture at Eilers Hall, Friday evening, July 12, at 8 P. M., by David Van Schaack, of Hartford, Conn. Those interested are invited to be present. Admission free.

JEWISH SERVICES THIS EVENING.—Services will be held at Congregation Ahavai Sholom, Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8 o'clock; Charles W. Robinson will address the congregation. Tomorrow morning services will be at 9:30 o'clock. Rabbi R. Abrahamson will officiate.

SWISS CABINET OFFICER DIES.—The death of Bundesrath Deucher, the oldest member of the Swiss Federal Cabinet, was announced in a telegram received yesterday by A. C. Bigger, the Swiss Consul in Portland. He died at Bern, Switzerland. No other details were given.

RIVER EXCURSIONS TO OREGON CITY.—Boat from Taylor-street dock weekdays, 8 A. M., 2 P. M.; Sundays, 9 A. M., 12 M., 3 P. M. Round trip, 40 cents. Tickets exchanged with Portland Railway, Light & Power Company cars. *

CALIFORNIAN PRAISES CITY.—Colonel Theo Gier, president of the Alameda County general exposition committee and in charge of its exhibit at the Portland Hotel, tells of an experience he had here in the Summer of 1890 that eventually brought him riches. "When I came here for the first time in 1890," he said, "I was a comparatively poor man, but was so impressed with what the city must become I bought some land at prices that now would appear very cheap. In 1895 I returned again and saw the growth of the city beginning and saw my property more than doubled its original value. It was not until 1900 that I disposed of my holdings. With this money I obtained 3000 acres of the finest grape land in the Livermore Valley and I thank Portland for it. The same property has more than doubled since I sold it."

BUSINESS MAN OBJECTS TO COMPETITION.—That the City Council should not grant a franchise to the Northwestern Electric Company or any other competing concern to enter the electric light and power field in Portland, is the belief of G. F. Johnson, a Portland business man. He bases his opinion on the belief that state regulation of rates, which will be in effect within three months, as he states, will be sufficient guarantee to the public that its rights in this particular will be amply protected. In this situation, he says, he sees no reason why additional capital should be invested in this business in Portland.

SIX PRISONERS ARRIVE.—With a string of six prisoners Deputy United States Marshal Beatty arrived from Klamath Falls yesterday, all having been arrested on charges of violations of the Federal statutes. The list includes Tom Barclay, selling liquor to an Indian; Hiram Moore, attacking an Indian woman; Frank Rodiderquez, Philip Lewis, Ed Gibson and Ed Blaxill, selling liquor to Indians. All of these are being held, without bail, to await the action of the next Federal grand jury.

CORDIALLY offered to Elks and others, is the service of the organization of Chapin-Herlow Mortgage & Trust Company, third floor, Chamber of Commerce. The realty experts in this great house have practical knowledge of Portland's values and the probable trend of successful investments. Ask for free copy of "Upbuilding Portland's Empire," full of meat. Not necessary to deal with this company—they are content to upbuild their city—Portland.

LASSOING COWBOY SOUGHT.—E. L. Anderson, of 757 East Forty-second street, is looking for one of the cowboys in the parade who lassoed his daughter, Miss Emma Anderson, of 757 East Forty-second street. Mr. Anderson says his daughter was thrown to the ground and dragged and severely bruised. The shock was so great that he called a physician to attend her last night.

ELKS AND THEIR FRIENDS should not miss the trip down the Columbia to the Breakers Hotel and the ocean; elegant steamers, fine scenery; modern hotel right on ocean's edge, rates no higher than Portland hotels. The most beautiful beach in the Northwest. Write Breakers Hotel, Breakers, Wash. or phone East 10 or B 2211, or consult O.-W. R. & N. Co. *

MRS. POTTER TO LECTURE.—"When Women Go Out to Work" will be the subject of the lecture to be given by Mrs. Francis Squire Potter, of New York, tonight at 8 o'clock, at the Taylor-Street Methodist Episcopal Church. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Women's Club campaign committee, and is public.

WALLACE THANKS POLICE

Father of Murdered Man Grateful for Arrest of Alleged Slayer.

J. W. Wallace, of father of Ray Wallace, who was killed in a lodging-house at Alder street and Lownsdale avenue, June 19, has written a letter thanking Captain Baty and the members of the detective department for their work in procuring the arrests of Hazel Erwin and Willard R. Tanner, accused of the crime.

"I wish to express my gratitude to Captain Baty and his staff of city detectives for the earnest and untiring energy—working long hours, and bringing justice to the murderers of Raymond W. Wallace," says Mr. Wallace in the letter.

The case has been in the hands of Detectives VanOvern, Hill, Vaughn and Litnerland.

EMERY GROWING BETTER

Stage Manager Who Was Shot Shows Improvement.

An improvement was noted yesterday in the condition of Herman P. Emery, stage manager of the Pantages Theater, who was shot by O. W. Pence, a maniac, Tuesday night at the stage entrance. He was resting somewhat easier than the previous day and from this fact his attending physicians are led to believe he will recover.

Pence is still held in jail. No formal charge has been filed against him yet, pending an examination as to his sanity. There is little doubt that he will be declared insane and sent to the asylum, although charges will be filed against him following the examination should that not be the outcome.

HILL LINE IS BLAMED

SUBURBAN RESIDENTS COMPLAIN OF SERVICE.

500 Residents Along Line of Oregon Electric Disappointed by Lack of Transportation.

Five hundred suburbanites along the Oregon Electric lines between Portland and Garden Home waited half the morning for transportation to the city yesterday. Then they held indignation meetings on their respective station platforms and walked back home or walked to the city.

Insufficient preparation for a crowd was made by the railroad company, say the complainants. The Forest Grove train arriving here at 10 o'clock was over half an hour late and then came through in one section, though two sections are provided every Saturday. This train, long before it reached Garden Home was packed to suffocation and flitted by the waiting crowds without a stop. A few minutes later the Albany flyer, only comfortably loaded, sped past, but refused to stop.

Long before 10 o'clock, when hundreds of persons had despaired of reaching Portland in time to see the parade and had gone back to their homes, a two-car train was brought in.

Complaints to the Railroad Commission are talked of in consequence of the incident.

MUSICAL LECTURES DATED

Emilie Frances Bauer Will Be Heard at Hotel Multnomah.

Emilie Frances Bauer, well known in musical circles as critic of the New York Evening Mail and correspondent of the Musical Leader and The Oregonian, will give three morning lectures at the Hotel Multnomah July 16, 19 and 23.

Of her lecture, "The Psychology of Richard Strauss and His Works," which she will give the morning of July 16, Philip Hale, of the Boston Herald, said: "She first inquired into materialism and realism in art and spoke of the spirituality shown by Strauss in his earlier works. She then dwelt on the influence exerted over him by Nietzsche. Miss Bauer dwelt at length on 'Electra,' drama and music and gave a very interesting account of her interview with Mme. Mazarim. Miss Bauer's lecture was well arranged, well written and read in an effective manner."

Since her last visit to Portland Miss Bauer has been much in demand in the lecture field and her many friends here are glad of this opportunity to hear her.

Idahoan Tells of State.

Secretary D. T. A. Mackintosh, of the Idaho State Elks' organization, keeps open house for the delegation at the Portland Hotel. He says he is the original and only first boomer for his state. To visitors he says: "Idaho raises the highest-priced wheat in the world and that means the best; our mountains are bulging with gold and silver ore; we have the biggest white pine belt of timber in the world and it can be bought at $1 a thousand stumpage; the products of our orchards are sought for in the markets of the world; we want people to develop these opportunities; we have all the money we want and more, but a little addition to the population is desirable." He has much more of the same kind of information, which he can prove.
