

WALDO GIVES LIST OF RESORT OWNERS

Leaycrofts, High in Church Work, Are Included in Roster of Accused.

ASTOR ESTATE IN LIST

Representative Levy Shown as Lessor to Gambling Resort, but He Says He Has Sold Property. Brother, However, Is Owner.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Police Commissioner Waldo gave last night a list of pieces raided by the police as gambling resorts during the last year and the names of owners of the property on which the resorts were conducted. Among the names mentioned are those of many prominent in the financial, religious and social life of the city.

The Commissioner turned the list over to the District Attorney, who will use it as a basis of the proposed John Doe proceedings before Justice Goff next month, by which it is expected to expose police corruption.

Nearly 400 Places Listed.
Nearly 400 places are mentioned in the gambling list. The summoning of many owners as witnesses at the John Doe proceedings is understood to be part of the plan on the District Attorney to determine the responsibility of the owners in allowing their property to be rented for gambling purposes, which is a misdemeanor.

Few Convictions Follow.
A notable feature of the list is the comparatively small number of convictions which followed the arrests made in the raids, a large majority of the prisoners having been discharged either by the court or the grand jury.

Representative Levy in List.
The name of Representative Lefferson N. Levy, of New York, is prominent as the owner of a gambling resort known as the New England Dramatic and Pleasure Club, four times raided. Levy, in a statement last night, said as soon as he received notice of the capture of his tenants he immediately began disposition proceedings, but was unable to get rid of them.

Secretary Rules on Hyde-Benson Fraud Cases.
No Preference Right to Be Gained Except by Congressional Action. Hereafter to Be Taken.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 28.—One of the most important rulings affecting the public domain of the West ever rendered by the Interior Department was handed down today by First Assistant Secretary Adams in a proceeding before the land department involving more than 250,000 acres, and embraced in what is known as the Hyde-Benson land frauds.

Portland Suffragists Meet.
The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Equal Suffrage League took place yesterday afternoon at headquarters in the Selling-Hirsch building, under the presidency of Mrs. Solomon Hirsch. After the usual reports of committees had been read, three interesting addresses were delivered by women who have been prominent in connection with suffrage work in Oregon during the present campaign.

Becker's Trial Delayed.
John F. McIntyre, counsel for Becker, obtained a delay yesterday in the murder case until September 2 by serving a writ staying the proceedings. The writ was served on Assistant District Attorney Rubin and Judge Mulqueen of the court of general sessions, before whom Becker was to have been arraigned yesterday for pleading. Supreme Court Justice Amundson issued the writ.

Rain Ceases in England.
Rising Streams, However, Add to Plight of Many Cities.
LONDON, Aug. 28.—Rain, which has been deluging the United Kingdom almost constantly since the beginning of the month, ceased in most parts of the country yesterday and the outlook generally is fairer. The plight of Norwich, however, has become worse from the rapid rise of the Wensum.

MRS. ROBERT LUTKE BURIED.
Funeral of Club and Fraternity Woman Is Held.
The funeral of Mrs. Robert Lutke, a prominent club and fraternity woman of Portland, was conducted yesterday at the residence, 301 North Twenty-fourth street. The services at the home were conducted by Dr. Benjamin Young, of the Taylor-street Methodist Church, Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller sang.

The ceremony at the grave in River-view cemetery was under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Lutke was an officer at the time of her death. The pallbearers were M. C. Bartfield, R. Bartfield, H. H. Isher, F. Watkins, P. Neu and A. Thurston. Two automobiles filled with floral tributes accompanied the procession to the cemetery.

Margaret L. Kneer was born in Millbrook, Ill., in 1861, of German parentage. Since 1879 she has made her home in California and Oregon. An only child died in San Francisco in 1892.

BELMONT GUESTS ROMP

SOCIETY LEADER ENTERTAINS AT NEWPORT'S COUNTRY.
Rides on Merry-Go-Round, Fun in Shooting Gallery and Dance in Public Hall Are Enjoyed.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—Whirling about in merry-go-rounds and thrusting at coveted brass ring prizes, bowling over "Aunt Sally" or shooting at bobbing balls in the rifle range, more than 300 members of the Belmont colony enjoyed several hours of amusement last night as guests of Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont at Newport's public beach. After 10 o'clock the public was excluded from Newport's miniature Coney Island.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Contestants Can Join.
There is a fair prospect that the Bull Moose will have a serious contest for Representative at Large, though none of the aspirants for that nomination has started on an aggressive campaign. There is a fight for nomination in the First, Second and Third districts, but only in the First, as the contest reached a state of bitterness that threatens a serious breach in the ranks of the new party men.

Walker Will Oppose.
These well-known London characteristics stirred up trouble long ago, and his disinclination to cultivate poise and carefulness of speech has made it possible for the assertion by those who oppose his nomination to be made openly that Landon's election would discredit the Bull Moose of the Northwest. So they picked on George H. Walker, who has pulchritude in plenty. Also he has polish, for he has been president of the Rainier Club and he fairly oozes culture. He is typical of the class of "high brow" terms "high brow progressives."

DELL AIMS AT ELECTORS.
San Francisco Attorney Attacks Manager of Their Choice.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Alva Udell, who is circulating a petition for the recall of Governor Johnson, applied to the Superior Court today for an injunction restraining Frank C. Jordan, secretary of the State, from certifying to the nomination of the electors chosen in Sacramento on September 24 by the candidates successful at the primary election.

NEW YORK MANAGERS SEEK MISS COUNTISS.
Two Flattering Offers to Be Investigated by E. D. Price for Popular Star Who Has Appeared at Heilig This Summer.

YOU can't hunt ducks with a brass band. It is the characteristic way in which E. D. Price, manager for Cathrine Countiss, answered when asked concerning the theatrical plans of that charming actress. "Miss Countiss has two excellent offers from New York producing firms, and she is distinctly a smart society woman in a modern problem play. Both of these parts have been offered her, but she prefers to be in personal communication with the producers before she accepts either. We are an entire stretch of continent away from New York, and Miss Countiss is not buying porkers in pokes. In other words, she will not accept any contracts by telegraph, but will go immediately to New York to read over and buy her own porker."

In the meantime I will say that Miss Countiss is having a play written for her that promises to be the long-sought-for American drama. I have nothing to give out about it save that Miss Countiss will produce it about the first of January. The big show she will have is a heavy emotional one. For several seasons Miss Countiss has played roles created by other stars; now she is to create a

CONTESTS LOOM IN BULL MOOSE RANKS

Fight on for Representative Nomination in Three Districts in Washington.

FILING TIME NEARS END

Voluntary Primaries Will Be Held September 7 and Regular Primaries on Tenth—Ballot Printing Is Halted.

BY M. M. MATTHEWS.
SEATTLE, Aug. 28.—(Special.)—Two more days' time will be given candidates to file on the Progressive party ticket, and the state organization will send out telegraphic notices to county committees of the state and Congressional filings. Ballots must be printed and distributed to various precinct officials in time for the voluntary primaries to be held September 7.

Wilson Is Out of Politics.
Seattle Politician and Publisher Announces Trip Abroad.

SPokane, Wash., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—L. Wilson, ex-United States Senator and for many years known as the political leader of the state by his friends, is out of politics. At the end of this month, Mr. Wilson announced today, he plans to leave for a trip abroad. While the Seattle politician was chary in regard to speaking of his future plans, he has told close friends that for the next three years he plans to be out of the country most of the time. He has also told his friends that he seeks no further political preferment and intends to take no further active part in partisan politics.

MORTGAGE MEN BANQUET.
Monthly Dinner of Chapin-Herlow Company Interesting Occasion.

One of the banquets tendered each month by the Chapin-Herlow Mortgage and Trust Company to their employees and friends at the Commercial Club of Seattle, was given Tuesday night in the banquet-room of the Portland Commercial Club. Addresses were made by Edgar B. Piper, president of the Commercial Club; Marshall N. Dana and Professor H. K. Benson, of the University of Washington. David S. Mann, publisher of the monthly, weekly and daily news matter, presided as toastmaster and kept on "his heels" through the seven delightful courses of the dinner.

MRS. ROBERT LUTKE BURIED.
Funeral of Club and Fraternity Woman Is Held.
The funeral of Mrs. Robert Lutke, a prominent club and fraternity woman of Portland, was conducted yesterday at the residence, 301 North Twenty-fourth street. The services at the home counties of the Second District. Some of the Auditors will remove his name by reprinting ballots, crossing out the name or because they held up the printing until the last moment, and can do so. This will result in some counties voting a single choice and others where Warburton's name appears in voting for both first and second choice Congressional candidates. However, insofar as the Republican situation is concerned, it is likely that Albert Johnson, of Hoquiam, will receive the nomination, while Warburton is practically assured of the Bull Moose selection.

Hodge Jobber Is Belief.
The only serious contest left on the state ticket will be that for the gubernatorial nomination. There seems to be a general feeling that "Sheriff Bob" Hodge, of Seattle, was jobbed when he was induced to withdraw his filing on the regular Republican ticket and run as a Bull Moose candidate.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Managers Are Confident.
Relying solely on the popularity of the movement, the state managers of the Progressive party assert they will be able to complete their organization even in counties where no steps toward organization have yet been taken, get out ballots and hold a representative primary on September 7, although not until the end of the month when it can be determined whether or not the primaries have been a success after the results have become known.

Drink a Glass of Coca-Cola
Hold it up—see how it sparkles and bubbles with life; it suggests joy and laughter. Taste it—cooling, refreshing, delicious—overflowing with vim and snap.

Free Our new booklet, telling of Coca-Cola suggestions at Chattanooga, for the asking.
Whenever you see an Arrow think of Coca-Cola.
Demand the Genuine—Refuse Substitutes
THE COCA-COLA CO.
ATLANTA, GA.

REPORTER IN CUBA ATTACKS DIPLOMAT

Charge d'Affaires of American Legation Assaulted at Hotel Door.
ASSAILANT PUT IN JAIL.
Man Springs From Behind and Knocks H. S. Gibson Down. Grievance Is Refusal to Let Reporter Enter Legation.

HAVANA, Aug. 28.—Hugh S. Gibson, the charge d'affaires of the American legation at Havana, while entering a hotel here last night was assaulted by a Cuban newspaper reporter. Gibson was not seriously injured. His assailant was arrested and the Cuban Secretary of State personally expressed his regret to the charge d'affaires over the occurrence.

Udell Aims at Electors.
San Francisco Attorney Attacks Manager of Their Choice.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Alva Udell, who is circulating a petition for the recall of Governor Johnson, applied to the Superior Court today for an injunction restraining Frank C. Jordan, secretary of the State, from certifying to the nomination of the electors chosen in Sacramento on September 24 by the candidates successful at the primary election.

Safety above all things is the rule at the Hartman-Thompson Bank.
Your account is cordially invited.
Fourth and Stark Sts.

10,000 Woodmen and their wives, sweethearts and friends will attend the STATE FAIR ON W.O.W. DAY Tuesday, September 3, 1912.
Woodmen's Special Excursion Train direct to State Fairgrounds, leaves Union Station 8:00 A. M.; East Morrison Street 8:10 A. M.
via SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Returning first section leaves Fairgrounds 5:30 P. M.; second section 7:45 P. M.
ROUND TRIP $1.50 Return Limit September 9.
Children between 5 and 12 years Half Fare. $500 in Prizes for Woodmen. 2:25 Pace—W. O. W. Purse—$2400.
Head Consul I. I. Boak Will Be Present.

EVERY WOODMAN IN OREGON SHOULD BE THERE.
Tickets now on sale City Ticket Office, Third and Washington Street and Union Depot.
JOHN M. SCOTT, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Or.

FIFTY-FIRST OREGON STATE FAIR
Salem—September 2-7, 1912
Livestock, Poultry, Agricultural Manufactured and Other Exhibits
Horse Races Dog Show Shooting Tournament Fireworks Band Concerts Eugenie Exposition Playground for the Children Free Attractions Free Camp Grounds Reduced Rates on Railroads
For Particulars Address FRANK MEREDITH, Secretary, Salem, Oregon.