BRYAN TO VISIT OREGON

Commoner Arranges Own Schedule Which Includes West, and Clark, Also Making Own Selection, Picks Southwest.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Governor Wilson spent yesterday at the University Club, resting from a week of activity and preparing for a conference here today, destined to have an impor-

wherever Miss Countess begins to say goodbye. Last night's performance was a gala one. The play was well and wisely chosen, the cast fitted individually into roles apparently destined for each, and Miss Countess was in the gayest and most sparkling mood. As Georgiana she radiated and flashed flirtatious eyes, wore pretty frocks and sufficient to do something terrible until she learned through the kindly instrumentality of the playwright and a delayed telegram that her soldier lover wasn't killed after all. Miss Countess' Georgiana is human without being sentimental. Her interpretation is quite as one would suppose Clyde Fitch in his detailed study of women had meant it to be played. She was supreme in the role and her portrayal is not to be discounted compared with Elliott's supreme effort. In "Her Own Way" there's food for all conditions, classes and colors of the theater-going. While the plot is neither big nor vital it is absorbing and general in interest and holds a splendid lover who loves and rides away because of a mad, wicked villain who plots and schemes for the lovely lady and last in the triangle there is the lovely lady who is mighty sorry she was so cruel. Mayo Methot, whose grace of body and actual dramatic genius has awakened local theater goers to the realization that we have a star-to-be right in our midst, has the principal child role. She is Philip the boy. Phoebe B. Beebe is a pink and blue and gold edition of femininity whose offering to comedy is a choking spell on a gen-

Geisler and Miranda Hall was arrested by Patrolmen Stewart and Nye and Sergeant Kay on a charge of immorality. Four Hindus were arrested at Front and Morrison and charged with gambling, a poker game being interrupted by the police. The arrested men are John Hero, Allah Mahomet, Omadee Omar and John Mahomet.

OWL CAR EXPERIMENT ON No Figures Given Out by Company On First Night's Travel.

Although no definite statistics have as yet been compiled as to the extent of service rendered by the all-night "owl car" schedule put into effect Saturday night, the statement is made by the officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company that very few of the cars dispatched after 1:30 o'clock A. M. attracted any considerable number of patrons. Fourteen lines were operated as accommodation to all parts of the city in keeping with the agreement entered into with Mayor Russett to give the all-night experiment a thorough trial before incorporating any edicts into concrete law. On the one hand it is argued that tant bearing on his Presidential campaign. With Vice-President McAdoo and members of the campaign committee, the Governor will map out the sections of the country where he will speak and a schedule of addresses will be agreed upon. Present plans call for few speeches from the candidate himself, but a larger number from William J. Bryan, Speaker of the House, Representative Underwood, Governor Harmon of Ohio, Governor Foss, of Massachusetts; Senator-elect James, of Kentucky, and scores of members of Congress.

Bryan to Speak in West. Though the Governor's plan is to make several speeches in some of the more important cities of the country, these speeches in no sense are to be a swing around the circle or stumping tour. It is admitted, however, that the exigencies of the campaign may necessitate changes in the programme adopted. Mr. Bryan has arranged his own itinerary, to begin about September 10. He will speak for the most part in the Middle West, beginning, it is said, in Nebraska and taking in Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Washington, Oregon, Utah, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio. In these states Mr. Bryan will make big stumping tours, but he also will devote as much time as possible to states east of the Mississippi River.

Clark to Tour Southwest. While Mr. Bryan is concentrating on the Northwest and the Middle West, Speaker Clark will tour the Southwest. After his three speeches in Maine next week he will proceed to Missouri, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and California. The campaign committee's idea was to have Mr. Clark visit those states in which he thought he could be of the most value. He has chosen, therefore, those states that supported him at the Baltimore convention.

Representative Underwood will speak for the most part in the East and probably will discuss chiefly the tariff. The Democratic House leader has informed Representative Burleson, of Texas, chairman of the Speaker's bureau, that he wishes to rest until the end of September, but will then begin active campaign work. He will make speeches in New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Connecticut and New Hampshire. Governor Harmon will speak in the Middle West and Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, who is campaigning in Vermont now, will fill engagements outside of New England.

Friction in Committee Denied. Governor Wilson said last night that it was expected Chairman McCombs, who is ill, would resume active work at headquarters within two weeks. Rumors that there had been friction between other members of the committee and Chairman McCombs and that the chairman might not return to lead the campaign were emphatically denied by Governor Wilson. "I never knew any body of men to work in more thorough harmony than the members of this campaign committee," said Governor Wilson, "and their relations with Mr. McCombs have been those of intimate confidence and enthusiastic co-operation. They admire and trust him, as I do, and deem his assistance and guidance invaluable and such as no other man could give at this juncture. His absence is an embarrassment and a distress to them, as it is to me, and the plans they have carried out are plans which were worked out first of all with him."

"Her Own Way" at the Heilig

BY LEONE CASS BAER. NOT in the least in the nature of a farewell did it seem last night when Catherine Countess presented the delightful portrayal of Georgiana Corley, the girl who had "her own way," in the Clyde Fitch play of that name. When some folk are going away from a place where they have every reason to have been quite happy and to have given in return a very great deal of happiness as Miss Countess has undoubtedly done for us, they leave talking of the outward semblance of sorrow, and the regret of it all hangs over everything. No such thing occurs erous hunk of cake. Phoebe B. Beebe probably finds her name a mouthful as well. Eva Newton and Lucille Troglio are the two other children. Mary Edgett has a big role and one she enacts admirably with a strength of self-repression and a fine shading of emotion in the scenes, where handled by another actress, less wise, there could be occasion for much turning on of twopenns. Miss Edgett's role is that of the society loving sister, a heroine, a part she plays naturally, dresses in exquisite taste. Laura Adams, as the grande dame mother of the two girls, is afforded excellent chances for comedy effects—and it need not be recorded that she makes the most of her lines. To Henry Hall is given one of the really big roles of his season here. He is the designing friend—the other corner of the triangle made by the hero and heroine. Robert Lawler has another of these emotional roles where he must be all over a place, be at odds with everybody. But Lawler is a capital character actor—and plays with a thoroughness and a display of feeling that carries the value of real ability. John C. Livingston is the hero—Lieutenant Coleman—a role he fits into personally by reason of his handsome stage presence. Claire Sinclair is the comedy riot of the show. As Bella, the talkative, hairdresser, she flourishes in and out of the action, chatters knowingly and makes a decided impression with the audience which manifests its appreciation by applauding her often. Florence Davenport, a new arrival, is the maid, and Charles Schach is the butler, who butties. Scenically the production is satisfactory. "Her Own Way" will run all week at the Heilig.

OREGON SCENE OF TEST

CAMPAIGN AGAINST SOCIAL EVILS TO BE WAGED. Demand for State Department for Suppression of Vice Made by World's Purity Federation.

LA CROSSE, Wis., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Oregon is to be the scene of a unique campaign against social evils, in the demand for the establishment of a state department for the suppression of vice. The demand is backed by the World's Purity Federation, of which B. S. Steadwell, of this city, is president, and the campaign, if successful in Oregon and one or two other states where it will be instituted, will be carried into all parts of the Nation.

The states have no provision for police protection of the citizens," said President Steadwell, "and this bureau would furnish this protection specialists along the lines of prevention of white slavery and suppression of dives. In conjunction with the Federal Government, such state police bureaus would be able to wipe out the social evil, as commercially fostered." The plans for the campaign for the new bureau are not complete, but when completed all the literature will be sent out by the head office of the world's association here. The Oregon campaign, however, will be started immediately after the election, as the establishment of such a bureau or state department is expected will have to be submitted to popular vote, either by referendum of the Legislature, or by an amendment to the constitution.

JOHNSON'S RECALL ASKED

San Francisco Attorney Circulates Petitions in California. SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26.—Alba Unruh, a San Francisco attorney, is circulating a petition to recall Governor Johnson. He wrote a letter to the Governor last week denouncing him for alleged betrayal of the Progressive cause and accusing him particularly of being in league with certain politicians in San Francisco. It is not known here whether he represents anyone else in his effort to obtain signatures to a recall petition.

war may be executed. Saturday rebel leaders could have given up their arms and receive pardons. This is in accordance with the suspension of public rights announced some weeks ago from Mexico City. Not one rebel chief or soldier has taken advantage of the amnesty proposal. The whereabouts of Orozco, supposed to be trapped between cordons of Federal troops between Juarez and Chihuahua City, is still in doubt. There is a suspicion that Orozco may have escaped through the line somewhere and is on his way to Sonora.

CITY ATTORNEY IS SHOT

Chevelah Official Wounded by Unidentified Assassin. SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—E. D. Germain, City Attorney of Chevelah, Wash., in Stevens County, was fired on and wounded by an unidentified assassin at that place about 3 o'clock Sunday night. Five shots were fired and the victim is now lying at his home in a critical condition, with a bullet in his groin. Germain was at his office until late and was going home by way of Main and Stevens streets to observe the progress on a house he is erecting. A German man jumped up from behind a fence and fired. Exclaiming, "My God, man, you have shot me," and with blood spurting from the wound, he fled down the track, scaled a fence and reached the home of J. H. Roberts. Germain is a member of the City Council.

RAINS HEAVY IN ENGLAND

Farmers Mow in Foot of Water in Effort to Save Crops. LONDON, Aug. 26.—This August has been the wettest month known in England for many years. Rain fell every day for three weeks and has fallen nearly constantly during the last week. Damage to crops, particularly hay, has been heavy throughout the United Kingdom.

MERCILESS CAMPAIGN BEGUN

Rebels and Their Supporters to Be Executed Summarily. MEXICO CITY, Aug. 26.—Merciless extermination of rebels and all those who support them is the feature of the new campaign which began officially today. Throughout regions infested by rebels the measure providing for a suspension of regular trial is now in effect, and any officer above the rank of major who is found guilty of participation in the capital punishment of all rebels who fall into his hands, if satisfied of the captive's guilt. Instead of having disappeared from the state of Mexico into the mountains of Guerrero, the Zapatistas are now reported as practically in control of the villages and haciendas a few miles south of Toluca, the capital. Benjamin Argumedo and Murtillo, two of Orozco's officers, are operating in the rear of General Huerta near Torreon, while Campos, Campa, Fernandez and Rojas are giving the government forces in Sonora plenty to do. "The states have no provision for police protection of the citizens," said President Steadwell, "and this bureau would furnish this protection specialists along the lines of prevention of white slavery and suppression of dives. In conjunction with the Federal Government, such state police bureaus would be able to wipe out the social evil, as commercially fostered."

ACTRESS IS HONOR GUEST

Press Club Entertains Grace Cameron, of Orpheum. Grace Cameron, singing comedienne, who appeared at the Orpheum last week, and the members of the Portland Press Club held their third reunion at the Press Club Sunday night. And there was not a dull moment in the festivities which lasted two hours. Of course, the lion's part of the entertainment devolved on Miss Cameron, but nobody was disappointed. She measured up to the occasion. She had not sang many of her selections until her auditors joined in both verse and chorus. Miss Cameron is a complete entertainer in herself, but the programme last night was rounded out with other vocal selections by Miss Roberta Palm and Miss Gebest, of the Hotel Oregon. The details of the programme were directed by Lute Lease, manager of the club. A "Dutch lunch" was served.

TRIBUTE IS PAID DEAD EVANGELIST

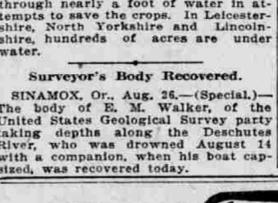

Thousands Press to See General Booth's Body, but Are Disappointed. LONDON, Aug. 26.—Great crowds gathered outside Congress Hall all day hoping to view the body of the late Salvationist leader, General William Booth, which for two days has been lying in state. The body, however, had been removed overnight to the General's private room and the hall was used for the regular Salvation Army service. The building was filled to its capacity, 2000 persons at each of the services. Of the floral tributes massed on the platform, those of the Queen Mother Alexandra and Emperor William were the most notable. The British and foreign flags and the decorations on the walls of the halls had not been removed.

FLORAL GIFTS ARE NOTABLE
