AMERICAN FORCES RELIEVE MANAGUA

Marines Are Ordered to Stop Bombardment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The Order goes once more from the President of the United States, ordering the firemen in the expedition to the Standard Oil Co. on the Nicaragua Canal to cease all operations for the purpose of bombing the city of Managua, Nicaragua.

The order was issued through the Department of State, and was received by the Commissioner of Marine Corps on the afternoon of Aug. 14.

BATTLE CASUALTIES ARE HEAVY

Rebel Colonel Killed, Federal General Morally Wounded.

A CIVIL War is raging in the field of operations in Europe and it is expected that the casualties will be heavy.

The United States has declared war on the rebel state of Tennessee, and the Federal forces are making preparations to send a large army to the battle field.

GERMAN CONSULATE HIT

State Department Will Send Representatives if Necessary, Being Determined to Protect American Women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The State Department has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The United States government has been informed by the German government that the German consul general in New York will be taken by a German war vessel and will be handed over to the American government.

The State Department will send representatives if necessary, being determined to protect American women.