INITIATIVE PETITIONS CIRCULATED .- It was reported yesterday that the initia-tive petitions for the measure to repeal the franchise of the Southern Pacific Company on East First street at the e of the East Side Business Men's had about 1200 signatures. Dan Kellaher, president of the club, said yesterday the circulation of the peti-tions will be continued until the re-quired number of signatures have been secured to get it on the ballot. An effort will be made to get it on the ballot by resolution by the Council. Councilman Maguire having agreed to introduce a resolution to that effect. Copies of the petitions have been sent to the improvement clubs for circulation. It is expected to get enough signatures this week.

DOWN GRADE HARD ON ANIMALS .-Though the Humane Society has done much to protect horses from over-loading on upgrades, the matter of looking out for their welfare going downhill has been sadly neglected, says Police Sergeant Wanless, in a report filed yesterday. He urges that the downgrade is as severe a strain on draft animals as the other, and recom-mends the attention of the humane officers. The occasion of the report was a funaway which occurred yester-day ending at Second and Jefferson streets, where one horse was thrown against a pole and maimed. The wagon was coming downhill and had no brakes, and when the neck-yoke broke loose the animals became frightened and ran away. WATERWAY DELEGATES TO BE NAMED -Portland Chamber of Commerce has been invited to send delegates to the second annual convention of the Colum--Portland Chamber of Com bia and Snake River Waterways As-sociation, which will meet in Lewision, Idaho, October 4-5. The purpose of the convention is to consider ways and means for securing an appropriation for the immediate completion of the Cellio Canal, and the opining of the Columbia and Snake rivers for navi-gation. Governors of the Northwest states are expected to attend the congress and nearly every city in Ore-gon, Washington and Idaho will be represented by one or more delegates.

RAID-ARRESTED QUINTET Acquirten.—Five men arrested last week in a second raid on the Overland Club, at Third and Stark streets, and charged with having gambling devices behind barred doors, were acquitted by a jury in Municipal Court yesterday. Trial of 45 others, caught in the first raid, are to be held this afternoon before a jury. A bench warrant for J. A. McCleary, manager of the place, to answer upon sentences previously suspended, has not been served and it is believed that he is not in the city.

COAST ARTILLERY HERE TODAY .- Members of the Coast Artillery coming from Southern Oregon will arrive in Portland this morning at 7 o'clock, en route for Fort Stevens for Summer en-campment and drill, which will con-tinue until August 29. JAPANESE EDITOR RETURNS.—Toyoji Abe, editor and publisher of the Oregon News, a Japanese daily paper published here, has returned from a trip to Japan, with his bride. Mr. Abe is an enthusiastic Oregon booster and he introduced the presures of Oregon through siastic Oregon booster and he introduced the resources of Oregon through the principal newspapers and magazines in Tokio. "The Japanese public are very much interested about the election of the President of the United States," he said. "There is no ill feeling against the American people nor is there any foolish dreaming of war between the two nations." Mr. Abe was elected as the vice-president of the Japanese Association of Oregon in its annual meeting during his absence, but it is not known yet whether he will information of felony, carrying a penitentiary term of from one to three years, was filed yesterday against O. F. Woody, of the Bijou Theater, for exhibiting pictures of the Johnson-Flynn prizefight. The action was taken following a diplomatic notice from Chief Slover, asking that the pictures be withdrawn. A similar action at Pantages Theater, where the Wolgast-

Rivers pictures were to have been ex-hibited, was met with compliance. The Bijou people, after taking legal advice, decided to run, and opened the exhibition yesterday morning. Patrol-man Black, who had been directed to prevent the exhibition, thereupon swore to the complaint, which was issued from Judge McGinn's court. The statute under which action was taken is one prohibiting indecent pictures and it contains a clause prohibit-ing stage presentations of acts of blood-shed. The defense believes that the construction of this law to fit their case is tenuous, and will fight the case to a thorough test of the meaning of
