SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2 .- (Special.) -The Oaks came back today and beat the Portland Beavers in a game that was an uphill battle from the fourth inning. With Klawitter left in the session long after he should have been derricked, the Oaks not only increased their hits but made good on the runs and came out at the finish with a

Tyler Christian had enough luck to work his way out of several tight holes and to that he owes the victory as much as anything else. Twice, once in the first inning and again in the fourth the Beavers bunched three the Beavers bunched three The first bunching resulted in a single run, but they were more for-tunate in the fourth when two men were sent across the plate. Butcher's Drive Counts.

Portland broke into the limelight with a run in the first inning. With Doane out, Chadbourne doubled to left field, Art Krueger retired on a fly and Butcher sent a drive to center, scoring Chadbourne.

More of the same sort of free hitting gave the Beavers their two other tallies in the fourth. Krueger plugged the ball against the fonce and took third when Butcher slammed one into right field. Fisher popped to Cook and of Rodgers out Krueger scored. Happs sent a long hit to right center and Butcher finished up in safety at the plate.

Klawitter was getting along nicely until the fifth and the warning ought to have been enough for McCredie to change pitchers. Rohrer drove to cen-ter and was forced at second by Christian. Patterson hit to center and Leard scored Tyler with another of the same sort.

The last of the sixth saw the Oaks edge up another notch. Hoffman doubled to right. Hetling and Cook fanned. Hoffman stole third and scored Hoffman a single by Sharpe.

Patterson Knocks Romer.

The seventh was practically the end of the game. Patterson put the ball over the right field fence and the two clubs were on even terms. Bill Leard planted the ball in center and Zacher sacrificed. Hoffman grounded to Rapps, but advanced Leard to third. It was up to Hetling, and his cannonball slam through to center did the business.

C. W. TODD EXPECTS GREAT THINGS OF HORSE TODAY.

Riverside Driving Club Matinee Promises Interest With Long List on Card. 6-to-0 exhibition of the pastime yester-day and Crippled Nick Williams declares his squad will add another three to the list ere the Canadians

To the already long list of entries for the Riverside Driving Club matinee at the Country Club this afternoon has Southpaw Girot twirled a magnificent game before a ladies' day crowd, holding the Bees to five bingles. However, the peculiar feature of the contest was not the erratic moundman's grasp of control or his mastery of the Bee roughly form of the triffic hitting of the diamond warriors. Of the 13 hits in the fray, five charged to Girot and eight to "Izzy" Kaufman, seven were two-baggers and one a triple. Three of the Bee total were doubles, while four of the Colt slams were of the same nature and a fifth was a threesacker.
