

CALIFORNIA HEIRESS' WEDDING ELABORATE

Miss Jennie Crocker Is Bride of M. D. Whitman With 300 Guests Present.

POLICE GUARD PRESENTS

Couple Flee in Auto to Private Car After Ceremony--Place of Passing Honeymoon Is Secret Even to Friends.

SAN MATEO, Cal., July 16.—Miss Jennie Crocker, wealthiest of California's heiresses, was married at high noon today at Malcom Douglas Whitman, of Brookline, Mass., in St. Matthew's Church, a quaint stone edifice at San Mateo. The ceremony was performed in the presence of 300 guests, many of whom had come from the East and from Europe, by Bishop William Ford Nichols, assisted by local clergymen. The bride was given into the keeping of her husband by her brother, Charles Templeton Crocker.

Bridal Party Large.—The bridal party included Mrs. Walter Martin, matron of honor; Miss Mary Alexander, Miss Janetta Alexander, of New York; Miss Julia Langhorne and Miss Marjorie Josselyn, Harold Fitzgerald, of New York, acted as best man. The ushers were Frank L. Crocker, C. M. Sheafe, Jr., D. F. Webster, all of New York, and Oscar Cooper, of San Francisco.

The wedding breakfast was served in a specially-conducted pavilion on the lawn of the Crocker estate. The history of the famous garden spot was augmented by the distribution of thousands of trees and shrubs with an elaborate display of rare flowers and orchids. The bride's party was seated at a horse-shoe shaped table from which the guest tables radiated. A band of 16 pieces alternated with an orchestra in furnishing music, the musicians being concealed in groves of ornamental trees.

Fifty Detectives Present.—Fifty detectives circled around the guests in order to protect the magnificent pieces of jewelry among the wedding presents while others, disguised as waiters and gardeners, kept watch for attempts by robbers from the outside.

Chief of Police White, of San Francisco, personally supervised the handling of the crowds outside the church and the Crocker home. Entrance was by invitation only and not even guests were permitted to bring their automobiles within 100 yards of either place. Although it is known that Mr. and Mrs. Whitman will spend the first few days of their honeymoon hunting in Shasta County, they let no one into their secret as to where they would enter their private life, which had been taken to some obscure siding on the Southern Pacific. After the breakfast they dashed away in a motor car and were lost to pursuit. They will sail for Honolulu in a week or 10 days.

DARROW DEFENSE LOSES CONTENTION

Transcript of Testimony of Labor Leader, Tveitmo, Not Forthcoming.

FRANKLIN AGAIN DISPUTED

Testimony Given That State's Chief Witness Said Burns Was Seeking to Discredit Labor Through Gompers.

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—Anticipating the early appearance of Chief A. Tveitmo, the San Francisco labor leader, as a witness in the Darrow bribery trial, the defense made a determined but futile attempt today to secure a copy of Tveitmo's testimony before the grand jury here last February. It was the only break in a day otherwise given over to hearing witnesses attack the veracity of Bert H. Franklin, the confessed corruptor of jurors in the McNamara case. The action of the defense brought out the first public knowledge that Tveitmo had appeared before the county grand jury, subsequent to the indictment of Mr. Darrow, to explain the cashing of the $10,000 check alleged by the prosecution to have constituted the McNamara defense corruption fund.

Defense Loses Its Point.—The prosecution resisted the motion by raising the point that Tveitmo's appearance before the grand jury had no connection with the indictment of Darrow. District Attorney Fredericks contended that the prosecution would be injured should the defense be fortified with the transcript of Tveitmo's testimony and that if the labor leader had told the truth, he would not be embarrassed if he told it again on the stand.

Judge Hutton ruled that the defense was entitled to a copy of any testimony given by Tveitmo prior to January 28, the date of Darrow's indictment. Tveitmo did not testify before the grand jury until February 16. Franklin's Statements Disputed.—Two witnesses testified today that Bert Franklin had said in their presence that the ultimate object of the prosecution was to "get" Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. They were F. L. Stineman, a hotel proprietor of Venice, a beach resort, and G. C. Watt, formerly City Clerk of Venice.

Both witnesses testified that Franklin had volunteered the information that William J. Burns, the detective, was trying to break up organized labor by "luring" Gompers and that the prosecution of Darrow was actuated by a desire to injure a man who had been a bitter enemy of the unions.

Franklin had emphatically said, according to Stineman and Watt, that Darrow had not given him the money to bribe Juror Lockwood, but that it was given by a man from San Francisco, whose name he did not know. Watt was on the stand when the trial was ended for the day.
