

MILITIA ACCUSED OF DRUNKEN ORGY

War Department to Inquire into Conduct of Troops in Wisconsin Camp.

WOMEN INSULTED, IS SAID

Wisconsin and Illinois State Guard on Maneuvers, Alleged to Have Gone on Spree and Officers Are Blamed.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Moved by charges that regulars and various state troops encamped at Camp Douglas, Wis., for army maneuvers, had insulted and attacked women and had indulged in a drunken orgy, officials of the War Department in Chicago today ordered an investigation to be made at Camp Douglas and other Wisconsin points where the soldiers have been mobilized.

General Potts, commander of the Central Division, embracing the Regular Army troops in 19 states, telegraphed Major Carl R. Reichmann, chief umpire in charge of the maneuvers, to inquire into the charges and the extent to which the regular troops were involved.

"Red" Army Not Involved. Investigation also is said to be planned to ascertain the conduct of Wisconsin and Illinois militiamen, who, with regular troops from Fort Leavenworth and Fort Sheridan, formed the "Blue" army against which the charges are made.

The charges, as made to General Potts, prompted him to order an investigation, are: That almost one-third of the 3000 soldiers composing the "Blue" army were drunk a few hours before the campaign was to begin.

That, although the men were supposed to be on a "war footing" when they took the field at 5 A. M. on July 26, all the saloons in the town of Camp Douglas were crowded with soldiers until 11 A. M. the same morning.

That the officers were called to keep the soldiers in the camp.

That women were insulted in the camp and in the town.

That a girl 20 years old was attacked by a dozen soldiers, and that although she reached the railway station at 1 o'clock in the morning crying for help, no one was arrested and no investigation was made.

That many fights occurred among the soldiers.

That slurring remarks were made to women who came from surrounding towns, both of which were involved.

That Major McDonald, who was in command of the cavalry squadron, denied today, on his return to Fort Sheridan, that he had heard of any trouble at the camp. He left there yesterday morning.

Adjutant-General William A. Simpson, of the Chicago office, of the War Department, to Captain Howard J. Laubach, detailed from the general staff to take charge of all militia regiments in the Central Division, said they did not believe the charges.

They insisted that, had regulars participated in the disorders, officers would have telegraphed the trouble to headquarters in Chicago.

"I am certain regulars were not involved," said Captain Laubach, "for they are under army control at all times. Of course, in the militia regiments there are always a number of men who treat such an event as a holiday and take occasion to become intoxicated and insubordinate."

MAN INJURED IN RUNAWAY Albany Teamster Sustains Broken Ribs When Team Takes Fright.

ALBANY, Or., July 26.—(Special.)—Carried for more than a block on the doubletrack of a buggy drawn by a runaway team, a teamster employed by the Wigwam stables, in this city, narrowly escaped death today. He suffered six broken ribs and was bruised from head to foot, but is not dangerously injured.

Cook was driving a team which took fright at a street car on Lyon street, near Third, and started to run. Cook was jerked over the dashboard and fell on the doubletrack, where he lay during the mad rush of the team.

After running more than a block, the horses turned onto the sidewalk and ran into the corner of the Albany Armory, the impact stopping the team and throwing Cook violently to the cement walk.

EDITOR SENTENCED TO JAIL Denver Man Also Fined $5000 for Contempt of Court.

DENVER, July 26.—F. G. Bonfill, part owner of a Denver newspaper, was found guilty of contempt of court this afternoon for refusing to appear for trial on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Evans and former Mayor Robert W. Speer, and aggregating more than $1,000.

Bonfill was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail and fined $5000 in addition to one-half the costs of the trial. The attorneys announced that they would appeal the sentence to the Supreme Court.

Judge Hubert L. Shattuck granted a stay of execution for ten days to allow Mr. Bonfill's attorney to file a writ of supersedeas in the Supreme Court. Contempt proceedings, an outgrowth of libel suits against F. G. Bonfill, will begin tomorrow against William G. Evans.

Evidence will be taken in a jury trial to show whether Evans is owner or part owner of a Denver paper in which alleged libelous statements against Bonfill and H. H. Tammen recently appeared.

BOMB HURLED INTO CAMP (Continued From First Page.)

The interior, stopped at the progressive headquarters here today on his way from Kansas to Ohio.

"I found conditions in Kansas very satisfactory," said Mr. Garfield. "The state is progressive from top to bottom."

Alleged Murderess Released. PASCO, Wash., July 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Anna Christensen, who was admitted to bail in the sum of $20,000 several weeks ago, has succeeded in raising the required amount and the bonds, which were furnished by her father, have been approved by the Franklin County officials and Mrs. Christensen was released last evening from the Walla Walla jail, where she has been held since being accused of the murder of her husband, H. E. Christensen. Mrs. Christensen arrived here on the midnight train.

REBELS FACE FEDERALS

ORZCO'S FORCES TURN ABOUT TO MEET ADVANCING ARMY.

TRACKS TORN UP TO PREVENT TOO RAPID APPROACH OF MADERO'S MEN.

CLASH IS EXPECTED.

JUAREZ, Mex., July 26.—The advance guard of the federals was sighted today by rebels at Matachic, in the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, west of Juarez. When this news reached General Orozco's headquarters here a train was ordered made up on the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, with the evident intention of transporting rebel troops from Casas Grandes to Madero to face the advancing federal force.

Tonight the main body of federals was reported at La Junta. This at last makes clear the mode of the federal approach to reclaim for the government the strip now held by rebel forces on the border of the United States. The federals evidently will approach Juarez along the Mexico Northwestern Railroad.

A courier arrived in report at Orozco's headquarters here that the rebels' destruction crew so far has torn up about 90 miles of the Mexican Central road, burned the ties and destroyed the rails for all future use. One hundred more men were sent south along the Mexican Central to assist in the work.

Just what action the approach of the federals will call forth is not announced. Orozco originally planned to evacuate his forces and retreat to Casas Grandes for the State of Sonora, where his main command is holding forth, but today's developments may lead to an entirely new plan.

EDITOR SENTENCED TO JAIL Denver Man Also Fined $5000 for Contempt of Court.

DENVER, July 26.—F. G. Bonfill, part owner of a Denver newspaper, was found guilty of contempt of court this afternoon for refusing to appear for trial on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Evans and former Mayor Robert W. Speer, and aggregating more than $1,000.

Bonfill was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail and fined $5000 in addition to one-half the costs of the trial. The attorneys announced that they would appeal the sentence to the Supreme Court.

Judge Hubert L. Shattuck granted a stay of execution for ten days to allow Mr. Bonfill's attorney to file a writ of supersedeas in the Supreme Court. Contempt proceedings, an outgrowth of libel suits against F. G. Bonfill, will begin tomorrow against William G. Evans.

Evidence will be taken in a jury trial to show whether Evans is owner or part owner of a Denver paper in which alleged libelous statements against Bonfill and H. H. Tammen recently appeared.

BOMB HURLED INTO CAMP (Continued From First Page.)

The interior, stopped at the progressive headquarters here today on his way from Kansas to Ohio.

"I found conditions in Kansas very satisfactory," said Mr. Garfield. "The state is progressive from top to bottom."

Alleged Murderess Released. PASCO, Wash., July 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Anna Christensen, who was admitted to bail in the sum of $20,000 several weeks ago, has succeeded in raising the required amount and the bonds, which were furnished by her father, have been approved by the Franklin County officials and Mrs. Christensen was released last evening from the Walla Walla jail, where she has been held since being accused of the murder of her husband, H. E. Christensen. Mrs. Christensen arrived here on the midnight train.

INVADERS WILL ATTACK (Continued From First Page.)

belief that much will be demanded of them tomorrow. This is the first day that the Oregon command has not formed a part of the advance force or been at the head of the main column.

Although artillery, infantry and cavalry has been clashing in small detachments all afternoon, no need developed for calling the reserve regiment into the situation. Consequently the Oregonians enjoyed a much-needed rest. The twenty-fifth infantry is holding the position approaching the river crossing with the Second Idaho Infantry on outpost.

Camp was broken near Cedarville at dawn and the Red brigade was on the march before 7 o'clock. After a week in the field the Oregon guardsmen have become remarkably efficient in the work of establishing and breaking bivouac camps. Half an hour is all the time required to break camp, pack up, load stores and get under way.

It has been hoped that the main objective of the Red army in its invasion of the Chehalis Valley would be reached today. But the control by the Blue army of the river crossings made it necessary to establish a temporary field base near Oakville. Even if the Red army were provided with pontoons the development of the Blue army would have made necessary the halt here for reconnaissance and maneuver.

Approximately 30 miles has been covered thus far by the Red army since Monday, when the base at Montesano was left behind. While the marching has been by easy stages, the brigade has seen service of the hardest kind on account of the extensive reconnaissance that has been required. While every command has had a touch of advance guard and outpost duty, the brunt of this tiring work has been divided by the regular troops and the Oregon militiamen thus far. One battalion of the Third Regiment has been in the front all night long, and heavy weather has made outpost duty especially trying.

Much strategy has been involved up to the present stage of the campaign. Colonel Kennon had been expected to proceed up the east bank of the Chehalis River, which would require him to pass through the narrow cut near Porter. Instead of following this natural route the brigade commander crossed to the west of the left bank and thus avoided a dangerous trap.

NEBRASKAN SCORED FOR HIDING ONE WHO SAID WASHINGTON'S DELEGATES STOLEN.

ANTI-TAFT MAN RETORTS

REPRESENTATIVE ASSAILED OBTAINS FLOOR AND STYLES OPPONENT'S METHODS AS DISREPUTABLE AND DISRESPECTFUL.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In a bitter speech in the House today Representative Humphrey, of Washington, Republican, replied to Representative Norris, of Nebraska, who made a speech in which he condemned the recent Chicago Republican convention and charged that the delegates from the state of Washington had been obtained for President Taft through political corruption.

Humphrey disavowed any personal knowledge of the manner in which the delegates were selected, saying he was not at home at the time.

"But I do resent the attempt of the gentleman from Nebraska, Mr. Norris, to reflect upon the honesty and integrity of a large number of the citizens of my state by quoting the opinion of some man whose name he is not willing to give," the gentleman in his speech said that a certain gentleman of wide acquaintance and of high standing, whose statements would have great weight with the members of the House and of the country, and who was conversant with all the facts, had said to him that the delegates from the state of Washington were absolutely stolen.

Norris' Actions Criticized. Humphrey recalled the fact that he repeatedly called upon Norris to name his authority, Norris, he said, had declared the man in question was a supporter of President Taft and a candidate for office, and for that reason had refused to permit the use of his name.

Referring to the fact that Norris had once been a judge, Humphrey asked him why he should think if he (Humphrey) should accuse a fellow member of the House of being a scoundrel and a criminal and, when called upon for proof, refuse to name the informant, except to say that he was a man of national reputation, a man whose truth and veracity the House could not doubt.

"What a monstrous proposition that is," exclaimed Humphrey. "Is there a man on this floor whose innate sense of honesty, fairness and justice would not at once rebuke such a suggestion, if any less monstrous, any less dastardly, to utter such statements about a large number of reputable citizens of the United States for political purposes to assassinate the reputation of a great political party."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska who has made this statement is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED EXCURSION TO GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Leave Portland August 7th, 7:00 P. M., via S. P. & S. Ry. OR Leave Portland August 8th, 12:15 A. M. via Seattle

SPECIAL STANDARD SLEEPING CAR LEAVES SEATTLE 9:00 A. M., August 8. Leaves Spokane 10:15 P. M.

Returning Arrives Portland 7:45 P. M. August 21st

A Delightful Two Weeks' Trip for $105

Including Round Trip Ticket, Sleeping Car Berth and All Expenses in the Park.

For detailed information apply to H. DICKSON, C. P. & T. A., 122 Third Street, PORTLAND W. A. ROSS, A. G. P. A., SEATTLE, WASH.

GEMS OF PRINCESS GONE; BOXER JAILED

London as Implicated in Theft at Ostend Hotel.

Scotland Yard Authorities Assert American Was Seen With $80,000 'Haul.'

LONDON, July 26.—"Kid" McCoy, the American boxer, was arrested today on a provisional extradition warrant and brought up in Bow-street Police Court on a charge of larceny, alleged to have been committed at Ostend. He was remanded without bail.

McCoy said he was entirely ignorant of the charge.

Evidence is Meager. According to Scotland Yard authorities, McCoy is suspected of being implicated in a jewel robbery at the Grand Palace Hotel, Ostend. They admit, however, that the only evidence against him was that McCoy has been seen in the company of suspects, McCoy's friends say he left Ostend before the robbery was committed.

The Scotland Yard authorities say the person robbed at Ostend was a Russian Princess who was staying at the Grand Palace Hotel. Her story is that the Princess, who owned jewelry worth $20,000, was followed from Russia by a gang of thieves, who engaged an adjoining room and entered her apartments in her absence. They obtained a case containing jewels valued at $80,000, but overlooked a larger case.

Two Arrested at Ostend. The officials at Scotland Yard say that a man known as Squeezekamp and a woman companion have been arrested at Ostend for alleged connection with the crime. McCoy, it is asserted, recently was a patron at the Grand Palace Hotel, with a party of friends.

The only large robbery reported from Ostend recently was that of the Princess of Thurn and Taxis, from whom it was said jewels valued at $80,000 were stolen in a hotel. The Princess was a Miss Nicols, of Uniontown, Pa. She was divorced in Pittsburgh in 1906 from General Gerald Fitzgerald, of Ireland, and last November at the home of her mother in Uniontown married Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis, a member of the Hungarian branch of his family.

Engineer Sues for $20,000. ASTORIA, Or., July 26.—(Special.)—The case of W. L. Hurley against the Sorenson Logging Company has been set for trial in the Circuit Court on August 12. This is an action brought for the recovery of damages in the sum of $20,000 for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff while employed as a donkey engineer in the defendant company's logging camp at Svensen.

How The Body Kills Germs. Germs that get into the body are killed in two ways—by the white corpuscles of the blood, and by a germ-killing substance that is in the blood. Just what this substance is, we do not know. The glory of a healthy person always has some germ-killing substance in it to ward off the attack of disease. The fountain head of life is the stomach. A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

To put the body in healthy condition, to feed the system on rich, red blood and throw out the poisons from the body, nothing in the past forty years has exceeded Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stated cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

"My husband was a sufferer from stomach trouble and impure blood," writes Mrs. JAMES H. MARTIN, of Frankfort, Ky. "He had a sore on his face that would form a scab which would dry and drop off in about a month, then another would immediately form. It continued this way for a long time. He tried every remedy that any one would suggest but found no relief. He then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stated cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

The Ideal Dessert

For dinner tomorrow, Pure Cream Ice Cream. Our Sunday special are a rare treat. Either crushed fresh Peach or Raspberry Pure Cream Ice Cream at regular prices, 60c quart, 2 quarts $1.00. Bricks, 70c quart, 2 quarts $1.20. Order now, while you are thinking about it. Our Auto Delivery will have it at your home in good season.

169 FOURTH STREET Washington CREAMERY CO PHONES MAIN 764 A 2276

SPEND YOUR VACATION IN THE MOUNTAINS

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED EXCURSION TO GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Leave Portland August 7th, 7:00 P. M., via S. P. & S. Ry. OR Leave Portland August 8th, 12:15 A. M. via Seattle

SPECIAL STANDARD SLEEPING CAR LEAVES SEATTLE 9:00 A. M., August 8. Leaves Spokane 10:15 P. M.

Returning Arrives Portland 7:45 P. M. August 21st

A Delightful Two Weeks' Trip for $105

Including Round Trip Ticket, Sleeping Car Berth and All Expenses in the Park.

For detailed information apply to H. DICKSON, C. P. & T. A., 122 Third Street, PORTLAND W. A. ROSS, A. G. P. A., SEATTLE, WASH.

GEMS OF PRINCESS GONE; BOXER JAILED

London as Implicated in Theft at Ostend Hotel.

Scotland Yard Authorities Assert American Was Seen With $80,000 'Haul.'

LONDON, July 26.—"Kid" McCoy, the American boxer, was arrested today on a provisional extradition warrant and brought up in Bow-street Police Court on a charge of larceny, alleged to have been committed at Ostend. He was remanded without bail.

McCoy said he was entirely ignorant of the charge.

Evidence is Meager. According to Scotland Yard authorities, McCoy is suspected of being implicated in a jewel robbery at the Grand Palace Hotel, Ostend. They admit, however, that the only evidence against him was that McCoy has been seen in the company of suspects, McCoy's friends say he left Ostend before the robbery was committed.

The Scotland Yard authorities say the person robbed at Ostend was a Russian Princess who was staying at the Grand Palace Hotel. Her story is that the Princess, who owned jewelry worth $20,000, was followed from Russia by a gang of thieves, who engaged an adjoining room and entered her apartments in her absence. They obtained a case containing jewels valued at $80,000, but overlooked a larger case.

Two Arrested at Ostend. The officials at Scotland Yard say that a man known as Squeezekamp and a woman companion have been arrested at Ostend for alleged connection with the crime. McCoy, it is asserted, recently was a patron at the Grand Palace Hotel, with a party of friends.

The only large robbery reported from Ostend recently was that of the Princess of Thurn and Taxis, from whom it was said jewels valued at $80,000 were stolen in a hotel. The Princess was a Miss Nicols, of Uniontown, Pa. She was divorced in Pittsburgh in 1906 from General Gerald Fitzgerald, of Ireland, and last November at the home of her mother in Uniontown married Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis, a member of the Hungarian branch of his family.

Engineer Sues for $20,000. ASTORIA, Or., July 26.—(Special.)—The case of W. L. Hurley against the Sorenson Logging Company has been set for trial in the Circuit Court on August 12. This is an action brought for the recovery of damages in the sum of $20,000 for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff while employed as a donkey engineer in the defendant company's logging camp at Svensen.

How The Body Kills Germs. Germs that get into the body are killed in two ways—by the white corpuscles of the blood, and by a germ-killing substance that is in the blood. Just what this substance is, we do not know. The glory of a healthy person always has some germ-killing substance in it to ward off the attack of disease. The fountain head of life is the stomach. A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

To put the body in healthy condition, to feed the system on rich, red blood and throw out the poisons from the body, nothing in the past forty years has exceeded Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stated cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

"My husband was a sufferer from stomach trouble and impure blood," writes Mrs. JAMES H. MARTIN, of Frankfort, Ky. "He had a sore on his face that would form a scab which would dry and drop off in about a month, then another would immediately form. It continued this way for a long time. He tried every remedy that any one would suggest but found no relief. He then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stated cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

The Ideal Dessert

For dinner tomorrow, Pure Cream Ice Cream. Our Sunday special are a rare treat. Either crushed fresh Peach or Raspberry Pure Cream Ice Cream at regular prices, 60c quart, 2 quarts $1.00. Bricks, 70c quart, 2 quarts $1.20. Order now, while you are thinking about it. Our Auto Delivery will have it at your home in good season.

NEBRASKAN SCORED FOR HIDING ONE WHO SAID WASHINGTON'S DELEGATES STOLEN.

ANTI-TAFT MAN RETORTS

REPRESENTATIVE ASSAILED OBTAINS FLOOR AND STYLES OPPONENT'S METHODS AS DISREPUTABLE AND DISRESPECTFUL.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In a bitter speech in the House today Representative Humphrey, of Washington, Republican, replied to Representative Norris, of Nebraska, who made a speech in which he condemned the recent Chicago Republican convention and charged that the delegates from the state of Washington had been obtained for President Taft through political corruption.

Humphrey disavowed any personal knowledge of the manner in which the delegates were selected, saying he was not at home at the time.

"But I do resent the attempt of the gentleman from Nebraska, Mr. Norris, to reflect upon the honesty and integrity of a large number of the citizens of my state by quoting the opinion of some man whose name he is not willing to give," the gentleman in his speech said that a certain gentleman of wide acquaintance and of high standing, whose statements would have great weight with the members of the House and of the country, and who was conversant with all the facts, had said to him that the delegates from the state of Washington were absolutely stolen.

Norris' Actions Criticized. Humphrey recalled the fact that he repeatedly called upon Norris to name his authority, Norris, he said, had declared the man in question was a supporter of President Taft and a candidate for office, and for that reason had refused to permit the use of his name.

Referring to the fact that Norris had once been a judge, Humphrey asked him why he should think if he (Humphrey) should accuse a fellow member of the House of being a scoundrel and a criminal and, when called upon for proof, refuse to name the informant, except to say that he was a man of national reputation, a man whose truth and veracity the House could not doubt.

"What a monstrous proposition that is," exclaimed Humphrey. "Is there a man on this floor whose innate sense of honesty, fairness and justice would not at once rebuke such a suggestion, if any less monstrous, any less dastardly, to utter such statements about a large number of reputable citizens of the United States for political purposes to assassinate the reputation of a great political party."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska who has made this statement is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

"The method of the gentleman from Nebraska is the method of the blackmailer, the most cruel and cowardly of criminals, to extort blood money from his terrified and helpless victim by holding him up."

"I know that the gentleman from Nebraska is not a man of high character, and I am still utterly unable to account for his using such methods or having used them, to fall upon reflection, in scorn and contempt by the House of Representatives."

SPEND YOUR VACATION IN THE M