ET ROSCOE FAWCETT. Weird, fearsome and wonderful was the brand of baseball seen at Recrea-tion Park Sunday afternoon. Baseball as it should and should not be played was on the boards, but, after running through several octaves varying in in-terest from a croquet match at the Altenheim to an Elks' initiation, San Francisco finally won the last game of the series 5 to 4

Arabisco inally won the last game of the series, 5 to 4. McCredie evidently had, it doped out that Miller was to capture his second engagement of the woek. That's about the only reason that can be assigned for his choice of young Dave Gregg, when two veterans were chafing at the bit, dead anxious to lead the team of a victor. the bit, dead anxious to lead the team to victory. Anyway Gregg didn't last very long. There was a time when the name Gregg, should by an um-pire, was enough to beat any team. But that was in the haleyon prime of David's big brother.

Gregg Suddenly Explodes.

Gregg seemed to be winning handily for two innings, when he suddenly ex-ploded. He walked three men and was ploded. He waked three men and was left in to suffer two safe swats that tallied three men, or enough to give the Seals the game. Had he been jerked a little earlier in the crisis we might have made it five in six games this week, for Koestner, who releved him, held the visitors to four scattered hits in over six innings. Miller permitted eight hits, but he pulled through several dangeroffs sit-uations by effective box work. No bet ter instance of this is furnished than by a review of the ninth inning, when the Beavers were almost on the verge of tieing up the score. Miller began by walking Fitzgerald, a pinch hitter, and then after retiring two men. Rod gers jammed a double into deep right center. enter

Krueger Fails in Pinch.

Krueger Fails in Pinch. Speck Harkness, who was coaching, rightfully heid Lindsay at third base because it took two runs to tie, but tagring on to the third station. Most rule books say only one man is al-lowed on one base, so there was noth-ing for Lindsay to do but to dash for home, where he finally landed in safety by virue of an erratic throw by Cor-han. That put Captain Rodgers on third, but Krueger closed the chapter of excitement by fouling out to Barry. The affray was all the harder to lose because Portiand started off with a lead of two runs secured in the first and second innings. Terrific clouting by Doane, Rodgers and Bill Lindsay, who secured three this in the matine, fur-nished the ecstatic environment in the Chehalis fans will regret keenly if the State league is stopped now. The league has been playing faster ball this season, and many critics assert that the State league has played as good, if not better, ball than the Northwest league. The locals have had a chance to sell at least four of the Chehalis team, but have been averse to doing so, because of the fine article of ball be-ing put up. It is understood that Ho-guiam will stick; Chehalis is sure to do so, and if Everett will accept the Aberdeen franchise and Centralia will return, there is every indication that the balance of the season will see fast ball for Class D.
