WATER RATES ARE ATTRACTIVE

Ship Man Says Portland Wholesalers Overlook This Fact.

"With a differential of from 10 to 30 per cent in the water rates to the East on different classes of freight, Portland shippers are not taking the advantage of it that might be expected," said C. D. Kennedy, local representative of the American-Hawaiian line yesterday.

"Representatives of Eastern houses are now selling in this territory on a basis of water shipments and are securing considerable business for this reason. Local wholesalers are selling on a basis of rail rates to Portland, and if they sell water they are losing the difference in freight is considered so much profit. The time is soon to come when the wholesaler will have to figure his profits on the water rate, or Eastern houses will sell directly to the trade of all staples that are of necessity, brought from the Atlantic seaboard."

INSPECTOR BACK FROM TRIP

Beck Finds Lighthouses on Coast in Excellent Condition.

Lighthouse Inspector Beck returned yesterday from a trip of inspection to the Tongue Point buoy, the Tillamook and the light stations of North Head and Cape Disappointment. He reports that he found the stations in good condition, and that the tender Heather would leave on Tuesday with supplies for the light stations on Puget Sound. The tender Manzanita is taking on at the Tongue Point station, the automatic high power automatic gas buoy that is to be stationed at Neah Bay, at the entrance to the Straits of Fuca. It is the intention to have this buoy in operation by August 1.

Inspector Beck said that his department had sufficient money to continue operations for another month, but it would be necessary by that time for an appropriation to be passed by Congress to have necessary funds for the future.

Marine Notes.

Eighteen tramp steamers are now listed as on the way to this port for cargoes.

Though Detesting Manner in Which Roosevelt Was Defeated at Chicago, Solon Says He Doubts Good of Organization.

LEWISTON, Idaho, July 26.—(Special.)—In a letter to a Lewiston friend Senator Borah of Idaho, clearly defining his attitude toward the coming campaign, the letter read in part:

"Well, the situation is somewhat chaotic and what is discouraging to me is that the people seem to be so much indifferent to returning here. I would like to return. I believe in six years more I might be able to do enough to justify my friends in having made the fight which they made for me to send me here. I think furthermore, that the next six years are going to be the most important in consecutive legislation of the country. I would like to be here and help to take part in it. But to you a friend and what, the utmost candor, I am not permitting that to be my sole and consuming ambition. Therefore I do not feel the chaos of the situation as otherwise I might."

"I think there are many important problems with which we have to deal these days, that is expected of the people as free and untrammelled as all confused or disturbed about these issues and these policies, whatever may be the disturbance as to party in public office, are not indifferent to returning here. I would like to return. I believe in six years more I might be able to do enough to justify my friends in having made the fight which they made for me to send me here. IDAHO SENATOR CAN'T SEE REASON FOR THIRD PARTY.

Though Detesting Manner in Which Roosevelt Was Defeated at Chicago, Solon Says He Doubts Good of Organization.

LEWISTON, Idaho, July 26.—(Special.)—In a letter to a Lewiston friend Senator Borah of Idaho, clearly defining his attitude toward the coming campaign, the letter read in part:

"Well, the situation is somewhat chaotic and what is discouraging to me is that the people seem to be so much indifferent to returning here. I would like to return. I believe in six years more I might be able to do enough to justify my friends in having made the fight which they made for me to send me here. I think furthermore, that the next six years are going to be the most important in consecutive legislation of the country. I would like to be here and help to take part in it. But to you a friend and what, the utmost candor, I am not permitting that to be my sole and consuming ambition. Therefore I do not feel the chaos of the situation as otherwise I might."
