

LA FOLLETTE MEN TO MEET WILSON

Backers of Wisconsin Senator May Espouse Democratic Cause.

OFFER OF AID PROBABLE

Nominee Prepares Message to Send Before National Committee Monday—Clark Is Expected at Luncheon Today.

SEAGIRT, N. J., July 12.—Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, who contributed heavily to Senator La Follette's campaign fund, and Charles Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin, Senator La Follette's ardent supporter prior to the Chicago convention, will take luncheon tomorrow with Governor Woodrow Wilson, a short time before the expected arrival of Speaker Champ Clark.

Close friends of the Governor said today that Mr. Crane had transferred his preference from the Wisconsin Senator to Governor Wilson and would be willing to do all he could to bring about the success of the Democratic ticket.

As one of the original contributors and the donor of the largest sum to the La Follette campaign, Mr. Crane helped make possible the Senator's fight for the Republican nomination. His indicated espousal of Governor Wilson's cause is hailed as an index to the sentiment among the La Follette followers.

Clark May Be Present, Too. Van Hise has been for years a warm supporter of Senator La Follette. It is not unlikely that Crane and Van Hise will meet Speaker Clark here tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Clark, the Governor said, might discuss legislation now before the House—he did not know. If Mr. Clark brought the topic up of his own initiative it would be discussed, he said.

Governor Wilson conferred late into the afternoon with Robert S. Hudspeith, William F. McCombs, Josephus Daniels, North Carolina's National Committeeman, and E. E. Grosscup, Democratic state chairman of New Jersey, on the message which he will send Monday to the National committee in Chicago. When the conference ended Governor Wilson said there had not been time to consider all the points and that the message might be modified at a meeting tomorrow.

McCombs Probable Choice. One of the National committeemen who enjoys the Governor's close friendship was of the opinion tonight that Governor Wilson would recommend Mr. McCombs as National chairman and advise against the division of authority in directing the campaign between the National committee and a campaign committee. Even at this late hour, he said, the Governor had not made a positive choice for treasurer of the committee or for chairman of the finance committee.

The tentative plan to have the party's National headquarters in Chicago may be changed if a suggestion made by Mr. McCombs this afternoon is followed.

"I think New York would be a good place for the headquarters," he said. "Of course we should want to have an office at Chicago and another in the West."

NURSERYMEN WILL GROW

Oregon and Washington Growers Want 500 Members in 1913.

"Five hundred members before June 1, 1913," is the slogan that was adopted yesterday by the delegates to the convention of the Nurserymen's Association of Oregon, which is being held here today. The association is desirous before the annual convention of the American Association of Nurserymen, which is being held at Seattle, when over 500 Eastern delegates are expected to attend. As membership in the various state associations west of the Rocky Mountains is included in the Pacific Coast Association, it is believed that the enrollment of nurserymen on the Coast will exceed 500.

The new officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, C. F. Brethaupt, Richland, Wash.; vice-president for Oregon, H. A. Lewis, of Montaville; vice-president for Washington, A. W. McDonald, Tappanish, Wash.; secretary-treasurer, C. A. Tonneson, Tacoma. Members of the executive committee are S. A. Miller, of Milton, Or.; G. W. R. Peaslee, Clarkston, Wash.; and John A. McGhee, Orenco, Or.

W. K. Newell, president of the State Board of Horticulture, gave a short address, in which he pointed out the important changes proposed in the horticultural statute. The legislative committee of the association was instructed to meet with committees of the State Board of Horticulture and the Oregon State Horticultural Society in the drafting of the new bill.

SPIRITUALISTS IN SESSION

Fortieth Annual Camp Meeting Held at New Era Grounds.

The fortieth annual camp-meeting of the Spiritualists of Oregon is now in session at New Era, 20 miles south of Portland. The meeting began July 6 and will continue until August 3. The principal speakers are A. Scott Bledsoe, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. M. A. Congdon, president of the association; Mrs. Ladd Finnison and Althea V. Bailey, expounder of the cult.

An auditorium is used for meetings when the weather will not permit the holding of meetings on the out-of-door platform. This platform is also used twice a week for dances. A playground with chair swings, see-saw and sand pile for the children has been provided.

The five acres of land on which the camp is located were donated to the Spiritualists 40 years ago by Mr. Parrott. A frame hotel and restaurant have been erected, and are operated during the gathering.

DAIRY IDEA TAKES HOLD

Klamath County Shows Rapid Development, Says E. T. Judd.

That Klamath County is destined to become one of the leading dairy sections of Oregon, was the opinion expressed yesterday by E. T. Judd, chief deputy of the State Dairy and Food Commissioner's office, who returned a few days ago from Klamath Falls where, in company with Professors Hishop and Potter, of the Oregon Agricultural College, he addressed meetings

JILTED WOMAN SHOTS

Italian Is Wounded by Divorcee He Refused to Marry.

Angered because of his refusal to marry, Susie A. Owens, a divorced woman, yesterday morning shot Celestino, a young Italian living at 249 Second street. The bullet from a .25 caliber revolver passed through Celestino's stomach. She then rushed over to the county jail, surrendered herself and was locked up.

The woman presented a sorry appearance when she arrived at the Courthouse. Her face was torn and bleeding and one of her ears appeared to have been nearly ripped off. She received her injuries, she declared, from the hands and feet of Peter Celestino, father, and Joseph Celestino, brother, of the man she shot. She said that they set upon and beat and kicked her terribly immediately after the shot was fired and while their kinsman was lying prostrate and groaning on the porch of the Celestino home at the address given.

Miss Owens was Mrs. Susie A. Snyder until June 20 last, when she secured by a divorce from H. E. Snyder. She told Matron Cameron, of the County Jail, that Celestino had betrayed her. They were to have been married yesterday, she said, but asserted that when she went to his home to meet him and have the ceremony performed he spoke unpleasantly of her and declared that under no circumstances would he marry her.

Celestino was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital where an operation was performed. He may not recover. He has been working as a bootblack for his father.

DELEGATES TAKING TIME

Democrats Who Attended Convention Visit Friends in East.

Oregon's delegates to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore apparently are in no haste about returning to their homes. They are in the city, although it is nearly two weeks since the convention concluded its work. They are visiting with friends in Eastern cities.

W. R. King, of this city, who was elected National committeeman, will not return to Portland until after the meeting of the National Committee, which is scheduled for July 15, at Chicago. Frederick Holman, the only other member of the delegation elected from Portland, is detained by legal business in New York City and is not expected home for another week.

These Patent Gas Burners are made of polished steel and heavily enameled, and are almost indestructible. They are constructed in such a manner as to absorb a large quantity of air with the gas before it reaches the point of combustion. Twenty-one per cent of air being oxygen, this oxygen is consumed with the gas and instead of gas, thus giving you a more intense heat at a saving of your gas. The meters show that by this new principle adopted in the "New Method" you will
