Prohibitionists Also Name Aaron S. Watkins, Veteran of Battle of 1908.

NEW NAME IS PROTESTED

Massachusetts Man Promises to Give More Money for Campaign Under Different Title, but He Is Shouted Down.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 12.—The National Prohibition convention concluded its labors here tonight with the nomination of the party standard bearer of four years ago—Eugene W. Chafin, of Arizona, for President, and Aaron S. Watkins, of Ohio, for Vice-President. In each case the nomination was made by acclamation after a single ballot had indicated the preference of the delegates.

Four candidates for President were placed in nomination against Mr. Chafin. They were F. W. Emerson, of California; Finley C. Hendricksen, of Maryland; Aaron S. Watkins, of Ohio, and Andrew J. Houston, of Texas. Each in turn withdrew his name after the first ballot.

The leading candidates against Mr. Watkins for Vice-President were Mr. Emerson, of California, and George E. Stockwell, of New York. Mr. Chafin, addressing the convention, promised not to stand for a third nomination because of a rush adjournment, the plan to change the name of the party was not taken up for general discussion. A. J. Orem, of Massachusetts, in a brief speech, promised to pledge more money to the campaign fund should the name be changed.

"I believe we could make the campaign doubly effective if we should adopt a new name," said Mr. Orem. "We would be greatly aided in carrying our banner to success if we should adopt the name 'Progressive'." There were shouts of protest to this as well as to the name "conservative party," suggested by Rev. S. H. Taft, of California.

courthouse show that bounties have been paid on 461 coyotes and 68 wildcats in the 12 months that ended July 1, 1912. The killing off of these destructive animals goes steadily on week by week and the number undoubtedly is decreasing. But there are still plenty of them in the hills north of the towns along the railroad. The bounty on each wildcat killed is $2. On coyotes the amount paid has fluctuated. The county always pays $1.50 a scalp, but during part of this Spring each coyote was worth $3 to the hunter.

REBELS LEAVE JUAREZ

Eugene W. Chafin, Nominated President by Prohibitionists.

JUAREZ, Mex., July 12.—The departure today of the rebel troops except a small garrison of 200 men was regarded as proof of the rebel intention not to attempt to fight at Juarez. The government forces, however, cannot repair the Mexican Central Railroad in less than two months and no activity close to the American border is looked for any sooner.

With the exception of about 800 men scattered along the Mexican Central Railroad there are few troops in the path of the Federals. The bulk of the rebel army is stretched tonight southwest from here along the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, preparatory to invading the State of Sonora.

PHELPS MARRIED AT SEA

Henrietta Sails Out of Tillamook Bay for Cupid's Benefit.

Wishing to give George Phelps, who was marrying Mrs. S. Harding, and incidentally taking his fourth bride, an adventuresome setting for his latest leap into the sea of matrimony, Blain Chatterton, chief engineer of the Henrietta, took the boat outside the three-mile limit of Tillamook Bay to where the knot tied, Chatterton, who has master's papers, is in command during the absence in Portland attending the reunion of Emmet Jenkins, captain and owner of the Henrietta.

So far it is believed Captain Jenkins knows nothing about the fact that his boat was used as an assistant to Cupid. However, it is likely he will thoroughly approve, as Mr. Phelps is an old-time friend. After the ceremony had been performed on the "deep blue sea" Tuesday a noonday breakfast was partaken of consisting of deep sea fish, crabs, clams and other sea food.

DENVER WANTS REDUCTION

DENVER, July 12.—A reduction of from 10 to 40 per cent in class and commodity rates affecting more than 300 articles is asked on shipments from territory east of the Mississippi River via New Orleans, Galveston, Memphis, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago to Denver and Salt Lake City in a case filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission by the Denver Chamber of Commerce.

WOODRUFF CALLS ON T. R.

Pittsburg Visitor Wants to Bet Taft Will Run Fourth.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 12.—Timothy L. Woodruff, of New York, and A. P. Moore, of Pittsburg, called on Colonel Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill today. Mr. Woodruff talked over the work of organizing the new party in Manhattan and Mr. Moore discussed the situation generally. Mr. Moore as he was departing said that he would bet $500 that Taft would run fourth, that is, behind the Socialist ticket.

War on Rats Goes On in Cuban and Porto Rican Ports.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The bubonic plague situation in Porto Rico and Cuba is reported today as improved. A patient at Havana suspected to have been afflicted died last night. From San Juan, Porto Rico, it was announced there were no new cases yesterday. The war on plague-carrying rats is going on through the islands and at all American ports where vessels trading with the West Indies touch.

Alleged Slayer of Soap Maker Recovers His Poise.

SALEM, Mass., July 12.—William A. Dorr, of Stockton, Cal., charged with the murder of George E. Marsh, a soap manufacturer of Lynn, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in the Superior Court here today. No date for the trial was set. Dorr appeared to have recovered from the physical collapse he suffered at the time of his arrest.

LORIMER DEBATE MAY BE PROLONGED

Senator Hotly Defies Kern To "Make Good" and Retort Is Expected.

ACCUSED MAN IS BITTER

Cases of "Four Confessors" Reviewed in Argument in Own Defense—"Destroy Lorimer" Is Slogan, He Declares.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Senate failed again today to vote on the Lea resolution to declare vacant the seat of William Lorimer, of Illinois. Consideration for Senator Lorimer, who held the floor for five hours, speaking in his own defense, induced the Senate to take a recess at 4:10 o'clock until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

An attempt will be made to reach a vote tomorrow, but a bitter attack on Senator Kern, which characterized Mr. Lorimer's speech today, and possible injection of arguments by Senator La Follette or others, may prolong the debate into next week. Mr. Lorimer charged Senator Kern with misstating the facts, with "slandering and smearing over the record," and with making charges against Lorimer for which there was no ground of fact or evidence.

Kern Challenged to "Make Good."

Mr. Lorimer issued a direct challenge to Senator Kern to "point to anything in his private financial, commercial or political life," where Mr. Lorimer had been guilty of wrongdoing. He pledged himself to resign, "relieve the Senate of the embarrassment of a vote," walk from the Senate chamber, never to return, if Senator Kern "made good."

The Indiana Senator was absent from the chamber during the Lorimer attack, as were Senators Lea and Kenyon, against whom Mr. Lorimer had also been denigrating during his speech. When Senator Kern returned to the chamber the impression spread that he would answer Senator Lorimer before the final vote is taken.

Four Confessors Reviewed.

The evidence upon which Lorimer's expulsion from the Senate is demanded was taken up in detail by the accused Senator. He reviewed the case of the "four confessors," as he termed them, upon whose alleged confessions that they had received money at Springfield, Ill., much of the case against him had been built. Charles A. White, he said, was an acknowledged perjurer, while he declared that Beckemeyer, Lik and Holstlaw, the other three, had never confessed being paid anything for voting for Lorimer.

Mr. Lorimer said that the proceeding against Beckemeyer in Cook County has not been intended to disclose corruption in the Illinois Legislature, but to destroy Lorimer. He said Beckemeyer never said anything about "Lorimer money" until subjected to the "third degree," a process also inflicted upon Holstlaw.

Boycott Friends Defeated.

The Illinois senator took exception to Senator Kern's reference to his associates, among whom were "Hinky Dink" Kenna, "Manny" Abrams and John Broderick.

Two of these men, he said, had been referred to by the Indiana senator as "saloonkeepers" but that reference had been stricken out of the printed record, whether because the senator had been "chasing a ghost" at Baltimore and was afraid to meet the saloon men, he could not say.

The reference to Kenna afforded Mr. Lorimer another opportunity to defend his friend of boyhood days. "None," he said, "have lifted up more of the fallen or helped more people on to a better life than Michael O. Kenna."

Funk's Statement Contradicted.

He declared it had been shown conclusively that Hines was in Washington and not in Chicago at the time the conversation with Funk was alleged to have taken place.

Funk's statement that the International Harvester Company never made campaign contributions was contradicted.

"I state it to you on my honor as a man and a senator," Lorimer said, "that if you ever have another investigation I will bring witnesses to prove that I met two Illinois men, one a Democrat, and the other a Republican, the latter of whom told me he had received several contributions from Funk and the former that Funk had given him $5000 for a Democratic campaign. In view of these facts, I would take Mr. Hines' testimony in preference to that of Mr. Funk."

Mr. Lorimer confessed to friendly relations with Mr. Hines, but said that he seldom saw him.

coastwise traffic, which is reserved for American vessels, would be benefited by this exemption; but that it appears to his Britannic Majesty's government that it would be impossible to frame regulations which would prevent the exemption from resulting in a preference to American shipping and consequently in an infraction of the treaty.

The State Department has taken the attitude that the protest of the British government against free American shipping is not properly a matter for diplomatic treatment at this time. The note outlining the British objections on its way from London undoubtedly will be transmitted immediately to the Senate and the State Department probably will make no reply except a formal acknowledgment of the receipt of the communication.

Flood of Oratory Promised.

Chairman Adamson, of the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, asserted tonight that the matter of free tolls to American ships and of discrimination against railroad-owned ships passing through the canal should have been eliminated from the pending bill.

"If there should be any delay in the legislation to open the canal the fault cannot be laid at our door," he said. "We urged that in this matchless enterprise the Government be allowed to demonstrate the results of its work by opening the canal unhampered by the demands of special interests. If the representatives of those interests had consented we would have omitted those provisions both as to railroads and exemption of American ships from tolls and authorized the President to open the canal."

Chairman Adamson contended that the question of free American ships and the railroad-owned vessels problem should have been dealt with separately but by direct legislation.

The Senate leaders behind the Panama bill were firm in their opinion that the measure would be taken up as soon as reached in the regular order of business in the Senate. The British protest, however, undoubtedly will open the flood gates of oratory both for and against the bill and will prolong its consideration.

LIFE BELT DRIFTS FAR

WRECK RELIC WASHED FROM JAPAN TO SCOTLAND.

First Authentic Record of Object Floating Through Northwest Passage Furnished.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—(Special.)—Reporting on the marble counter of the branch hydrographic office in the Merchants' Exchange building is a life-preserver from the wrecked steamer Stanley Dollar, which in six years drifted approximately 12,000 miles, from Japan to Scotland, and which offers the first authentic record of anything having drifted through the Northwest Passage.

The life belt is one of a pair returned to Captain Robert Dollar, head of the Dollar Steamship Company, in September, 1905, the steamship Stanley Dollar went ashore in Yokohama Bay, Japan, and was wrecked. Two of her life belts, washed away from the vessel, were picked up on September 30, 1911, exactly six years after the disaster, on one of the Shetland Islands, north of Scotland, from the wreck of the Stanley Dollar the belts apparently drifted into the frozen north, where they probably were held fast in the ice. When the warm Japan current found its way through the ice floes the preservers were released and made their way through the Bering Straits and the Northwest Passage, through Baffin's Bay to the North Atlantic, and thence up the Gulf Stream to the Shetland Islands.

MILITIA AID IS FAVORED

House Committee Reports Bill for Co-operation With Guard.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Pepper bill to bring the National Guard into closer touch with the Regular Army was favorably reported today by the House military affairs committee.

Under the bill, the Federal Government would disburse about $8,000,000 a year to the 10,000 commissioned officers and 12,000 enlisted men of the National Guard.

The Secretary of War and the militia boards of the state would be authorized to work out a plan of co-operation.

LOAN SHARKS ARE BEATEN

New York Law Sustained by Courts and Lenders Agree to Quit.

NEW YORK, July 12.—After many years of agitation the efforts to put the "loan shark" money lenders out of business apparently have been crowned with success.

A law passed by the last Legislature has been sustained by the courts and the money lenders have agreed to close out all their loans at the legal rate of interest and shut up shop.
