

NEW HEMISPHERE KNOWS 'SIR HARRY'

Paroled Swindler Who Eloped With Oakland Nurse Located in Natal.

AFRICAN BANK IS LOSER

Warrant Awaits Gentleman Rogue on Return to California—Girl He Deserted Is With Relative in East.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—(Special.)—"Sir" Harry Westwood Cooper, alias Ernest Moore Chadwick, known to the police of America and Europe as the cleverest gentleman rogue of the day, who has been sought for more than any other since he left Oakland as Dr. Milton Abrahams, with Miss Anna Milbraith, of that city, is known to be in Durban, Natal, South Africa. Detectives are close on his trail and it is expected that the notorious swindler will be arrested soon.

Word that Cooper's whereabouts were known came today to Captain of Inspectors Petersen, of the Oakland Police Department. Together with this information are advices to the effect that Cooper has used his criminal genius to good advantage in South Africa and has fleeced the Durbin bank of $1900. Cooper deposited bogus bank certificates in the South African banks, according to Captain Petersen's information, using the new alias of Norman E. McCay.

Bank Advances Cash. Then he succeeded in inducing the bank officials to advance him money on these deposits. He left Durbin two days ago, but he is believed to be nearby. A warrant charging felony awaits "Sir" Harry in Oakland. To carry on his California swindle, Cooper opened offices in Oakland, calling himself Dr. Abrahams and representing himself as a nerve specialist. It was while he was keeping this pose that he met and wooed Miss Milbraith, a pretty nurse in the East Bay Sanatorium. He promised to make her his wife and so impressed his prospective father-in-law with his sincerity that the elder Milbraith advanced him $2500.

Nurse Deserted in East. "Dr. Abrahams" then disappeared with his fiancée and soon after his departure his real identity came to light. Several times since police in various parts of the world have believed that they were on the trail, only to find that they were working on false clues. Miss Milbraith's whereabouts were a mystery until a few months ago, when she was found living at the home of a relative in the East. She had been deserted by the man who had promised to give her his name and fortune. Cooper is said to have another wife living in the Middle West and it is probable that he will be prosecuted for bigamy when he is apprehended. He is also on parole from San Quentin penitentiary, where he was serving a term for a swindle similar to the one which he perpetrated on Milbraith.

BRITAIN MAY BE IGNORED

(Continued from First Page.) Time of war and that the United States would be forbidden by the Hay-Pauncefote treaty from taking immediate measures to block or use the canal for its own protection.

Senator O'Gorman asserted that railroad influence was behind the British protest. "I don't think British shipping is greatly interested," he said. "I believe the railroads of Canada and the railroads of the United States have been enabled to secure the co-operation of the British Office of Foreign Affairs to embarrass this Government in the attempt to be now making secure legislation to keep railroad-controlled ships out of the Panama Canal."

Burden is on United States. "The only government that has assumed any special burden under the treaty is the United States. England and other countries have assumed no burdens beyond the payment of the tolls and the agreement as to its neutrality."

"There is nothing to prevent England from remitting to its merchant ships every dollar of tolls paid to the Panama Canal. There is nothing to prevent similar action by other countries. The only power that is straggled, restricted and curtailed in the performance of its duties to its own citizenship is the one that has spent $400,000,000 in the construction of this great enterprise."

He said Spain already had legislated "to reimburse Spanish ships for the tolls spent in going through our canal." Senator Lodge raised the question whether the United States would have a right to interfere if another country should undertake to pay the tolls of its ships when passing through the canal. No foreign country, he said, should interfere with any arrangement the United States might make for the payment of tolls.

"If any government should undertake to do so, I for one would protest," he said.

Knowland Also Accuses Railways. Representative Knowland, of California, called on President Taft today and declared that Canadian railroads acted in sympathy with American railroads were behind Great Britain's protest against free tolls through the Panama Canal for United States ships. "Not the slightest objection was made by Great Britain," said Knowland, "until a committee of Canadian railroad men took the question up with the British government. There is little doubt that American transcontinental railroads prompted the move." Knowland also talked with Secretary Knox.

Both the President and the Secretary of State are standing for the right of the United States to put certain American vessels through the Canal toll free.

While many of the President's advisers contend the question of tolls is really one of interstate commerce, they are hoping the dispute may be settled without being submitted to The Hague tribunal.

Swimming Tanks Deserted.

With the arrival of real warm weather and the consequent warming of the Willamette River, both the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. have about abandoned their indoor tanks and are having the classes for the more advanced pupils in the river.

Miss Milla Shloth and some 50 of her pupils took possession of Windemuth Baths last evening and held their regular drills and swims in the waters of the Willamette. The Y. M. C. A. has no definite place, but the boys that are at all able to keep their heads above water prefer the banks of the river to the glazed tank of Bull Run water. Miss Shloth and her students will be at the Windemuth Baths every Wednesday night.

mode ahead of the Rosarians in an automobile, with Ralph W. Hoyt, president of the Portland Rose Festival Association; George L. Hutchin, its manager; and Hyas Tye, George Allen, who this year takes the place of the King. He is a brother of Harrison Allen of Portland. The Rosarians' drill team followed next in line and then came the second division of the Rosarians.

Pretty Girls Kidnaped. All along the line of march the Rosarians cut up capers, time and again kidnaping young women and dancing about them. They also captured policemen at different points and danced around them, and the crowds yelled.

To the celebrated classic, "Everybody's Doin' It," the Rosarians "ragged" in double and quadruple style. And everybody was doing it. What? Why, laughing.

Adjutant-General Finler, who is a high private in the ranks of Rosarians was one of the best "raggers" of all; George W. Joseph, State Senator and usually some dignified man, was no slouch at it.

Ahead of the Rosarians was borne a huge Caroline Testout rose, surmounted on a staff, part of the time carried by A. L. Stephens, and at other times by Robert W. Morrow, who at most any other time is a dignified circuit judge at Portland.

The other hit of the parade was a big bouquet of American Beauty roses, surmounted on a staff. Each Rosarian carried a rose on a 18-inch stem. Three automobiles bearing Portland people followed, including The Oregonian car.

Members Declare Californian, if Out of Sympathy With Those Who Elected Him, Should Give Way to Another.

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—Because of his criticism of the proposed new "Progressive party," as set out in a statement issued by him in Washington two days ago, United States Senator Works was asked today to resign by Lieutenant-Governor Wallace, Meyer Lissner, chairman of the State Republican Central Committee, and other prominent supporters of Roosevelt.

The telegram, which was signed by 40 Progressives, including a number of Assemblymen and State Senators who helped to elect Mr. Works as Senator, read as follows: "We feel that your statement given publicity through reactionary newspapers was unnecessary, unwise, based upon lack of information and in certain of its conclusions, false. Because of the fact that you owe your place in the United States Senate to the support you received from the Progressive Republican voters of California, it ill becomes you, either to scold or to criticize them for their determination to carry forward the fight along the only lines open to them under the law."

"Due to the fact that you are reputed to represent in the United States Senate the cause for which we have carried forward the fight along the only lines open to them under the law, your criticism can have no other effect than to unfairly injure the very movement that you were chosen to foster and promote. To employ the same line of reasoning that you use in your statement, we feel that if you are out of harmony with the progressive sentiment in California, that grave your majority of the votes cast in the Republican primaries two years ago, and can no longer work in harmony with that sentiment. Then it is your duty to resign and come home, to the end that some one may be chosen who will act in harmony with the progressive sentiment of the greatly preponderating masses of registered Republican voters in California."

Senator Will Not Resign. WASHINGTON, July 17.—"I shall not resign," said Senator Works, when asked to do so.

Zink, 2323 Saratoga St., New Orleans, La., writes of the great good done her husband: "My husband suffered with stomach trouble for over 12 years, during which time he doctored with three doctors who gave him no relief.
