RUDOLPH MORTIME SAITH DIBS.—
As a result of complications that developed from tonsilitis Rudolph Mortimer Smith, 11-year-old son of O. M. Smith, died Saturday at Good Samaritan Hospital. The little fellow was siricken several weeks ago and was well on the way to recovery when complications set in which made an operation necessary and he never railied from the effects. He was a student at Portland Academy and a junior member of the Multnomah Athletic Club. The fumark aids the men to recognize each other, and Lonesome Joe allows the of the Multinomah Athletic Club. The luneral, which occurred yesterday afternoon at the Finley chapel, was private, only members of the immediate family attending. Rev. A. A. Morrison, of Trinity Church, officiated.

"MEDICINE MEN' MAY BE HALTED.—
TO put a stop to the selling of medicine on the streets. Councilman Monks has asked City Attorney Grant to draft an ordinance making it unlawful for deal-the ers in medicine to appear on, the streets. Dressing in Chinese costumes they go to the districts where working men live, and are said to reap a huge profit from the sales of their goods.

"They must make big money, for they pay a license of $20 a day," said Councilman Monks. The ordinance will be filed Wednesday.

Webster Conviews Russes.

MESSTER CONFIRMS RUMOR.—Lianel
R. Webster, ex-County Judge, yesterday confirmed a rumor that he will appear as special prosecutor in the trial of Mayor Rushlight, Chief of Police Siover and Captain of Detectives Baty, which is scheduled to commence August 1. The three officials have been indicted on a charge of offering a $400 bribe to Deputy District Attorney Collier. It is understood that Martin L. Pipes, who had been previously mentioned as a probable special prosecutor, will not be in the case.

WHITE SLAVE CASE HEARD.—Frank Pansa was given a preliminary hearing yesterday before United States Commissioner Camnon on a charge of white slavery and was bound over in the sum of $4000 to await the action of the next Federal grand jury. Annie Wallace, whom it is alleged he brought from Chicago to Portland for immoral purposes, was held in $1000 bonds. As these bonds are larger than usual in such cases it indicates that the Government officers believe it is a case of unusual importance.

Poolscom Gamblers Guiltt.—After a police officer had lost $3 playing "pea pool" in Solly's poolhall, 107% Sixth street, he arrested his four fellow-players on charges of gambling and the proprietor, M. Solomon, on a charge of allowing it. The four players pleaded guilty in Municipal Court yesterday and were fined $10, but Solomon convinced the court that he had no knowledge of the gambling.

before, still tickles the palate of the audience. A cook is expected at a log hut, inhabited by a cowboy or two. Instead there enters a pretty girl, lost, wandering in the woods. She is taken for the new cook and has to take the choice of being shot if she won't cook or, as she puts it, "of probably paying the same penalty after they have sampled her efforts in the cullnary department." She decides to try. The results amuse the audience.
