more generally known as the "Dallas district," are excellent. "The crops are heavy and so moulded at all has appeared. I am optimistic over the crop this year. The present condition of the weather is, of course, bad, but in my opinion, it will do no harm provided that it remains off and the atmosphere is 'mucky' and steam rises from the ground it will be bad. I am not prepared to say what rain damage might be in such a case.

RAIN DELAYS HARVESTING

PENDELTON, Or., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—Pendleton and vicinity are being visited with a heavy shower tonight with the thermometer having dropped over the tops this evening in the past few hours. Harvesting over the county is not yet concluded and it is feared the rain will again set up operations, owing to the later start of the season generally and the many delays caused by storms during the past six weeks, it is doubtful if the warehouses will receive all the grain for some time to come.
