Notes of the Game.

W. W. McCredle has announced a double-header Sunday, starting at 1:30 o'clock. The two clubs have a postponed game from May 53 to play off. Sacramento has lost the first three games in all three series on the Fortland lot.

Shortstop Orr manipulated two thrilling plays in the third inning, cutting off one sure hit and possibly znother. He went back of second to rob Higginbotham of a hit on the first play and repeated a moment later on Chadbourne.

Denver ... 73 32 .354 Des Moi the first play and repeated a moment later on Chadbourne.

Highibotham did not allow a hit until the sixth inning and that was an infield bunt that Orr beat out.

Pertland's first taily in the fifth might have been avoided had Catcher Cheek and Pitcher Arcelanes been working in unison. After Highibotham's single to right Shinn returned to the plate to head off Fitzgerald. Arrelanes used his head and planted himself a few yards in front of the plate, prepared to make a cutoff play if the throw was too late. Cheek failed to tell him to duck so late. Start of Battle Fierce.

For four innings both clubs battled like two leviathans of old. The only sign of a hit was a sharp drive that perforated Tommy Sheehan. Suddenly came a sudden shift in the whirl of the game. Fitzgerald, the youthful starter of many ralles, singled sharply to center, at the start of the fifth. Fisher fizzled a hit-and-run signal, but Fitz beat the throw to second anyway.

The fifth round eliminated George P. Gardner Ir A. S. Dahney and R. C. Gardner Ir A. S. Dahney and R. C.

Gardner, Jr., A. S. Dabney and R. C. Scaver, of Boston, as well as T. C. Bundy and C. B. Hurd, of California; H. W. Slocum, of New York; W. L. McKim, of Short Hills, N. J.; Whiting Preston, of Providence, and C. S. Rogers, of Philadelphia. Bundy Compelled to Quit.

After Bundy's plucky exhibition yes-terday in winning the doubles, in spite of two days of severe illness, it was expected he would come through the round and prove a factor in the semi-finals. He won his morning match against McKim, but in the fourth set of his contest this afternoon with Church he suddenly weakened and was obliged to default.

Another Pacific Coast player, Clifton B. Hurd, of Pasadena, had his colors lowered by Williams. Two matches were played in the in-terscholastic championship, as a result of which Hurd will meet J. H. Weber, of Chicago, in the finals tomorrow
