Yesterday's Results. At Portland—Victoria 4, Portland 1.

BY JAMES H. CARROLL. Costly errors and poor base-running conspired to rob the Colts of a victory to celebrate their return to the Vaughn-street grounds yesterday.

As usual the Northwesterners opened the series in a manner to give the lie to those followers of the Fielder Jones' circuit who contend that the "class" of the organization is equal to the Pacific Coast.

Errors Are Costly. The Colts erred twice during the diamond matinee, and on each occasion the miscues converted into runs.

Two Scored in Sixth. The Bees secured their final and deciding duo of runs in the sixth inning. With one out Williams dropped Weed's high fly to the center of the diamond, and a stolen base and three singles scored Weed and Clementson.

Notes of the Game. Ed Kennedy, the former Portland catcher, played his first game for a week. He looks as well as he had considerable trouble getting under the pile, but came through with the hit which scored the winning run.

Mensor Writes "It's as Easy to Hit 'Em' in Big Company as With Northwestern Teams—Fleeter Makes Headway.

Eddie Mensor who is cutting up such capers as leadoff man for the Pittsburgh Pirates, is not the only man to figure in a Portland Colt sale this season if the advances made regarding Jack Kibble, Colt third-sacker, are any criterion.

Kibble has been playing good ball for the Colts this season and has improved since he was placed in the lead-off position. His wonderful arm, backed by youth and a clear brain is what has commended itself to those scouring the country in search of prospective major league talent.

"The unluckiest ball team in the world" is what Owner Wattleat, of Victoria, thinks of his Northwestern League team. "We would be at the top of the heap and leading the race by a good margin if we had not encountered a streak of bad luck which has never been equalled in this league, if in any other," declares Wattleat.

"Three broken legs, two dislocated knees, another man hurt with water on the knee, a broken ankle, a broken finger and several attacks of sickness have conspired to rob us of the pennant.

The addition of Steiger and Callahan to the Colt twirling staff gives Williams four southpaw moundmen. Callahan pitched for Chehalis, of the Washington State League, and was touted by Jimmy Byrne, the well-known backstop, as the best in the circuit. He worked in a dandy game for the Colts Sunday morning.

The Colt twirling staff is composed of Southpaws Tonnese, Steiger, Callahan and Giro, and Right-handers Eastley, Doty, Bloomfield and Zeazy. Eddie has been keeping Mike Donlin out of the regular lineup, which speaks volumes for his prowess. His bad ankle has been bothering him a little, but he refuses to give up.

A Seattle report says that Dugdale has sent a prize of $3500 on Pitcher Fullerton, and that Wattleat is asking $1800 for "Boy Scout" Rawlings, his shortstop. However, "Wat" says he has no sales on just now and is looking for a chance to pull off a couple.

A Los Angeles report says that Charlie Baum, Sacramento pitcher, may go to the Southern California club. Atkin, principal owner of the Senators, says that the Angels have made a cash offer for the moundman. Baum is dissatisfied and Atkin is inclined to let him go.

Del Howard says the Seals are the worst disorganized team he has ever seen. "Danny Long was in bad with the players and now they say that Bill Hedy is being 'crossed' by the men under him. Kid Mohler is reported to be after another berth, while 'Flame' Delhi is accused of 'dogging it'.

MANY OARSMEN WILL ENTER Rowing Carnival at Peoria Is Attracting Much Interest.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Secretary Fred A. Fortmeyer, of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, reports that the entries for the annual regatta, which decides the American championships, are coming in remarkably well, and that the rowing carnival at Peoria, Ill., next week will probably be the best that the American public has ever seen.

HOGAN MUST STOP BULLYING IS EDICT

Baum Says Vernon Manager's Abuse of Opposing Players Is Offensive.

FINE OF $25 IS ASSESSED

Leard Also Is Fined for Slapping Villager Who Abused Him—All Umpires Are Instructed to Prevent "Ragging."

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Manager Hogan, of the Vernon team, of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, was fined $25 today for making William Leard, second baseman of the Oakland team, lose his temper in yesterday's morning game at Oakland, and Leard was fined $25 for slapping Hogan. Announcement of the fines was made by President Al Baum.

"I had to fine Leard," said President Baum, "but Hogan was to blame. He has been 'going after' the youngsters and upsetting them so they could not play their games."

Baum's Censure Severe. President Baum issued a statement tonight, setting forth the reasons for his action.

"The trouble at Oakland," says the statement, "was the culmination of a series of complaints from several teams in the league along the same lines.

"Manager Hogan had been nagging and abusing Leard and other Oakland players all during the series, making a particular target of Leard. Before last Wednesday's game the umpires were instructed to inform Hogan that his practice must stop. Despite this warning and other warnings, the Vernon manager continued offending. He started after Leard in the clubhouse during the Sunday morning game and continued his taunts during the game.

"When Leard approached Umpire Wheeler after the fourth inning, Hogan relieved Leard, and the umpires, the Vernon manager applied vile epithets to the Oakland player, precipitating the trouble.

Stringent Action Urged. "The affair has resulted in definite instructions to all umpires to shut down immediately on Manager Hogan or any other manager or player guilty of abusing opposing players. Hogan has been given a warning, but he has taken advantage of this privilege to go beyond the rules. Hereafter he will confine himself strictly to the rules during the Sunday morning game and continue his taunts during the game.

KOLEHMANN IS CHALLENGED. A. E. Wood, English Runner, Desires to Meet Finnish Champion.

NEW YORK, July 29.—An effort is to be made to bring to this country Hannes Kolehmainen, the Finnish champion, who carried off all the long-distance honors of the Olympic games. It has been reported that the Finn would turn professional now that he has won the highest possible amateur honors.

In view of these reports, A. E. Wood, the English runner who set new world's figures for 10, 20 and 30 miles, and the American champion, Quail, at Celtic Park this Spring, has forwarded to Kolehmainen a formal challenge for a race at any distance from 10 to 20 miles.

Wood believes that a race with the Finnish wonder can be successfully staged here for a purse of $5000 or even $10,000.

WOLGAST SAYS HE WILL FIGHT Lightweight Sees Chance to Make $50,000 in Three Bouts.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion, was in Chicago last night, on his way home to Michigan from California. Wolgast said that he practically had arranged for three fights on the Coast this would net him $50,000, despite reports to the contrary. He said his first fight would be held probably on Thanksgiving day. It is supposed that the three matches he has in mind are with Rivers, McFarland and Ritche.

Before the promoters who came to negotiate with Johnson for a match with Joe Jeannette left for home last night they declared they had been unable to induce the champion to fight in New York for less than $20,000, and that they had decided to devote their efforts to bringing Wolgast and McFarland into a match there instead.

FLATER WILL BE RELEASED Angel Pitcher Obtained From Oaks Has Weak Arm.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 29.—(Special.)—"Jack" Flater, the right-handed pitcher whom the Angels procured from Oakland the first part of this season, is slated for release, according to reports today. The release of Flater practically closes the famous Delmas case so far as the Angels are concerned.

Bert Delmas, who for five years played short for the Angels, turned out last night. Delmas said he would not play with the Angels any more and the Oakland club traded back Flater to Los Angeles. Delmas giving them cause to believe that he would join the northern team. Delmas never joined them and he now is managing the Modesto outlaws.

Flater came south, but his arm was in bad shape. The wing had been painted with a heavy coat of iodine and the ligaments in his arm were stretched up. He has not been in the best of shape for a year.

The Angels are planning to obtain the services of another pitcher. It is believed they will bring "Spider" Baum, who pitched for the Angels last year, should prove a winning pitcher for several years with the Los Angeles club. He is dissatisfied with his berth at Peoria. Recently he wanted to purchase a cigar stand, but Charley Graham was against this move. Then detectives were hired to watch Baum's movements to see if he stayed out late nights. Under these conditions Baum is not doing his best work, as his mind is not at ease.
