

PILOTS NOTICE A REDUCED RATE

Tonnage Cost for Handling Tramp Steamers Dropped From Two Cents to One.

INDEPENDENTS MAKE MOVE

Claim Made That Prior to Competitors' Entry Columbia River Association Charged From $50 to $80 a Round Trip.

Independent pilots operating on the Willamette and Columbia rivers between Portland and Astoria have announced a reduction in rates for handling tramp steamers.

The independents came into the field a year ago in March in opposition to the Columbia River Pilots' Association and they say that they were responsible for a reduction of 20 per cent in the tariff for handling steam schooners.

"TRAMP" WILL CARRY WHEAT

"Strath" Carrier and Harpalycze to Load for Europe.

Two tramps were engaged yesterday to load wheat at Portland for the United Kingdom, one of the "Strath" fleet having been chartered by Kerr, Gifford & Co. and the British steamer Harpalycze, a new carrier and one able to take care of considerable cargo.

RAIN SAVES PONTOON WORK

Willamette's Fleet Will Have Tight Decks Again.

Rain was welcomed by those responsible for the new pipe-line pontoons built for the Port of Portland Commission to be used in conjunction with the steel dredge Willamette, which is being completed at the Willamette Iron & Steel Works.

will be towed to the Portland pier to work an offshore cargo for the Pacific Export Lumber Company.

Auto scooters evidently have few friends among the Harriman officials, for a notice has been posted at the approach to Ash-street dock limiting the speed of cars on that property to four miles an hour.

Bringing 2000 barrels of cement, the first she has carried in nearly a year for Oak-street dock, the steamer Johan Poulsen is due Monday.

Bids will be advertised for next week by Major McIndoe, Corps of Engineers, for the construction of a floating pier for which tenders are to be opened September 4, and for boilers to be installed in the dredges Monomah and Walkicum, that will be opened September 14.

On her last voyage from Portland the British steamer Orteric, owned by Andrew Weir & Co., of Glasgow, and operated under the agency of Frank Waterhouse & Co. sailed for Portland for Oriental ports and Manila, via Puget Sound, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

It is thought that in two weeks checks will have arrived from Washington with which to pay members of the crew of the old lighthouse tender Manzanita who lost personal effects when she sank.

Wise Uses Hill Railroad. ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 9.—(Special).—A suit was filed in the Circuit Court today by Charles F. Wise against the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway Company to recover the racing motorboat Wigwam II and a 6-cylinder, 120-horsepower racing engine, or the value placed on the property.

Property Owned Here. "There was no reason why, if his charges had any foundation in fact, he could not have brought them years ago, as is a well-known rule of law that a person who is charged with a crime within one state can always be brought from wherever he or she is at the time the complaint or information is filed."

finding Mrs. Bloch or in bringing her here if there was any ground for the charges. Instead of doing so, however, this party went to the hotel and visited her former home, and for the sole purpose of causing her the greatest possible humiliation and distress of mind.

"In addition to the fact that Mrs. Bloch whereabouts has been known ever since she left Portland, a further fact is that she had at the time of her departure, and for some years subsequent thereto, been known in this city, the record title of which was in her name and the value of which was in excess of the amount of the alleged claim. Portland and entire proceedings shows a malice and hatred that is almost exceptional in its contemplableness.
