CLUB CONSIDERS CO-OPERATIVE STORE.

The matter of establishing a co-operative store in Montavilla after the plan of the store now in operation in Albina was considered at a meeting of the Montavilla Board of Trade Monday night. It was the sense of the meeting that if such store can be made to pay it should be started in Montavilla. Some investigations have been made by a special committee, but not enough to show that it will prove profitable, and this committee has been authorized to interview the manager of the Albina co-operative store as to the financial condition of that store and report back, when final action will be taken. The club went on record as favoring a common-user provision for all streets of the East Side, including East First, and started circulation of petitions to repeal the franchise of the Southern Pacific Company on East First street.

CAMPMEETING WELL ATTENDED.

The campmeeting of the Free Methodist Church of the Oregon Conference in progress at St. John's Heights is being well attended. About 75 tents have been placed on the grounds, and the large tabernacle in the center of the city of tents is crowded at all services. Rev. J. H. Flower, an evangelist from St. Louis, Mo., is one of the most forcible speakers on the program. W. N. Coffey, presiding elder for the conference, has charge of the meeting, and he is assisted by a staff of ministers. Rev. Alexander Beers, president of the Seattle Seminary, is expected. Meetings will be continued through the present week. Several foreign missionaries are among the speakers.

PIONEER COUPLE'S GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Adams, of this city, celebrated their golden wedding at a family reunion held at Clearhart Park last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Adams were married at Salem, August 17, 1862. Mrs. Adams was Miss Amanda Force, and was born in Oregon City in 1844. Her parents arrived at Portland in 1842, or rather where Portland now stands. Mr. Adams came to Oregon in 1852. Mr. and Mrs. Adams have made Portland their home for a number of years. Mr. Adams reached Portland when a lad, and was one of the boys who delivered The Oregonian after it became a morning paper.

REV. FATHER CHAPOTON ARRIVES.

Rev. Father Joseph Chapoton, the new pastor of the Holy Redeemer parish, near Piedmont, has arrived and entered his work here. He came from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he was pastor of St. Alphonsus parish. Rev. Father Edward Cantwell, former pastor here, has gone to Grand Rapids to take charge of the parish just left by Rev. Mr. Chapoton. Rev. Edward Powers, C. S. R., a well-known missionary, will make his headquarters at the Holy Redeemer parish of the Redemptorist Fathers. He was formerly attached to the Seattle house of his order.

JOHNSON, RESCUED FROM CRIBBER.

Charles Johnson did not know that he had a narrow escape from drowning till members of the crew of the steamer Undine pulled him out of the water at the foot of Taylor street and informed him of his plight. Then, being far gone in alcoholic stimulation, Johnson opined that someone had shoved him into the cold, wet waters of the Willamette. His theory met no acceptance on the part of those who performed the rescue. The police think that Johnson ventured to near the edge without answering badly to the rudder.

JOCKEY SAYS MORPHINE NECESSARY.

Edward Holden, an old-time jockey, caught by Detectives Epps and Hunt with morphine in his possession, pleaded yesterday in Municipal Court that the drug was necessary to him on account of injuries he had sustained in a race. He said that a physician gave him morphine to assuage his suffering at the time of the accident and he had used it since. His case was put over for further investigation.

FIRE STATION FOR MONTAVILLA.

Work is in progress on the new fire station on East Burnside and East Eighty-second streets, in Montavilla. The foundation has been finished and the walls are being built. It is similar to the stations erected in Rose City Park, Woodlawn and Kenton, and may be used both by horse or auto drawn apparatus. The three latter fire stations are being finished.

The Pendleton "Round-Up" band has been engaged for the "Stampee." Mounts for the band will be taken along, in addition to number of wild horses. It is expected that about 60 Walla Walla and Pendleton people will attend the "Stampee." The excursion will leave for the O.-W. R. & N. the latter part of this month.

CASLEMAN CLAIM DENIED.

A claim for $1271 entered against the estate of Henry D. Winters by J. A. Casleman, of San Francisco, was denied yesterday morning in the County Court. The claim was made that the deceased had purchased a preparatory for killing Casleman from Casleman, but that payment had not been received. At his death in June, 1911, Winters left an estate valued at $100,000 to which no heirs have been found. Proceedings have been instituted to have the money escheat to the state.

SEWER OFFERS PROBLEM.

PENINSULA RESIDENTS MAY PREVENT FINDING OUTLET.

Plans Now on Foot to Bring That Section Into City—Mass Meeting to Be Held. One of the problems in connection with the sewer system for the Peninsula is the annexation of the territory through which Columbia Slough flows to the City of Portland so the slough may be made the outlet, according to the plans of City Engineer Hurlburt. The north boundary of the city takes in Columbia boulevard, but leaves out the slough.

MAN DROPS FROM VIEW.

FATHER OF THREE MISSING FROM OREGON CITY.

Joseph Powers is Second One Strangely to Disappear in Last Two Weeks—Search Is On. OREGON CITY, Or., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Joseph Powers, 32 years of age, an employe of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, is mysteriously missing and his relatives fear that he has met with foul play. He is the second Oregon City man who has strangely disappeared within the last two weeks, the other being Howard Wallace, who worked for the Clackamas Southern Railway. Wallace had been married only two weeks and the day he disappeared received his wife's wages. His bride, who was Ethel Thurman, is broken-hearted and his father, W. A. Wallace, of Canby, has searched day and night for his son.

MRS. SPARKS MAY RECOVER.

Woman, Shot by Husband, Doing Nicely, Declares Dr. Ziegler.

As a result of what, under the circumstances, must be considered a good night Monday, hope of ultimate recovery is now held out by City Physician Ziegler for Mrs. James W. Sparks, who was shot twice by her husband prior to the latter's suicide. Mrs. Sparks had turned aside as soon as she saw her husband reappear from the bedroom with a revolver in his hand, with the result that when he fired the bullet struck her in the left side. One did but little injury, being turned aside by the stay of the corset, but the other pierced the liver. The bullet had been located and removed by Dr. Ziegler, who stated last night that the chief danger from now on lies in the possibility of septic infection from the wound in the liver. Mrs. Sparks passed an encouraging day.

L. W. SCOTT NAMED.

Judge Wolverton Reappoints United States Marshal.

Financial responsibility is the first consideration in seeking a bank to care for your surplus funds. Regardless of the kind of service that we can render you, we offer you the greatest safety for the money you entrust to our care. For over a quarter of a century we've conducted a bank on safe and business-like methods. We stand ready to welcome new accounts from men who seek a banking connection that offers both responsibility and reasonable accommodation.

APPOINTEE WILL ACCEPT.

Action of Jurist Result of Serious Disarrangement of Court Business Due to Official's Resignation.

Absolutely free from political influence or dictation but with authority given by the United States revised statutes, chapter 455, United States District Judge Wolverton has appointed Leslie M. Scott to succeed himself as United States Marshal for this district after an interregnum of ten days, during which period the office was vacant and operated without legal authority.

RECEIVING A RECESS APPOINTMENT MORE THAN A YEAR AGO BY PRESIDENT TAFT, AND THE SENATE NEVER TAKING FORMAL ACTION ON ITS CONFIRMATION, MR. SCOTT HAVING BEEN LATER WITHDRAWN, MR. SCOTT BECAME CONVINCED THAT THE APPOINTMENT WAS DEPENDENT ENTIRELY UPON PARTISAN POLITICS, WITH WHICH HE WOULD NOT BE ASSOCIATED, AND ON AUGUST 10 TELEGRAPHED PRESIDENT TAFT HIS RESIGNATION, CITING THE ABOVE REASONS FOR HIS ACTION.

ON THE SAME DAY THE RESIGNATION WAS ACCEPTED, BUT THAT FACT WAS NOT MADE PUBLIC UNTIL MONDAY, THE CONDITION IN THE MEANTIME SO ENTANGLING THE BUSINESS OF THE COURT THAT IT WILL TAKE CONSIDERABLE TIME AND TROUBLE TO STRAIGHTEN MATTERS OUT.

MONDAY AFTERNOON UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE WOLVERTON AND BEAN TOOK OFFICIAL COGNIZANCE OF THE MATTER AND TELEGRAPHED UNITED STATES ATTORNEY GENERAL WICKERSHAM TO TAKE SOME ACTION IN THE MATTER AT ONCE. YESTERDAY A MESSAGE WAS RECEIVED FROM THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY THAT HE HAD MADE A TEMPORARY APPOINTMENT OF A MARSHAL UNDER THE STATUTE PROVIDING FOR SUCH VACANCIES.

MR. SCOTT WAS CALLED BEFORE THE JUDGES AND TENDERED THE APPOINTMENT, WHICH WILL CONTINUE UNTIL AN APPOINTMENT IS MADE BY THE PRESIDENT. IT WAS EXPLAINED TO MR. SCOTT THAT HIS ADMINISTRATION OF THE OFFICE HAS BEEN ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY TO THE COURT AND HE WAS REQUESTED TO CONTINUE HIS DUTIES DURING THE PERIOD FOR WHICH THE COURT HAD THE APPOINTING POWER.

MR. SCOTT EXPRESSED A POSITIVE APPRECIATION OF THE CONFIDENCE PLACED IN HIM BY THE COURT, BUT AS HE HAD EXPRESSED HIMSELF IN THE MATTER, HE HAD REPLIED TO THE OFFER OF APPOINTMENT. MR. SCOTT SAID LAST NIGHT: "MY FIRST IMPULSE WAS TO REFUSE THIS APPOINTMENT FOR THE PERSONAL REASONS THAT I HAVE EXPRESSED BEFORE. THE CONFIDENCE OF THE COURT IN ME ALONE HAS DECIDED ME TO ACCEPT THE APPOINTMENT, ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE ONLY FOR A FEW DAYS, AND I WILL THEREFORE ASSIST THE COURT SO FAR AS IT IS IN MY POWER IN THE CONDUCT OF ITS BUSINESS."

MR. SCOTT WILL BE SWORN IN A NEW THIS MORNING AS MARSHAL AND FURNISH A NEW BOND IN THE SAME MANNER AS ANY NEWLY APPOINTED MARSHAL IS REQUIRED TO DO. IT WILL ALSO BE NECESSARY FOR HIM TO RE-EXAMINE ALL HIS DEPUTIES OVER AGAIN IN ORDER THAT THEY MAY HAVE THE PROPER AUTHORITY TO ACT.

Economy.

It means the administration of a house its stewardship spending or saving, that is, whether money or time, or anything else, to the best possible advantage.—John Ruskin.

When an order for PRINTING is entrusted to us our first thought always is as to the "Economical Stewardship" of such order, i.e., its execution in the most advantageous way—the best that can be done for the least possible cost. Our thirty-years success is built on this policy. Telephone us.
